Nurse Speaks for Medford Jaycettes

Miss Dorothy Collard of the Jackson County Public Health department spoke to Medford Jaycettes at a meeting Wednesday evening.

The main difference between the public health nurse and the hospital nurse, Miss Collard explained, is that the public health nurse teaches the homemaker how to care for the sick in the home. This service, she added, is available to everyone on request.

Miss Collard, who is supervisor of nurses, also explained the immunization plan, tuberculosis care and well baby clinics which are available to the public.

The Jaycettes plan a baked food sale for June 18 for which Mrs. Walt Smith is chairman.

Mrs. Bill Rombach served as hostess Wednesday evening with Mrs. Bob Foster and Mrs. Vern Collins assisting.

A farewell gift was given to Mrs. J. D. Smith. At a recent party for her and her husband Mr. Smith was presented a past president's pin from the Jaycettes.

Two Medford women will be honored for longtime memberships in the Order of the Eastern Star during a grand chapter session June 6 through 9 in Portland. They are Mrs. Bessie Lumsden and Mrs. Maude Duffy.

Mrs. Lumsden, a member for 55 years, was worthy matron of the Reames chapter in 1903. Mrs. Maude Duffy has been a member of the order for 50 years. They will be presented their honors Tuesday, June 7 and both plan to be in Portland for the occasion.

A large delegation also will attend from Reames chapter and three members will participate in the sessions. Mrs. Jack Caldwell is Grand Adah; Mrs. John Esp will be a grand page and Morris Boughner will act as a teller.

History Contest Winners Named; Meeting Held

Winners of an annual DAR history contest conducted at Medford Junior high school under the sponsorship of Crater Lake chapter of DAR, were announced last week. The three top winners are Carolyn Mencke, Henry Olson and John Frohnmayer. Nancy Becken received honorable mention. They participated in the contest with 18 other students who were eligible for this year's awards. The winners are determined through a written examination on history.

The local chapter has sponsored the contest for the past 20 years and names of the three top winners will be engraved on a silver plaque at the school which is a permanent record of the annual winners.

A group of Crater Lake chapter members attended a district 3 meeting in Grants Pass last week and gave a report on sessions of the Continental Congress which Mrs. W. B. McCullough of Ashland attended recently in Washington, D. C. Mrs. McCullough, a member of the Ashland Tidings news staff, also attended sessions of both houses of the United States congress with a press group.

During the meeting Mrs. McCullough was elected district chairman, and Mrs. W. J. McCoy, also of Ashland, was elected vice-chairman. Mrs. Ray K. Bailey of Medford was reelected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. M. H. Akerill is the retiring chairman.

District 3 is made up of DAR chapters from Lakeview, Klamath Falls, Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford. Those who attended from here were Mesdames G. Q. D'Albini, D. O. Hood, John Harbison, Ray K. Bailey, O. H. Breneman, Edward Root, George R. Carter, Stanley Chirwin and Volney Dixon.

Soprano To Sing At Mon Desir Inn

Miss Jean Farley, lyric soprano, who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Farley, Jacksonville highway, will sing as a guest at Mon Desir dining inn, Central Point, Wednesday evening June 8. Her first vocal teacher, Mrs. Roberta Ward Behb, will accompany her for the first several selections beginning at 7:30 p.m. Later during the evening Joe Newman, pianist at the dining inn, will furnish accompaniment.

Miss Farley is visiting here before going to Los Angeles for further voice study. She has been studying at San Francisco with Mrs. Verna Osborne and she also has studied with Richard Lest academy of the West in Santa Barbara and majored in music at the College of Pacific at Stockton, Calif., from which she was graduated.

The singer also has done some opera work with the Pacific Opera company and the Cosmopolitan Opera company, both in San Francisco.

In Los Angeles she will work toward her masters degree at the University of California and will continue work in the musical field there.

She also has done television work on station KPIX in San Francisco.
