Major-league baseball fired a 31-homer salute in honor of Memorial Day and when the smoke settled today, rookie Bob Speake of the surprising Chicago Cubs turned out to be the holiday's biggest blaster.

Speake, a mere .264 hitter in the Class A Western league last season, sparked two rallies that carried the Cubs to a 9-5, 10-inning victory in the opener.

By UNITED PRESS
 The Indians and White Sox lured 40,645 fans to Comiskey park, Chicago, the largest crowd of the season at that arena, to top an outpouring of 193,548 at major-league games Memorial day.

The total attendance for the holiday presented a slight increase over last year's 190,357, but there were eight programs this year and only seven due to rain in Milwaukee last year.

On an average, the holiday crowds dropped from last year's 27,193 per game to this year's 24,195.

against the St. Louis Cardinals and then settled the 11-inning nightcap with a homer that produced a 4-3 triumph.

And thus the "Windy City wonders" passed the Memorial Day milestone as the only National League team offering the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers a serious fight.

The Dodgers also swept a twin bill, 8-4, and 8-3, over last-place Pittsburgh, and did the day's greatest mass cannonading with five homers. But, thanks to Speake's heroics, the Brooklyn blasters were unable to improve on their league lead of six games.

Speake's two homers gave him a total of 10 and his five runs-batted-in a total of 32. And the 24-year-old southpaw swinger from Springfield, Mo., has compiled a .304 batting mark that is a far cry from his Western league average.

Williams Hits First Homer
 Ted (The Thumper) Williams, joined the holiday slugging with his first homer of the year in the Boston Red Sox' opening game, an 8-6 loss to Baltimore, before the Sox took the nightcap, 8-1. It was the 367th homer of Ted's big-league career and served as a warning to all pitchers that the game's last .400 hitter is whacking the ball again.

Roy Campanella and pitcher Don Newcombe each smashed two homers in the Dodger triumphs, Newcombe's pair helping him to the nightcap victory that gave him the best pitching record in the majors—eight wins and no losses. Russ Meyer was the opening winner, with relief from Ed Rosebuck.

Willie May's two-run eighth-inning homer gave the New York Giants an opening game, 6-5 victory over Philadelphia, smashing the Phillies' seven-game winning streak. But lefty Jack Meyer dropped the Giants 10 games behind Brooklyn by "saving" a 3-1 victory for Bob Kuzava in the night cap. It was the third time Meyer relieved and stopped the Giants within seven days.

The Milwaukee Braves swept a twin bill from Cincinnati, 7-6, and 8-4 with substitute first baseman George Crowe the big man. Crowe singled home the winning run in the opening game, his third hit of that fray, and then walked a three-run homer and scored two runs in the second game.

In the American league, the New York Yankees maintained their three-game lead over Cleveland by rallying to win the second game of a doubleheader from Washington, 5-3, after losing the opener, 3-2. Cleveland beat Chicago, 9-1 in their opener, and the White Sox took the second, 5-0, behind Billy Pierce. Kansas City took two games from Detroit, 8-6, and 5-4.

Irv Noren's pinch-hit single with the bases loaded in the seventh inning scored two runs to break a 3-3 tie and give the Yankees their victory. In the opener, pinch-hitter Mickey McDermott of Washington also singled with the bases loaded, to give Porterfield a pitching victory over Bob Turley.

Pierce, who beat Cleveland on three hits a week ago allowed the Indians just seven this time and the only Tribe runner to reach third base got there on an error. Pierce helped himself with three singles. Bob Lemon of Cleveland pitched a six-hitter in the opener for his first complete game since April 30.

Baltimore scored two ninth-inning runs on two walks and two hits to beat Boston in their opener, but Ike Delock held the Orioles to four hits in the second game.

Ex-Yankee Johnny Sain pitched two-hit relief ball for 3 1-3 innings to save the opener for Kansas City. Gus Zernial singled home the winning run in the nightcap in the 11th inning.

Studs Outslug Yreka Diamond Nine 22-16; Fray Here Wednesday

Medford's Cheney Studs are hosts Wednesday night to the Yreka, Calif., semi-pro baseball nine and, if the clash bears any similarity to the one played yesterday at Yreka, what a slugfest fans will see at the fairgrounds ball park. Wow!

Thirty-eight runs crossed the plate and 44 hits, including six home runs, smashed out as the Studs overcame the California crew 22 to 16 in the holiday afternoon engagement.

Jack Cooney of the Cheney gang led the home run parade with a 360-foot clout over the right field wall in the fifth inning and a 400-footer over the center field fence in the eighth. One man was on base each time.

In the fourth canto Manager Clarence Mellbye of the Studs began the roundtripper parade with a bases-loaded slam over the left field barrier. Lloyd Hoffine cracked the ball over the middle fence in the sixth with a runner on base and Ritchie Price duplicated in ninth with two on. Clark got the lone homer for Yreka.

Five Pitchers Raked
 Hitters teed off against five pitchers as Medford had the slugging edge 26 to 18.

Mellbye and Harvey Tonn headed Medford swatters with four raps in five times up and Hoffine hit four for six. Tonn connected for one double. Ed McCullough and Bill McLean had four for seven afternoons for the Studs while Cooney socked three for six and Price three for seven.

Jones was the overall heavy hitter for Yreka with a double, triple and two singles in six turns. Clark had two singles in addition to the homer. Derushia hit three for six with two doubles and Kruziter doubled three for six with one a double.

A hard gravelly field helped produce the hits. Whether batters can have the same success on the fairgrounds turf is a question to be answered only Wednesday.

The Studs had the two biggest innings in the holiday mix with four in the first and six in the fourth. They scored in all but one frame while the Yreka's got runs in six panels.

Hoffine, top hurler for the Southern Oregon college nine during the season just past, may handle the pitching scores for the Studs on Wednesday night. He played right field on Monday. Yreka pitching choice appears to lie among Costello, Hewing and Cummings.

Bill Kleaver may be the Yreka receiver. Likely infielders are Clark, first base; Hodgen, second base; Krutzer, third base, and Jones, shortstop. Outfielders could be picked from among Fasolette, Moffit, Derushia and Beneke.

LINESCORES:
 Medford 401 622 223—22 26 3
 Yreka 232 330 003—16 18 7
 Kelley, Mellbye (4) and McLean; Costello, Hewing (1), Cummings (7) and Kleaver.

Patty Berg Named To Replace Babe
 San Francisco—(U.P.)—Patty Berg, former National Women's Open champion, will substitute for Babe Zaharias in the National Golf Day competition here June 4.

Mrs. Zaharias announced yesterday in Beaumont, Tex., that she would have to cancel her golf commitments because of a back and leg injury.

The sponsors of National Golf Day, Life magazine and the PGA, named Miss Berg to replace the Babe.

Miss Berg will arrive here Thursday in preparation for playing the Saturday event on the Olympic club course with National Open Champion Ed Furgol.

"I'm not much of a substitute for the Babe," Miss Berg said, "but I'll do my best."

TO REPLACE LABUA
 New York—(U.P.)—Hardy Smallwood of Brooklyn has been named to replace Jackie Labua of Long Island City, N.Y., in the feature 10-round bout against Rafael Martentino of Argentina, at St. Nicholas Arena, Monday night, June 6.

Bobo Olson May Fight Don Cockell

San Francisco—(U.P.)—World middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson will tangle with Don Cockell, recent losing challenger for the world heavyweight crown, in London in August, if present plans go through, Manager Sid Flaherty said today.

"I have a man in England now conferring with promoters on the project," said Flaherty. "If we get the right kind of an offer, I expect Bobo will battle Cockell."

Trip Definite
 Flaherty said that no matter what happens during the Olson-Archie Moore battle June 22 for the world lightweight crown, that the trip to Europe will be made.

"I'm planning on taking seven or eight fighters over there and Olson will represent the lightweight class," said Flaherty.

"I've sent Jack Beynon, former local promoter, ahead to discuss financial arrangements with promoters. If he comes up with the right amount of money, we hope to match Olson with Cockell."

Cockell Weighs 210
 Cockell, the British Empire heavyweight champion who weighs around the 210 mark, recently was knocked out in the ninth round by Rocky Marciano in a try for the world title at San Francisco.

Summit, N. J.—(U.P.)—Light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore began training here Monday in preparation for his world title bout with middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson in New York's Polo Grounds, June 22.

The Memorial day accident toll in the Pacific Coast league was plenty high this year—particularly in the vicinity of first place San Diego.

The Padres, who have been acting like they never heard of speed laws ran into a road block thrown up by Lefty O'Doul and lost twice to their ex-manager 10-1 and 2-1.

The rest of the league took full advantage of the Padre misstep. The San Francisco Seals second place with 8-7 and 11-2 wins over Seattle. Sacramento brought Los Angeles back into the second division with 6-4 and 4-0 boppings. And Portland and Hollywood each gained a game by splitting—Portland 6-5 and Hollywood 4-2.

Pads Score Twice
 O'Doul, who brought San Diego a pennant last season, brought them double trouble yesterday. His Oaks won big in the first one and close in the second, holding the rampant Pads to a total of two runs and nine hits.

Don Ferrarese held the Padres to three blows in the first game, slapped a homer himself and picked up the victory.

Jim Marshall hit an Acorn home run in the ninth inning—a frame that saw the Oaks score eight times to cinch the win.

In the second game Allen Gettel went the six-hit distance and the Oaks got to Lloyd Dickey for the necessary two runs in the fifth frame.

San Francisco replaced Seattle in the runner-up spot on southpaw wins. Gene Bearden picked up his eighth victory without defeat as the Seals came from behind to win with two in the seventh of the first game. Nini Tornay hit a homer for the winners.

In the second the Seals provided Steve Nagy with plenty of runs. Steve rationed the Rainiers to five hits, one a homer by Ray Ortega.

DiPietro Hits Again
 Bob DiPietro hit in his 22nd and 23rd straight contests for the Seals.

Sacramento got five hit pitching from Marino Pieretti in the opener and won when Tommy Glaviano and Al Heist hit consecutive home runs in the sixth. Bob Usher and Steve Bilko homered for Los Angeles.

In the second game Earl Harritt blanked the Angels on two hits while the Cherubs were contributing four errors to the Sacramento cause.

Portland had to go 10 innings to win the first game as Eddie Basinski scored the winning run on Artie Wilson's sacrifice fly.

Carl Scheib took the win in relief and Lino Donoso, fourth Star hurler, was the loser.

In the second game, George

O'Donnell got the win in relief and Bob Hill was charged with the defeat. Wilson hit a homer for the only two Portland runs in the third inning.
