(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The skylark and the nightingale. Though small and light of wing, yet warble sweeter in the grove Than all the birds that sing.

And so a little woman. Though a very little thing, is sweeter far than sugar. And flowers that bloom in spring.

Twenty-four times more men than women die from heart attacks. Many more men than women have stomach ulcers and nervous breakdowns. Why? Experts on the subject say it is because women do not try to hide their feelings as men do. When they feel badly, they cry. When they are angry or frightened, they scream. When the longest they have two bucks on comes into the stretch in front they yell. And how! In short, the women release their emotions. Men try to keep everything under control. Keep this in mind, mister. Change your policy. When you are excited out loose, scream, yell and whatnot. When you blow a three horse parlay don't just sulk and brood. Go into a corner somewhere or to your room and have a good cry.

Heart Breakfast. It is not only on the morning of the execution that condemned men in California are given a chance to eat a hearty breakfast. Such breakfasts are offered daily for the men in the death house. There is regularly issued a menu bearing the title: "State of California Weekly Menu for Condemned Men." This includes all three daily meals. A sample breakfast follows: "Half grapefruit, cornmeal mush, scrambled eggs, sausage, fried potatoes, cream gravy, biscuits, toast, coffee, milk tea."

Remember a song titled "Brown October Ale?" from "Hollywood Kiss" described as "Having 15 seconds." No details were furnished as to the intensity of the osculation. Nor was it mentioned what type of embrace accompanied same. However, 15 seconds is longer than you think. To get an idea, give your wife a kiss that long.

Where and when did you first meet the girl who became your wife? Astrologers claim the first meeting has some bearing on the married life of a couple. The stargazers say it is good to have first met at a theater, a dance, a restaurant or at the girl's home. A race track is not so good. That means a life of many changes. A hospital is bad. Means a life of many difficulties. Best time for a first meeting with a future bride, according to the astrologer, is somewhere outdoors when there is a rainbow in the sky.

ALINE MOSBY. United Press Correspondent. Editor's note: Aline Mosby is on vacation. Guest columnist Betty Grable explains what has limited her movie career recently—her family.

By BETTY GRABLE. Written for the United Press. Hollywood — (U.P.) — I'm very, very unpopular with a number of producers right now.

I've turned down their picture offers. Not that I didn't like the script, the directors or the money they offered me. I just refuse to leave home, and most of the offers have been for pictures to be done on location.

It may sound corny, but my husband, Harry James, is the breadwinner in our family and I'm the wife Harry leaves behind when he has to take his band on tour, and I'm the mother of his two daughters, Vicki and Jessie James.

Close To Children. I just don't believe in turning my kids over to strangers to take care of. I don't happen to believe in taking them out of school at the drop of a contract, in the middle of a term and transporting them here and there.

When they're a little older, traveling may be a great thing for them, they'll be old enough to appreciate it. Right now I think the security of being in the same school, with their own friends, of being at home with their parents, is the most important thing I can do for their future — and Harry agrees with me.

Have Fun Together. They're wonderful kids, happy and healthy, good, intelligent, undemanding and unspo
