Quarter-Finals Gained in Men's Two-Ball Match Play Tournament

Dr. Bob Sleeter and Royal Bebb were extended the most among the surviving duos as action in the men's two-ball match play partnership golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club swung from the third round into the championship quarter-finals over the weekend.

The two had to go two extra holes, a total of 20, to shade Charles McIntyre and Emmet Bullard in the third round brush. Sleeter and Bebb joined seven other crews for quarter-final tussles.

In this week's round Al Althens and Ward Samuelson play Brad Broyles and Ted Groomes; George Harrington and Ray Wise face Sleeter and Bebb; Frank Allen and Carl Schmidt oppose Bob Corbin and Norm Hillier, and Ward Hammond and Bill Hartman meet Bill Blackledge and Norton Smith.

MacLeod Nets 68

Matches are to be completed by next Sunday night.

Twenty-six men took part here over the week end in National Golf day competition. Ed Furgol, U.S. Open champ, will play a round at Los Angeles Olympic club on Saturday, June 4. Linkmen throughout the country are trying to beat his gross with their nets. If they do, they'll get "I beat Ed Furgol" medals. The American Red Cross will benefit from the proceeds.

Tom MacLeod's 68 net was the best on the Rogue Valley Links Saturday and Sunday. He also had a 69. Deane Lambert carded a 69 and Larry Butler netted 71. Last year MacLeod was the only member of the local club to beat Ben Hogan.

Low gross honors in the ball sweepstakes on Saturday went to Ed Hall and Larry Butler with 78s. The 69s by Lambert and MacLeod tied them for net honors. Bob Morris won blind bogey.

THIRD ROUND RESULTS:

Championship flights—Al Althens and Ward Samuelson def. Morris Leonard and Ed Hall 1 up; Brad Broyles and Ted Groomes def. Andy Anderson and Larry Butler 2 and 1; George Harrington and Ray

Emeralds Take Pair From Braves

The Eugene Emeralds pushed across a lone 10th inning run to beat Tri-City's Braves, 2-1, in the second game of a North-west League baseball double-header last night and sweep the pair. The Emeralds won the first game, 5-1.

Gladstone Scores

The teams were tied at 1-1 going into the 10th when Manuel Romero slammed out a double for Eugene to start the inning. Romero was out later when he tried to score on an infield grounder, but the play put Granny Gladstone in position to score on a sacrifice fly.

Eugene had an easier time in the first game. Three walks, a batter hit by a pitched ball and two sacrifices pushed across two runs for the Emeralds in the second inning without benefit of any hits. The later Eugene runs weren't even needed for the win.

Salem Divides Two

League-leading Wenatchee and second-place Salem divided a pair of games to keep their relative standings. Wenatchee took the first game, 7-6, and Salem got the second game by a 4-3 score. The opener featured a total of seven home runs.

The Yakima Braves swept both games of a doubleheader with Lewiston. The Braves scored in all innings but the last to win the opener, 11-2, and then took the nightcap, 9-3.

Sweikert To Get At Least $32,900 For Speedway Win

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press Sports Writer

Indianapolis, Ind.—(U.P.)—Bob Sweikert found fortune and Bill Vukovich, who discovered the identical pot of gold earlier, found death on the same site, the Indianapolis Speedway.

Sweikert, a balding 29-year-old driver who never had finished in three previous starts in the 500-mile Memorial Day race, won a minimum of $32,900 Monday with the first place in the 39th renewal of the annual contest.

Vukovich, driving for the fifth time, winner for the past two years and pace setter for San Lorenzo, Calif.—(U.P.)—Bob Sweikert's mother said she used to "sit home and cry" when her son started racing, but admitted she is now the "biggest fan" of her son, winner of yesterday's Indianapolis 500-mile race.

"I thought I would die when Bob started racing," Mrs. F. A. Maloney said. "I would sit home and just cry."

"But after Bob was racing for a while, some of his friends came over to convince me I should see a race. I went to one race, then another, then another, and soon I was his biggest fan."

She said his victory in the Memorial Day classic was "just wonderful."

1955's fastest field in history until he collided with death, lay today in a mortuary.

Tonight, when Sweikert steps up at the payoff banquet to collect perhaps more money than Vukovich won last year, $74,934, with a record speed, 130.840 miles per hour, final burial arrangements will be completed for the Fresno, Calif., pilot who led the speedway field for 485 of the last 800 laps.

Niday Injured Critically
Meanwhile, Cal Niday, injured in another crash, was in critical condition. Niday was hurt when he spun and hit the northwest wall.

Sweikert finished the race with an average speed of 128,209 miles per hour, slowest since 1951 when Lee Wallard won at 126,244. But he was held down for 27 minutes and 10 seconds while the wreckage of the five car crash in which Vukovich found flaming death was cleared from the track.

Vukovich got in trouble because Roger Ward hit a bridge over the track on the backstretch. Johnny Boyd flipped over, trying to avoid Ward. Then Vukovich came along. He rode up over both racers, soared over the outside wall, collided with a car, a truck and a jeep and turned over in flames. Vukovich remained inside to die as the flames were extinguished.

Vukovich before he died was the major factor. He led the field for 50 laps and had the pace at a record speed, 136,212 miles per hour, at 125 miles for the only new mark of the event.

With the caution light on so long, the field never got a chance to challenge the record again. Niday's accident kept the final speed down also.

Six Men Led Race

Only six men led during the race. Jack McGrath, the record holder for qualification tests, challenged Vukovich early and set the race for six laps. Jimmy Bryan moved in front after Vukovich was killed.

Then Sweikert took over, after 89 laps, and held first until 132 laps. Art Cross and Don Freedland each led briefly too after Sweikert made his last pit stop before the winner moved ahead to stay after 160 laps. And McGrath, Bryan, Cross and Freedland all went out with mechanical troubles.

In second place was Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill. Jimmy Davies, Pacoima, Calif., was third, and Johnny Thomson, Springfield, Mass., fourth. All

BOUT SLATED

Richmond, Calif.—(U.P.)—Reuben Vargas, former national AAU heavyweight champion, and Roger Rischer of Oakland tangle here tonight in a scheduled eight-round fight. Vargas will be aiming for his fifth straight victory as a professional. Rischer has won nine against two losses.

Leaders in ABC Not Threatened

Fort Wayne, Ind.—(U.P.)—Leaders in the American Bowling Congress tournament neared the stretch today with little indication that their positions will be threatened before the June 5 windup.

Scores posted after yesterday's rounds, with action limited by the Memorial Day lull, were as cool as the 50-degree weather here. The ABC is in its last week.

The day's best for an open division team was 2813, recorded by the Port Huron Mattress and Furniture five, Port Huron, Mich. It was 200 pins from the top 10.

Three team squads were in action, but only one each of the individual singles and doubles squads were on the alleys.

Best efforts were John Zappof's, Menomonee Falls, Wis., with a 563 singles series, and a doubles high of 1171 by Paul Crim and Herschel Million, New Albany, Ind.

Depoe Bay, Ore.—(U.P.)—An estimated 17,000 persons attended the 10th annual Fleet of Flowers here yesterday, a ceremony paying tribute to those who have lost their lives at sea.

Cudd To Play John Hartopp In British Amateur Match; 20 Yanks in Competition

St. Anne's, England—(U.P.)—Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va. beaten last year in the final of the British Amateur golf tournament, starts his 1955 quest for the championship today with a

Giants, White Sox Get New Players

New York — (U.P.) — Ramon Monzant, right handed pitcher who had a 7-1 win-loss record at Minneapolis of the American association, has been recalled by the parent New York Giants and right hander Al Corwin has been sent down in his place.

Chicago — (U.P.) — Outfielder Bob Kennedy was added to the Chicago White Sox' roster today in a straight cash purchase from the Baltimore Orioles. To make room for him, the Sox optioned outfielder Ed McGhee to Memphis of the Southern association.

wary eye on the pitfalls that already have claimed 16 Americans.

Others Advance

In all, 20 U.S. amateurs are scheduled for an assortment of first and second round matches today. Three other Yanks originally scheduled for matches have advanced to the next round because their opponents defaulted. The other seven of the 30 Americans still in the tournament are idle.

Campbell, the 32-year-old U.S. Walker Cup captain, meets Ralph Pattinson of Scotland in a first round match. Campbell was beaten, 2 and 1, by Doug Bachli of Australia in last year's final at Gullane, Scotland. Bachli did not return to defend his title this year.

Cudd To Play

Dale Morey of Indianapolis and Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., who were among the 17 Americans victorious on Monday, were the only other U.S.
