Duke Snider didn't do a thing at the plate today—for a change—but hardly anyone noticed because Roy Campanella, Frank Kellert and Gil Hodges took up the slack with one home run apiece to help the Dodgers cuff the Cardinals, 6-1, at Ebbets Field.

Big Don Newcombe wasn't exactly sitting on his hands either. He allowed only six hits and posted his ninth straight victory to equal his entire 1954 total. The huge Dodger right-hander had the Cards shut out until Rip Repulski homered in the ninth.

The lone consolation for the Cardinals was in stopping the red-hot Snider, who went hitless in four trips after having been on a 13-hit tear in Brooklyn's last four games.

Cubs Win In 12th

Stan Hack's second-place Cubs battled back from a five-run deficit to defeat the Giants, 9-8, on Ernie Banks' 12th inning single with the bases full. The Giants scored one run in the bottom of the 12th on Willie Mays' second homer of the game. Davey Williams hit a grand-slam homer in the sixth to give New York a 7-2 lead but subsequent homers by Rookie Jim King and Eddie Miksis tied the score at 7-7.

Rookie Rudy Minarcin of Cincinnati turned in the best pitched game of the day, holding Pittsburgh to one hit—a second inning single by Dale Long—for a 6-0 decision. Minarcin drove in two of the Redlegs' runs.

Johnny Logan and Eddie Matthews each hit homers off Bob Kuzava and Joe Adcock and Danny O'Connell did likewise against reliever Bob Miller in Milwaukee's 11-3 victory over Philadelphia. Backed by a 12-hit attack, left-hander Warren Spahn survived a three-run uprising in the first inning to register his fourth victory.

Yankees Lead By 4 Games

Scoring their 20th triumph in the last 24 games, the Yankees stretched their American League lead to four games by nipping the White Sox, 4-3, while the Senators were crushing the Indians, 14-5, in Cleveland.

Eddie Lopat was the winning pitcher in the Yankee-White Sox contest but he needed help from Tom Morgan in the ninth.

The Senators had a field day at the expense of Mike Garcia, Art Houtteman, Bill Wright and Ray Narleski, smashing out 18 hits. Ernie Oravetz, Jim Busby and Roy Rievers each collected three hits as every player in Washington's lineup hit safely to offset homers by Al Smith, Ralph Kiner and Bob Avila off winner Bob Porterfield.

Rookie Frank Lary of Detroit pitched a four-hitter to beat Baltimore 5-2. Red Wilson's two-run homer off Harry Byrd highlighted a four-run Tiger rally in the sixth.

Sixth inning homers by Ted Williams and Norm Zaichin broke up a scoreless pitching duel and started the Red Sox on their way to a 5-1 triumph over the Athletics. Jim Piersall of Boston homered off relief pitcher Johnny Sain in the ninth.

Roseburg Team Wins Elks Trap Shoot At Local Club

Roseburg's five-man aggregation won the Elks lodge state team trapshoot trophy Saturday in competition at Medford Gun club while John Willener, Eugene, was high overall for the day.

The Roseburg crew of Ken Gilkeson, Bill Jones, Jack Culver, Gene Krewson, and Forrest Solomon compiled a 931 to pace a field of 11 teams. Willener broke 236 targets of a possible 250, heading 65 entries.

Gordon Miller, a Eugene Class A shooter, topped the individual 16-yard shooting with a 99. Bill Meyers, Rose Lodge, won the handicap after a shoot-off with Krewson and Nelson Reed, Klamath Falls. The three shattered 96 each in the regular event.

Solomon took doubles laurels in a shoot-off with Jim Horn, Grants Pass, and A. Cellars of McMinnville after each compiled a 46 count.

Eugene's team won the Klamath Falls perpetual trophy with a 482 score for 16-yard rivalry.

Horn and Solomon with 2335 trailed Willener in overall.

Medford Scores 885

Team championship was determined by scores in both the 16-yard and handicap events. Corvallis was second with 916 and Klamath Falls and Eugene knotted for third with 914 apiece. Medford's team had an 886 bid busting total.

Sixteen-yard runners-up to Miller in Class A were Krewson, Henry Niedermeyer, Medford, and Sam Samson, Medford. All broke 98. In Class B Bill Jones and George Bronson, Grants Pass, shattered 97 each and Jones won the extra for the trophy, 24 to 23.

In Class C Ron Snellstrom, Eugene, and Tony Hoover, Grants Pass, recorded 96s. There was no shoot-off but Snellstrom was around to get the trophy. Class D trophy went to Vern Johnson, Eureka, Calif., for a 73.

In the handicap shoot-off Fred went out on the first 25 and for the full 50 Meyers shot down 49 and Krewson 46. Solomon cracked 20 in the doubles extra, Cellers 18 and Horn 17.

The 22nd Mail Tribune shoot today ends two days of scattering at Medford Gun club.

Medford Handicap Today

Shooters were to vie for the Mail Tribune trophy in a 100-target 16-yard scrap starting at 9 a.m. today. Also on the day's program are the $300 Medford handicap and 25 pair of doubles.

Dick Skeeters is defending the Mail Tribune trophy and along with George Janter will be aiming at permanent possession. Each has won the event twice and three legs are needed for permanent hold.

In the Mail Tribune trophy event the Mendenhall award will go to top gunner for Class B and lower. There will be class awards in the 16-yard and doubles shoots and yardage honors in the handicap.

Harrington, Davies Take Elks Honors

Ashland — George Harrington and Mrs. W. W. Davies took gross laurels and Ashland women and Medford men team honors in 36-hole handicap medal play Oregon state Elks golf tournament Friday and Saturday at Oak Knoll club here.

In men's competition Harrington headed a field of 69 with his 147 gross. Lee Flink, Medford, was first low net with 133 and Bob Strickland, Ashland followed with 135. Flink, Dr. Bob Sleeter, Bob Rector and Voegly were on Medford lodge's winning team. Ashland was second and Portland third.

Mrs. Davies grossed 166 to lead 32 ladies. Mrs. C. B. Collins, Medford, won low net with 153 and was followed by Mrs. Bob Voris, Ashland with 154. Members of Ashland's team, which totaled 625, were Mrs. Voris, Mrs. Jack Edswick, Mrs. Ivor Erwin and Mrs. Catherine Nelson. Medford was next with 630 and Seaside took third with 670.

Player Pension Study Approved

Cleveland, O. — (U.P.) — Four members of the major league baseball players' pension committee met Friday and approved the firm of Retirement Plans, Inc., to study and recommend changes and/or modifications in the present major league pension plan.

Sitting in were John Galbreath and Hank Greenberg for management and Ralph Kiner and Robin Roberts for the players.

SCENE OF TODAY'S REGATTA—Emigrant lake, shown above with a couple of craft in close contention, will be the scene today of the annual outboard motorboat regatta sponsored by the Western Speedboat association and the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce. As high as 60 drivers and 75 boats may be entered in the racing hull competition. Two fishermen's races are planned with the first at 11 a.m. Competition in six classes of regular racing boats will begin at 1 p.m.

EMIGRANT LAKE SCENE OF BOAT RACES TODAY

REGATTA SCHEDULE:

11 a.m. Fishing boat races—
B2 (1 heat).
D2 (1 heat).

1 p.m. Speedboat races—
A Hydroplane (2 heats).
D Hydroplane (2 heats).
B Utility (2 heats).
D Utility (2 heats).
B Hydro (2 heats).
D Service (2 heats).

The upper Rogue river valley's only outboard motorboat regatta this year is scheduled today at Emigrant lake seven miles southeast of Ashland and some of the leading skippers in southern Oregon and northern California will race their roaring craft for the money prizes in six stock hull events.

Eight races in all are planned with the first of a pair of fishing boat contests set for 11 a.m. Two heats in the actual events and possibly some elimination tussles are billed for the speedboat classes in a program which will last well into the afternoon.

Close count on the number of speedboat entries was not possible last night. A number of the contestants were not to file entries until this morning. However, officials of the Western Speedboat association anticipated as high as 60 drivers with possibly 75 hulls. The field includes a number of local drivers and several record holders.

Local Entries

Among the local entries are Mel McGrew, Jerry McGrew, Bill Barnes and Byron Scott. Mel McGrew, commodore of the WSA, will pilot a D utility, 264R, and Jack Schauble's D hydro, 44. Jerry will appear in a D hydro, 144R, and Barnes in a D hydro, 526R, and a D service, 26R. Scott, who is from Gold Beach, will handle a local boat, Tom Swape's A hydro, 528R.

Salem so far heads the delegation of out-of-town entries. From the capital city will be Paul Woodruff, Jim Woodruff, Gib Ward, Harvey Reinke, Bob Van Slyke, Jack St. Clair, Mickey McGuire, John Hall, and Jim Brimmer.

Cliff Brownell and Ted Nova are coming from Corvallis and Don Atchison from Oswego, Lee Hitt, Fritz Hoffman and Roy Ledgerwood are Tillamook participants. Lyle Knox and Johnny Hartley will be entrants from Coquille.

Record Holders

From Delake will be Billy Larson and Bobby Larson and from Willamina, Rocky Stone and Arvid Nyleen. Les Manosar is competing from Crescent City, Calif., and Harold Fowler from Redding, Calif.

Additional fishing boat racers include Stanley Newnham, Medford, and Warren Ferris, of Redding.

Hoffman is a five-mile record holder for B hydro and Billy Larson holds a B utility one-mile mark. Stone holds C service and D utility records.

Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce members, co-sponsoring the races with the Western Speedboat association, will supervise traffic and parking with the aim of giving spectators a good view of the activities. Jaysees will operate the concessions at the lake.

Youngsters under 12 years of age will be admitted free to the regatta. Sponsors have suggested that families of the valley make a family picnic of the event.

Likely Batteries Listed For Legion Scuffle Today

Crater high boys will provide one battery and a Medford-St. Mary's high combination will form the other for the host aggregation today when Central Point-Medford and Ashland American Legion Junior baseball nines collide on the Medford senior high field.

A doubleheader is on tap with the opener at 1:30 p.m.

Manager Alva Perkins, who reported that it is hoped to give every squad member a chance to play, said that Fred Herrmann, pitcher, and Harold Lefler, catcher, both from Crater high, will form one of the batteries with Duane Sides, Medford pitcher, and Laval Meunier, St. Mary's catcher, the other.

Henry Putney will be on hand if relief is needed.

Squad of 16, 17

Dale Walter from Talent, and Mark Fitch, Ashland high, are likely Ashland hurlers, with Jim McAbee, Talent, and Phil Sjord, Ashland, as possible catchers.

Perkins reported that the Central Point-Medford squad now consists of 16 or 17 players. He says the club appears to be a good fielding crew, but going into the openers, hitting remains the question. Dick Paup, a shortstop, and Ron Pruitt, a second baseman, are additions from St. Mary's.

MAIBEN REHIRED

Seattle — (U.P.) — The Washington Horse Racing Commission yesterday re-hired John Maiben as presiding steward to represent the state at Longacres and Playfair race tracks.

Derald Wooton To Play For Studs Against GP

Derald Wooton, ex-Medford high pitcher who has been in professional baseball since 1952 will be in the Medford Cheney Studs line-up today when they encounter the Grants Pass Elks in a southern Oregon Baseball league scramble at the fairgrounds ball park here.

Wooton returned Friday from Cedar Rapids, Ia. He has been playing with that city's club in the Class B Three I league. He is to be either in the outfield or on the pitching mound this afternoon and was to have been in the week end series opener last night at Grants Pass.

Player-Manager Clarence Melbye reported that he planned to use either Marv Scherpf or Wooton on the hill today.

Both the Elks and Studs will be minus some players, on whom they are counting for the summer campaign, when they mix at 2 p.m.

GP Has Tiger

Grants Pass, however, will have one or two additions to the crew which opened the season last week. Bob (Tiger) Smith, Oregon Collegiate Conference all-star catcher for the Southern Oregon college, is to be in Elks uniform. Another possible new hand is Bill Martell, an all-Northwest conference season second baseman at Lewis and Clark college. His appearance was uncertain, according to a Grants Pass report Saturday.

The Grants Pass report indicated that Smith would be receiving the slants of Pitcher Bill Seymour today. Howard Morris is ticketed to handle Medford's catching duties.

Both Grants Pass and Medford suffered double setbacks in the SOL last week end. The Elks bowed to Drain 17 to 3 and 6 to 1 while the Studs lost 5 to 2 and 4 to 1 to Roseburg Chiefs.

Medford hit at just a .154 mark against the Chiefs, 10 wallops in 65 turns but the better bats showing in non-league fray with Yreka, Calif., lent hope that the Studs will be hitting harder today. Against Drain the Elks swatted 17 for 68 or a .250 average.

Voluntarily Retired

Wooton said yesterday that he had voluntarily retired from the Cedar Rapids Raiders, to whom he was sold this year by Elmira of the Class A Eastern league. He reported that he'd had a "control complex" and that he felt it would "do me some good to come home." The hurler indicated he has no present plans to return to pro ball. He will go to work Monday for Cheney Lumber company at Central Point.

In 1952 after a short stint with the Studs, Wooton inked a contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers. He was with Great Falls in the Pioneer league that season and in 1953 and 1954 pitched for Shawnee, Okla., in the Sooner State league.

This season he had pitched 11 innings in four or five games and had a one-win no-loss record.

Michigan Places 11 on Squad To Meet PCC Stars

Chicago — (U.P.) — Michigan's Big Ten track team placed 11 men on the 38 man conference squad which will meet the Pacific Coast conference all stars at California June 21.

Every Big Ten school gained at least one position. Illinois landed seven, Minnesota five, and Michigan State and Iowa four each.

The Pacific Coast team has won eight out of 13 inter-conference events, but the Big Ten triumphed last year, 74 to 58. This season the Big Ten strength was in sprints and hurdles.

Heading the individual list was Northwestern's Jim Golliday and Illinois' Willard Thomson. Golliday has tied the 100 yard dash world record of .09.3 while Thomson has come close to the 120 yard high hurdles mark with .13.7.

Track Suspends Leigh, Trainer

Portland — (U.P.) — The Board of Stewards has suspended Roy Leigh of Portland from racing mounts at Portland Meadows pending review by the State Racing Commission.

Leigh, who appeared before the board yesterday, owns the horse "Picnicner," which allegedly was stimulated before its victory in the fourth Memorial Day race.

Leigh testified he had left the mount unguarded in the stable area shortly before the race. Stewards suspended both Leigh and his trainer, Ed Crosson, for "failure to exercise sufficient care" in guarding the horse.

Racing commissioners will hear the matter June 10. The horse's winnings have been impounded.

Cecil Edwards, racing commission steward who originally announced discovery of a stimulant in the horse, said Mrs. Leigh, joint owner of the horse, was not involved in any of the stewards' rulings on the case.

Mixed Two-Ball Tourney Today

A mixed two-ball golf foursome tourney is slated today at Rogue Valley Country club.

Foursomes will start teeing off at 1:30 p.m. The event is the fourth such competition of the season. The Brophy's Jewelry trophies go to the couple winning low net.

Juniors take over Monday and Tuesday with the annual Southern Oregon Junior tourney at Rogue Valley. Eighteen holes will be played each day in the medal event. There are three boys and two girls divisions. Entries are expected from northern California as well as southern Oregon.

Fishing Season Opens; Catches 24 Pound Trout

Sandpoint, Ida. — (U.P.) — The 1955 stream fishing season got off to an unusual start here yesterday morning when Dale Jackson of Clark Fork caught a 24 lb. 12 oz. Kamloops Rainbow trout.

Jackson caught the fish on salmon eggs in the mouth of Spring creek. The fish is more than two pounds heavier than the largest Rainbow caught in Lake Pend Oreille this season.

MIT DEFENDER

London, England — (U.P.) — The Massachusetts Institute of Technology crew will defend the Thames Cup in this year's Henley Royal Regatta, June 29-July 2, it was announced Saturday. The University of Pennsylvania and the Dartmouth Rowing Club also will be represented in the event.
