

Sal Tosses 5-Hitter As Giants Gain Ground

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
 Leo Durocher felt about 10 years younger today—and all because Sal Maglie continues to grow old gracefully.

Maglie came through again Tuesday night for the wobbling New York Giants when he turned in a five-hitter to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, for his sixth straight triumph. It was an important victory for the Giants because it enabled them to pick up a game on the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers who bowed to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-3.

The Cleveland Indians got another spectacular relief performance from Don Mossi to edge out the Baltimore Orioles, 2-1, in 13 innings and move to within 2½ games of the first-place New York Yankees. All the other major league teams were idle.

Durocher was forced to remain in the clubhouse because of a virus infection Tuesday night but was reported feeling "just fine" after Maglie's performance. The 37-year-old curvball specialist yielded a run in the first inning on two hits and a sacrifice fly and then went on to strike out seven batters and yield only three hits the remainder of the way.

Perfect May Slate
 Maglie dropped all three of his decisions in April but rebounded to post a 6-0 slate in May and silence talk that he might be washed up as a star pitcher. He now has turned in four complete games and sports a glittering 2.07 earned run average.

Bob Friend, a 25-year-old right-hander, became the first pitcher to beat the Dodgers twice this season with an eight-hitter spiced with nine strikeouts. The Pirates supported him with a 13-hit attack that included a homer by Jerry Lynch and key blows by Dick Groat and George Freese in downing rookie relief ace Ed Roebuck.

Friend had trouble only in the fourth inning when Roy Campanella blasted a two-run homer—his 13th, tying him for the major league lead with Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski—and Sandy Amoros followed with a homer.

Mossi, a 25-year-old southpaw with a blazing cross-fire delivery, relieved Bob Feller in the eighth inning and limited the Orioles to two hits in six shutout innings as the Indians gained their fifth victory in six games. Mossi, who had a 6-1 record and 1.94 E.R.A. last season, has yielded only one run in 2 2/3 innings this year for an 0.44 E.R.A.

Feller, seeking his second win of the season and the 264th of his career, allowed only four hits in seven innings but one of them was Gene Woodling's home run which stood up until Philley's ninth-inning round-tripper.

PCL Split Season Rumors Rampant

San Francisco — (U.P.)—Rumors of a split 1955 season and a possible franchise transfer were rampant yesterday as directors of the Pacific Coast league scheduled a meeting for next Monday.

However, league president Claire Goodwin said he didn't know anything about the rumors. But he did concede that it was conceivable that a director might bring up the question of a split season or the transfer of Sacramento's franchise to Vancouver.

Goodwin stressed the fact that this was not an emergency meeting, but merely a regularly scheduled one held every year about the time of the All-Star game in the city of the preceding year's pennant winner.

CHEAPER IN FORMOSA?

Chicago — (U.P.)—Mayor Richard J. Daley has revealed that his recent election campaign cost nearly $500,000. Then his visitor, Mayor Yu-Shu Kao of Taipei, Formosa, spoke up. He said his campaign cost him $6,000.

UO Distance Men Will Enter Meet

Eugene — (U.P.)—Oregon will enter five men in the Pacific Coast Conference Big Ten track and field meet at Berkeley, Calif., June 21. They include miler Bill Dellinger, two-miler Ken Reiser, Jim Bailey and Doug Clement in the 800 and broad jumper Martin Pedigo.

San Francisco — (U.P.)—Art Passarella, former American league umpire, returned to baseball today as an umpire in the Pacific Coast league. Passarella had been conducting a radio-TV sports show at St. Augustine, Fla.

ND All-Star Dominated By Oregon

Moscow, Ida.—(U.P.)—The all-Northern Division baseball team named today looked almost like the starting lineup for the division champion University of Oregon Ducks with six Webfoots making the grade.

Oregon State's Jay Dean at first base was, however, the only player named unanimously to the first team.

Oregon took over the rest of the infield with Jim Johnson at second, Pete Williams at third and John Keller at shortstop. The battery was Oregon's too with Neil Marlett as catcher and Terry Maddox as one of the two pitchers named. Outfielder George Shaw completed Oregon's contribution.

Jerry Exeley of Oregon State and Terry Sparks of Washington State finished out the outfield while Washington's Bill Reams was named the second pitcher.

Dean with 20 points led the balloting with George Shaw second with 17 points. Sparks was third with 16 points.

Balloting was close at only two positions. Johnson nosed out W.S.C.'s Gordy Hervey at second by only one first team vote and Williams had only a four point margin over Idaho's Flip Fleffner at third.

Friend had trouble only in the fourth inning when Roy Campanella blasted a two-run homer—his 13th, tying him for the major league lead with Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski—and Sandy Amoros followed with a homer.

Brooklyn Dodgers signed Todd Allen Sichel, a shortstop from the University of Missouri, and assigned him to their Pueblo, Colo., farm team in the Western League.

Elks Links Tournery Set

Ashland—Pairings and starting times were announced today for the men's and women's competition in the Oregon state Elks league convention golf tournery at Oak Knoll club Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4.

The tournament is being held in conjunction with the lodge's convention June 2 through 5 here.

A handicap tournery is slated. Trophies will go to men and women for low net and low gross and runner-up in low net. Awards also are planned for the low net of the best four per lodge in team competition for both men and women.

All entries must be at the course at least 20 minutes before starting times. Late entries will be paired at the course. Pairings and starting times are the same for each day.

Philadelphia — (U.P.)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission resumed its investigation of the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos "blackout" bout today with match maker Pete Moran returning to the witness chair.

Moran was testifying when the investigation adjourned last Wednesday after commission counsel Herbert Levin produced an agreement showing a mysterious "Peter Perri" was a co-manager of Johnson. The commission accused Moran of having a financial interest in Johnson despite rules forbidding a matchmaker from holding a financial interest in a fighter. Moran denied the charge.

Portland — (U.P.)—Oregon pioneers are on their way out, as far as the State Game Commission is concerned.

The recent Legislature passed a measure to limit distribution of so-called "pioneer" licenses to those whose birthdate is not later than 1899. At present the special 50-cent license may be obtained by anyone who has resided continuously in the state for 60 years.

ROSEBURG INVITATIONAL WON BY G. HARRINGTON

George Harrington, manager of Rogue Valley Country club here, successfully defended his title in the Roseburg Invitational Golf tournament during the Memorial day holiday week end.

Harrington, who played well throughout the tournery, defeated Don Bick, Coos Bay, and University of Oregon, 6 and 5 in the finale on Monday. The Medfordite was also medalist. He and Leighton Tuttle, Eugene high star, had one-under-par 71s in qualifying play on Saturday. Harrington took the medal prize on the fourth hole of a sudden death play-off.

In the Monday afternoon final Harrington was one under par. He had a 4 up lead after straight pars on the front nine.

Defeats Hughes
 To gain the finale Harrington defeated Bonnie Hughes, Eastmoreland, Portland, on Monday morning. Count was 5 and 4 and the Medford linkswoman was two under par for the match. Sunday victories scored by Harrington were over Bod Sederstrom, Salem, and Bob Tekano, University of Oregon.

Ivan Harrington was runner-up in the third flight, losing 1 up to Morris Hallmark, Roseburg.

Oaks Bounce Padres 7-1; Lead Shaved

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer
 The Oakland Oaks are seemingly bent on flattening out the Pacific Coast league race.

Last night the Acorns used leveling tactics on the loop-leading San Diego Padres for the third straight time and came away with a 7-1 edge which reduced the Pad's lead over San Francisco to a "mere" eight games.

It was the third straight time also that the hard-hitting Padres have been held to a single run. They have collected a grand total of 12 hits in their three games with the Oaks.

Padres Bobble
 Skinny Brown limited the Pads to three blows last night and the San Diegans chipped in with four errors to help Oakland's cause. Al Van Alstyne hit a solo homer for the Oaks in the fourth frame.

Bob Kerrigan took the loss as Oakland made it four victories in a row.

Umpire Don Flecky, who was involved in a big hassle with Oak manager Lefty O'Doul last week and was fined by the league yesterday, called the game and gave an assist to O'Doul's club by thumping San Diego manager Bob Elliott and star third baseman Milt Smith to the showers in the third inning.

The rest of the loop was idle.

Medford Cheney Studs, making their third appearance of the semi-pro baseball season at their home park, the fairgrounds, will be out to duplicate their holiday success tonight.

The club is host to Yreka, Calif., in a non-league hassle. Game time will be 8 p.m.

In slugger's contest on Memorial day Medford won out 22 to 16. Tonight's fracas could be another hitting battle but with the turfied field and most distant fences at the fairgrounds, the fray may not go to the extremes of the Monday scuffle. There were 44 hits in that engagement.

 Probable infield for the Studs tonight will be Jack Cooney at first base, Richie Price at second, Ed McCullough at third and Mellbye at shortstop. The outfield will be picked from among John Niles, Harvey Tonn, Charles Rettman and Kay Kelley.

The Studs resume Southern Oregon League play at Grants Pass on Saturday night. They play GP here on Sunday.

Drain and Roseburg are at the top of the loop after one week end of play. Drain won twice from Grants Pass and Roseburg twice from Medford. Bend and Coquille split. The week end GP-Medford series will see an effort on the part of both teams to get out of the cellar.
