

Prep Gang Slates AAU Meet Trip

Medford will be well represented when High School Track Coach Bob Newland takes a crew of 10 thinclads to Portland for the AAU track and field meet Saturday afternoon and evening. The aggregation will be made up largely of sophomores. Among them are Eldon Francis, state javelin champ; Wally Larson, hurdler, and Neil Plumley, shot putter, all members of the state prep championship squad. Other sophs will be Les Lingscheit, miler; Pete Kershaw, quarter-miler; and Jerry Close, broad jumper. Lew Breazeale, vaulter, will be lone junior on the squad. Ninth graders slated to go are Mike Russell, hurdler and quarter-miler; Terry Bergman, high jumper, and Tom Mer-ton, discus thrower. Breazeale, Larson and Francis will vie in the high school division, Plumley in both high school and junior divisions and the others in the junior bracket.

Gals' Night Set At Ashland Track

Ashland — Ashland Speedway will again be the scene of some topnotch stock car racing when the hardtops report for duty Saturday night. With a layoff from racing last week, many of the drivers may be a little throttle happy this week. This indicates thrill-packed racing. The oil track proved a hit with fans in the last race. Several gallons of waste oil have been put on the track, eliminating dust considerably. The track should be in excellent condition. The management has announced that Saturday will be ladies night. All ladies will be admitted free. Hardtops also play a part in the Elks parade which will be held Saturday afternoon. All drivers who appear in the parade have been invited to attend the buffalo barbecue feed of the Ashland Elks during the state convention at the athletic field. Crook Hunter, winner of the last main event, will be out to chalk up his third win of the season. Ed Butler, who rolled his car May 18 has his car in tip-top shape and reports he will be out to win.

Roberts on Way To Big Season

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — No pitcher ever has won 30 games for a second division team but don't put it past Robin Roberts of the Phillies. Roberts scored his eighth win of the season Wednesday night when he hurled the Phillies to a 3-1 decision over the Cubs. In 1952 when he won 28 games Roberts didn't score his eighth victory until June 20 when he made his record 8-5. His current mark is 8-3.

Harris, List Take 4th Spot in ABC Tourney

Fort Wayne, Ind. — (U.P.) — A fourth place change in doubles competition marked the first major shift in nearly a month in standings at the American Bowling Congress tournament. Bob Harris and Fred List, San Antonio, Tex., put together a 1293 tally yesterday for a spot in the top doubles bracket. List, 29, had a 713 series for his fifth ABC tournament. It was the third try for Harris, 34, who turned in a 580 series.

DALLAS OWNER DIES

Gladewater, Tex. — (U.P.) — Funeral arrangements were expected to be announced today for R. W. (Dick) Burnett, a ruddy, one-time country boy who enjoyed dabbling in baseball as much as he did in building up oil fortunes. The portly 57-year-old Burnett, who paid an estimated $800,000 for the Dallas Texas League franchise and then poured nearly that much again into the club, died unexpectedly of a heart attack in a Shreveport, La., hotel room Wednesday.

RACERS EYE EMIGRANT REGATTA—Outboard motorboat skippers of Oregon and northern California are awaiting Sunday action in the annual regatta at Emigrant lake southeast of Ashland. Shown above are two boats in a previous race. Carl Riho, Coquille, leads Pete Mobley, Eugene, around a buoy in a B utility event. Riho was one of last year's winners. This week end's regatta, sponsored by the Western Speedboat association and Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce, will feature eight events. There will be two contests for fishing boats and six for the speedier racing hulls. Fishing boat contention starts at 11 a.m. with speedboats to take to the water at 1 p.m. Bill Barnes, Mel and Jerry McGrew and Dick Schauble are among local racers entered.

Salmon Fishing Slow on Rogue

Portland — (U.P.) — The weekly report on fishing conditions prepared by the State Game commission: SOUTHWEST: Tenmile lake fair on spinners and worms; Loom lake good with a few bass also being taken; Smith river slow; a few salmon in at Winchester bay; Coquille river fair to good; south fork of Coos river fair to good; shad fishing on Coos excellent; red headed fly and orange bead with silver hook best for shad. A few chinook and some large halibut taken just over Coos Bay bar. Lower Rogue slow for salmon; trout fishing good on Chetco, Winchuck, Pistol, Elk and Sixes rivers, and fair on Floras and Garrison lakes; spinners and worms best. Chinook fishing slow on middle and upper Rogue; Shady Cove fair to good for trout; Upper Umpqua river areas slow; salmon season closed throughout the system above Highway 38 bridge at Scottsburg May 31.

MEDFORD GUN CLUB SHARES ROLE OF CONVENTION HOST

Medford will share some of Ashland's role of host this week end for the Oregon State Elks lodge convention. Elks will hold their state shoot at Medford Gun club on Saturday and have been invited to compete in the annual Mail Tribune trapshoot on Sunday. Shooting in the Elks rivalry will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday with 100 targets at 16 yards, 100 handicap birds and 25 pairs of doubles. Five-man teams will battle also for the various lodges with scores to depend on performances in the 16-yard and handicap individual events. Klamath Falls perpetual trophy goes to high team in 16-yard firing. For individuals in 16-yard activity there will be trophies to winners in each class. In the handicap a trophy will be presented to winner and runner up while high gun gets doubles hardware. There will be a high overall award.

RVCC Linksmen In Open Play-Off

Pairings and tee-off times for 11 Rogue Valley Country club representatives have been set for the play-off to determine Oregon entries in the U. S. Open Golf tourney at San Francisco June 16, 17 and 18. Oregon linksmen will contend on Monday at Waverly Country club in Portland for seven berths in the national. Listed from Rogue Valley for the play are George E. Harrington, Alan Artach, Clayton Lewis, Dr. Bruce Stanley, Ed Simmons, Ed Terrell, Harry Millette, Vince Aleksa, Al Williams, Larry Butler and Carl Schmidt.

Catcher Ron Bottler Suffers Arm Fracture

Portland — (U.P.) — Ron Bottler, the promising young catcher who was farmed by the Portland Beavers to Columbus, Ga., of the Sally League, has suffered a broken left arm. Bevo General Manager Joe Ziegler said today. Bottler was hurt on a play at the plate. Ziegler said Bottler, who had become the team's No. 1 catcher, would remain in the South while the arm mends.

Ron Aschbacher Signs Forty-Niner Contract

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Ron Aschbacher, all-coast tackle at Oregon State last fall, yesterday signed a contract to play professional football with the San Francisco 49'ers. Deal line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

Bisplinghoff Defeats Cudd In British Amateur Hassle

St. Annes, England — (U.P.) — Walker cupper Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., lost out today in the fifth round of the British Amateur Golf tournament to a fellow American. Cudd dropped a 4 and 2 decision to Don Bisplinghoff, a 20-year-old player from Orlando, Fla. Earlier today, Cudd defeated Arthur Walker of South Africa, 1-up.

St. Annes, England — (U.P.) — Nine American golfers, led by Billy Joe Patton and Don Bisplinghoff, swept in the fifth round of the British amateur championships today by winning their morning matches. Only two of the 11 Americans who gained the fourth round yesterday were beaten this morning.

Tests Show Stimulant; Race Couple Suspended

Portland — (U.P.) — A Portland couple has been suspended from racing mounts at Portland Meadows as a result of tests which showed the presence of a stimulant in one of their entries. Suspended were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leigh of Portland. The trainer, Ed Crosson, also was suspended. Cecil Edwards, presiding steward for the Oregon State Racing Commission, said tests on Pic-nicker, winner of the fourth Memorial Day race, showed definite evidence that the horse had been stimulated.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day

The Mail Tribune shoot will be registered under the Pacific International Trap shooting association. Shooters will vie for the Mail Tribune trophy in the 100-yard 16-yard shoot. Trophies go to winners and runners-up in each class, to high lady and high junior. The Mendenhall trophy is awarded to high gun for Class B and lower. Second event Sunday will be the $300 Medford handicap. There will be hardware for winner and runner-up in each class of the doubles. Shooters will be competing for the 22nd time for the Mail Tribune prize.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Allstate announces NEW LOWER RATES

on auto insurance

Yes sir, there's a big reduction in Allstate's rates for both Liability and Collision coverages on private passenger automobiles! Allstate's careful selection of the drivers it insures makes this reduction possible—another highlight in Allstate's long record of saving money for its policyholders. No wonder Allstate sold more auto insurance in 1954 than any other company based on direct written premiums.

Today, over 2,750,000 car owners have the benefit of Allstate's nationwide, day and night claim service—service that's famous for fast, fair settlements, without red tape or quibbling. Check Allstate's new lower rates for your car and see how much you can save. See or phone your Allstate Agent.

Rogue Valley QTs Play Roseburg Here On Night of June 16

The Rogue Valley QTs girls softball team from Eagle Point, will play the Roseburg Lumberjills at Fairgrounds park here on Thursday night, June 16, it was announced today. The game, to start at 6:30 p.m., will be a preliminary to another girls' game pitting Erv Lind Florists of Portland and Klamath Falls, Oregon girls' champions. The Lumberjills finished fourth in the state softball tournament for the past two years, and along with the Rogue Valley team, are again strong contenders for the championship. The Medford game will give fans an idea as to how the two clubs will stack up in tourney play. The Lumberjills boast several all-state players who are diamond veterans. Last year the HOGUE OPTIONED — Pittsburgh — (U.P.) — The Pittsburgh Pirates today sent right-hander Cal Hogue to Williamsport of the Class A Eastern League on option. Hogue had just rejoined the Pirates Wednesday from Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League, where his record was one victory and no defeats.

MOORE CONFIDENT — Summit, N. J. — (U.P.) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, in training here for his title bout with Carl Bobo Olson in New York's Polo Grounds, June 22, said today he is confident he "can lick Olson."
