Azusa Youth Assigned To Boise Farm Club

Milwaukee, Wis. — (U.P.) — The Milwaukee Braves yesterday announced the signing of Bill Dennis, a 20-year-old infielder, to a Boise, Idaho, contract.

Dennis, a junior at Redlands, Calif., University, will report immediately to Boise, a Milwaukee farm club in the Class C Pioneer League. He bats and throws righthanded and is a native of Azusa, Calif.

SPECIAL POLIO DRIVE

New York — (U.P.) — Baseball commissioner Ford C. Frick lauded Little League baseball Friday for its planned contribution to the national polio fund. More than 500,000 youngsters from 4,000 leagues will take up special collections from spectators this month for the polio drive.

San Diego's Angels, Seattle Win Games

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — League-leading San Diego snapped a 7-7 tie with two runs in the eighth inning to win a slugfest from Oakland, 9 to 7, in a Pacific Coast league contest here yesterday.

In a leap-frog contest from the first inning, the Acorns almost nipped the Padres with a 10-hit attack led by Jim Marshall's two homers and a double good for five runs-batted-in. Marshall knotted the count when he smashed his 15th home run of the season in the seventh.

San Diego came back in the next frame, with Buddy Peterson's single, an error by Oakland second sacker Billy Conzolo, a single by Earl Rapp and a miscue by Marshall accounting for the winning tallies.

Both squads used four hurlers.

Bilko's 15th Homer
Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Big Steve Bilko smashed his 15th homer of the season to tie the score and then tallied the winning run Saturday as Los Angeles edged Sacramento, 5-4, in a 13-inning game.

The Angels collected 14 hits and the Sacs 11 in the overtime battle before 1,970 fans. Turk Lown, who came in for the Angels in the ninth, won and Milo Candini suffered the loss.

The Sacs still lead the series, however, by a 4-2 margin.

In the top of the ninth, the Sacs stretched their lead to 4-2, and in the bottom of the same stanza the Angels deadlocked the score on Bilko's homer with Hal Rice on base.

In the 13th, Bilko, who got aboard on a single, scored from second when Jim Fahning socked a Texas-leaguer.

Triple Play By Seals
San Francisco — (U.P.) — The Seattle Rainiers were outhit 13-10 and victims of San Francisco's second triple play of the season but managed to prevail over the Seals, 7-5, Saturday and square the Pacific Coast league series at 3-3 before 2,156 sunbaked fans.

The Seals wiped out the side in the seventh inning after the Rainiers had scored one run. With Carmen Mauro on first, John Oldham on second and George Schmees on third, Gene Verble hit a line smash at second baseman Jim Moran who threw to shortstop Mike Baxes at second nailing Oldham. Baxes then threw to first baseman Bob Dipietro to trap Mauro for the third out.

The Rainiers used four pitchers against the Seals with Jehosie Heard gaining the win after relieving starter Bob Kelly. Jim Walsh was the loser.

Joe Conrad Wins British Amateur

St. Annes, England — (U.P.) — Lt. Joe Conrad, a 25-year-old Air Force officer from San Antonio, Tex., won the British Amateur Golf championship Saturday when he broke Alan Slater's brilliant rally with an 18-foot putt on the 27th hole and went on to defeat the Englishman 3 and 2.

Conrad is the 10th American to win the two-foot high silver trophy since Jesse Sweetser first captured it for the United States in 1926.

The young Texan also gave the U. S. its sixth triumph in the 10 renewals held since the end of World War II. And he did it on his first appearance on an English course, a feat that escaped the great Bobby Jones. Jones won the title on his third try in 1930, the year he made his grand slam of the British and U. S. Amateur and Open crowns.

Conrad led 4 up after the morning 18 and boosted his margin to five holes by winning the first hole of the afternoon round. But Slater, a 36-year-old "weekend golfer" who reached the final by ousting four current or former U. S. or British Walker Cup stars, won four of the next seven holes and halved the three others to cut that margin to 1 up.

And when Slater dropped a 20-foot putt or a birdie two on the 27th, it appeared he was set to climax his brilliant rally by taking charge of the faltering Texan. But Conrad, who said he had released pressure during the match by giving "a little whistle before each putt," sank an 18-footer to match Slater's birdie and hold his slim lead at the last turn.

Lt. Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Tex., who won the British Amateur Golf tournament Saturday, was the man Phil Getchell, Medford, Ore., upset 2 and

BASQUEZ VICTOR
Stockton, Calif. — (U.P.) — Jaime Basquez, 142-pounder from Stockton and Honolulu, battled San Francisco's Gil Cadilli to a 10-round draw Friday night at Civic Memorial Auditorium. Cadilli, nationally known for his controversial television bout with Willie Pep, was a slight favorite, but Basquez kept him off balance with a stiff left jab. Referee Pete Morelli, the sole judge, scored four rounds to each man and two even.

Young Decisions McNece Easily

New York — (U.P.) — Saddled Paddy Young, an ardent horseplayer, declared today his fistic future would be as bright as Friday night's easy triumph over light heavyweight Billy McNece indicated "because I now have a horse-trainer grooming me."

Young, scaling 163 1/4 pounds to McNece's 167 1/4, won a lopsided decision in their TV-radio 10-rounder before 1,200 in Madison Square Garden.

Young, 26, gave his 23-year-old opponent from Central Islip, N. Y., a thorough beating after closing red-haired Billy's right eye in the fourth round.
