Supernova Explosion Would Dwarf H-Bomb

Schenectady, N. Y. (U.P.) — The tremendous explosion of a hydrogen bomb — fearful as it is viewed in its present form — would be dwarfed millions of times by the natural explosion of a supernova, a General Electric scientist revealed.
The supernova is a celestial explosion with the force of 1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 hydrogen bombs all going off at once, said John W. Ryan, development engineer.

ELECTED — Alva M. Perkins, above, has been elected president of the Medford Lions club for the coming year. Perkins is manager of the Medford office of Consolidated Freightways.

Fire Levels Barn At Cowden Residence

Fire destroyed a small barn at the residence of R. L. Cowden, 7515 Crater Lake highway, late yesterday afternoon before Central Point Rural Fire department equipment could reach the scene.

Officials of the department said the barn was destroyed by the time they were able to reach it because of long traveling distance and dry conditions. Grass around the barn was allowed to burn over to prevent further fire hazard on the property.

Central Point Rural department was called to the northwestern section of White City where a grass and trash fire went out of control. No damage was reported.

SHOELESS ALARM

Niantic, Conn. (U.P.) — Richard Gada, 12, ran so hard to a telephone to report a fire in a neighbor's home that he lost his shoes.

Retirement Requested By Gen. Dean; Change In Top Officers Set

San Francisco (U.P.) — Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, hero of the Korean war who spent three years as a prisoner of the Communists, announced Saturday that he had requested his retirement effective Oct. 31.

Dean, who is Sixth Army deputy commander at the Presidio here, said he informed the Pentagon two weeks ago verbally that he was "turning in his suit Oct. 31 because I haven't had the time to be with Mrs. Dean."

Fearful War
In announcing his retirement Dean said that "the only thing that has delayed me this long is the fact I was afraid we would be fighting again—and if we fight, I'd like to have a division again."

Dean had a division, the 24th Infantry Division, in the early days of the Korean conflict. Wounded in July of 1950, he became the most famous American soldier ever to be taken prisoner.

Dean, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, is still a few months shy of 56, but he has had almost 32 years of Army service.

Dean, highest ranking American officer captured by the North Koreans during the war, is now deputy commander of the Sixth Army at the Presidio in San Francisco. He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for the defense of Taejon.

The Army announced that Lt. Gen. Willard G. Wyman, Sixth Army commander, will leave the Look what Mr. Peterson told those financiers!

Mr. Alfred G. Peterson, a forthright man, addressed the convention of the Savings Associations League of N. Y. State and boldly discussed the matter of advertising—of his own free will.

Mr. Peterson, who is president of the National Savings and Loan League, and president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greenwich, Connecticut, spoke as follows:—

"I feel that advertising is a very profitable investment. But we should not buy advertising blindly. We should give careful consideration both to the appeals and the media we use."

And listen to this!
"The medium which tops the list is the medium that reaches the greatest number of people at the lowest cost. It is my opinion the newspaper is that medium..."

But that isn't all...
"I place the newspaper at the top of the list because it reaches the local market. All of us are really conducting local businesses.

"We may be bound together into a national industry, but our spheres of influence are entirely local.

"The newspaper reaches precisely the people we want to reach."

Ah, Mr. Peterson—you are a man who knows his investment!

Last year the institution headed by Mr. Peterson invested 5% of its gross income on advertising, and more than 60% of that went into newspapers.

In only ten years this Association multiplied its total resources eight-fold!

Gosh! If savings and loan people themselves advertise, think how they must feel about lending money to people who work for sound companies who advertise soundly—in newspapers.

All business is local...and so are all newspapers!
