Making use of big innings, the home run ball and clutch relief pitching, the Medford Cheney Studs broke into the win column over the week end in the Southern Oregon Baseball league.

The Studs took two straight over the Grants Pass Elks, nabbing victory at Grants Pass 6 to 4 and Saturday outlasting the Elks 10 to 7 at the fairgrounds Sunday.

In the only other league series Coquille took a pair from Roseburg 11 to 9 and 7 to 3. Idle Drain kept its hold on top place while Coquille's Loggers took over undisputed hold on second spot. Medford and Roseburg are knotted for third.

Medford had big innings in both games, got home runs by Howard Morris and Bill McLean on Saturday and had strikeout relief hurling from Derald Wooton, home from the pro-wars, at a crucial moment yesterday.

Bases Loaded

The Studs were leading with the 10 to 7 count and were two outs away from their series sweep in the top of the ninth inning when Pitcher Marv Scherpf was tagged for a double by Johnny Hammons and walked Dick Nix and Clint Reese. That put a possible tying run on base and brought a possible winning run at bat.

Wooton, just returned from Cedar Rapids, Ia., of the Three I league, was called to the hill from center field. He bore down to strikeout both pinch swatters, John Eggink and Mel Drews.

Big innings for Medford yesterday were the fourth and the sixth. In the third the Studs combined three bases on balls with doubles by Ed McCullough and John Niles for three runs. Grants Pass fell apart with five errors in the sixth and the Studs responded with five hits to get six runs. The swats, all singles, were by Clarence Mellbye, Morris, McCullough, Jack Cooney and Wooton One fielder's option was utilized.

Medford got its last run in the seventh when Niles walker, took second base on a balk and tallied on McCullough's third hit of the day.

GP Scores Four

GP also had an inning of the big variety yesterday with four scores in the fifth. Nix and Smith got triples, Tiger Smith a double. Mel Friend's sacrifice flyout and a walk helped produce runs. The Elks got a run in the opening inning on singles by Nevi and Friend, a base on balls and Smith's sacrifice fly. In the seventh a walk, Friend's double and Hammons' single completed the Elk runmaking.

Several balls were "lost" by fielders in the sun during the game, enabling hits.

McCullough paced Studs hitting with three for five. Mellbye socked two for three and Niles two for four. Hammons knocked two for three and Friend two for four for the Elks as each club got 10 hits.

Big scoring frame for Medford on Saturday was the sixth with four runs. McLean led off with his roundtripper and Cooney hit a three-bagger Wooton, Morris and Noyes singled. There were two walks, a fielder's option and an error.

Morris Homers, Triples

Morris' home run came in the second inning. The Studs' catcher tripled in the fifth inning and got home on pitcher Warren Noyes' flyout.

A base on balls and Friend's homer picked up two runs for GP in the ourth inning. Singles by Hammons and Smith and an error gained a marker in the fifth and Bill Seymour's triple was combined with a miscue in the eighth for a run.

Morris hit three for four for the game, Smith two for three and Friend and Seymour each two for four.

A highlight at Grants Pass had Don E. Faber, league president and mayor of Central Point, throwing out the first ball. At Medford yesterday Ray Hartman of the GP pitching staff was chased from the dugout by Umpire Darrell Copeland for his riding from the bench. The crowd sang happy birthday to Jimmy Askwith, bat boy, for the Studs.

Wooton, making his first appearance in a Stud uniform since 1952, was also in the outfield on Saturday. He hit in each game.

Bob Jenkins Winner of Auto Race

Hot-throttling Bob Jenkins took command midway through the race and widened the lead to win by a comfortable margin Saturday night in the main event of the hardtop auto races which saw a pair of sensational flips, two corral tangles and several drivers prevented from higher placings, in one case victory, because of penalties.

Jenkins was followed by Elmer Sisemore, Loe Donelon, Roy Deutschman and Wayne Lemley in that order. Donelon, however, was put back three positions when the judges ruled he jumped at a restart and fenced another car.

A pair of Gold Beach entries, Bud Johnson and Ken Curry, took one-two in the semi-main. Ken Stratton finished in front of Curry but was penalized one place for his part in the spin out of another contestant.

Most sensational spill of the night saw Don Cummings slam hard into the fence on the backstretch in the semi-main, rip along the barrier and turn end over end. Just before his upset Al Root had rolled over at one end of the oval.

Main event saw Johnny Wilverling crash hard and head-on into a corral at the head of the front stretch before the race was hardly underway. Jerry Teeter tangled with Bob Willhite in the first heat, sweeping across the infield and sideways into a corral.

Donelon was victor in the A trophy. Willhite took the B trophy. Root had led in the B race until Willhite nosed him over in the backstretch of the last lap. The other contestant, Johnson, also passed Root.

Cecil James won the first heat. In the second heat Deutschman got the checkered banner first but judges ruled that he had put Sisemore out of the race and set him back two notches. That gave Johnson the race and Monty Hall second. Sisemore was leading when he spun out just before the final turn.

Donelin grabbed the third heat and Bud Hart, with new suspension but without the reported cameo coral paint, was second. Lou Kurz won the fourth heat race.

RESULTS:
Main — Bob Jenkins, Elmer Sisemore, Roy Deutschman, Wayne Lemley.
Semi-main — Bud Johnson, Ken Curry, Ken Stratton.
A Trophy dash — Lou Donelon, Deutschman, Lemley.
B Trophy dash — Bob Willhite, Johnson, Al Root.
First heat — Cecil James, Bob Wilcox, Whitey Dage.
Second heat — Johnson, Monty Hall, Deutschman.
Third heat — Donelon, Bud Hurt, Don McGilvary.
Fourth heat — Lou Kurz, Lemley, Jenkins.

Pfeiffer's Beer Annexes Bowling Tourney Crown

Fort Wayne, Ind. — (U.P.) — Pfeiffer's Beer of Detroit took home its third crown today and Eddie Gerzine, Milwaukee, Wis., claimed the singles championship of the 52nd annual American Bowling congress.

The tournament that began March 26 in a snowstorm wound up in 90-degree weather. But from start to finish, the scores fell on the tally sheets as the temperature rose.

Pfeiffer's Beer won in 1952 and 1953. Their championship 1955 score of 3136 was rolled April 19 and the five-man team $2500.

Gerzine posted a 738 on March 28, two days after the tournament started, to come through for the singles title and $500 in prize money. It was the same day Myron Ericksen, Racine, Wis., bowled a perfect game, the 14th in ABC history.

Harry Zoeller and George Pacopis, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., took the doubles crown with their April 15 count of 1365 and won $500 each

Best all-events score was the 1993 entered for Fred Bujack, member of the Pfeiffer team, which he bowled April 19-20.

Legion Nine Victor Over Ashlanders

Central Point-Medford got off to a good start in American Legion junior baseball district contention here yesterday afternoon by taking both ends of a doubleheader from Ashland.

The CP-Medford gang scored the winning run in the sixth inning to nip the Lithians 4 to 3 in the opener. In the nightcap Freddie Herrmann hurled a one-hitter shutout for a 1 to 0 victory. Paul Eckel drove in the only run of the fray in the third inning. His safety followed a hit by Reinking, a fielder's choice and a base on balls.

Herrmann whiffed seven batters and walked none as Ashland was blanked. Mark Fitch yielded but four hits to Medford. He struck out eight batters, walked two and hit one.

In the starter contest CP-Medford Chucker Duane Sides allowed eight bingles. He fanned four, walked two and hit one while Ashland Moundsman Dale Walter was tagged for nine raps, whiffed three and gave one base on balls

An error, Laval Meunier's sacrifice and Side's single were the makings of the winning run in the first game. Eckel, Meunier and Jim Putney socked singles and an error and a sacrifice by Dick Paul figured in two Central Point-Medford counters in the fourth canto. A walk, a sacrifice by Larry Perkins and Eckel's triple got another score in the fifth.

Jim McAbee's home run was a highlight of the opener for Ashland. It came in the fifth inning. The other two Lithia runs were in the first frame. Gordy Thoreson, McAbee, Phil Sword and Gene Parent all got hits. There was a walk and a fielder's option.

Eckel was top hitter of the day with two for three in each game. Reinking, Meunier and McAbee each hit two for three, also in the first encounter.

Conrad To Seek Title in France

Paris—(U.P.)—Texan Joe Conrad, newly-crowned British Amateur golf champion whose fondest wish is for "more rain," was expected here today to open his quest for the French National title in competition starting today.

Conrad, 26-year-old red-haired Air Force lieutenant from San Antonio, Tex., sprang from links obscurity to world-wide fame by whipping Alan Slater of England, 3 and 2, in Saturdaq's 36-hole final round at St. Anne's, England.

"He has a very good chance to win the French tournament, too," conceded the gallant Slater, "unless, of course, he is too tired from the past week's hard go."

Before leaving England, Conrad said he enjoyed playing in the soaking rain that accompanied the final round of the British tournament and added with a grin, "I hope for a little rain in France, too."

Nats Lend Hand To Yankee Nine; Take 3 out of 4 from Cleveland

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians made patsies of the Washington Senators en route to their 1954 pennant but whistling Charley Dressen has the American League champions dancing to his tune this year.

Charley's Senators made it a "lost week end" for the Tribe when they took three of four games and equalled their entire 1954 victory total against the Indians. The Indians compiled an 18-4 record against Washington last year but the Senators lead this season's series, 4-3.

The Senators took Sunday's opener, 6-4, and seemed about to sweep the four - game series when the Indians staged a six-run, seventh-inning rally that gave Early Wynn his seventh victory of the year in the 6-3 nightcap. The split left the Tribe four games behind the first - place New York Yankees, who beat the Chicago White Sox, 3 - 2, in 10 innings after losing the opener of their doubleheader, 5-3.

The Senators' ability to stand up to the Indians could easily develop into a crucial factor because it was Cleveland's ability to wallop Washington, Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore that was the key to its record 111-game victory total last year. The Indians were 18-4 over the Senators and Athletics, 20-2 over the Red Sox and 19-3 over the Orioles for a composite 75-13 last year. The Yankees, meanwhile, played 61-27, .693 ball against the same four teams.

Story Reversed

But, with the Senators acting up this year, the story is almost exactly reversed. The Indians' composite mark against the four-some this season is 19-8. The Yankees, on the other hand, have beaten those four teams, 26-8, for a .765 average and a net gain of 3½ games. Thus, the turnabout has produced all but a half game of the Yankees' four-game lead.

Johnny Schmitz survived two homers by Vic Wertz and one by Bobby Avila to win the first game for the Senators and notch his fourth victory. Dean Stone then shut out the Tribe for six innings before the big six-run rally. Key blow to the frame was a three-run triple by Al Smith. It was the 191st triumph of Wynn's big league career.

Billy Hunter's inside-the-park homer gave the Yankees their split after the White Sox routed Tommy Byrne in the first inning of the opener. Jim Rivera hit the first grand slam homer of his career to account for four runs and Sherman Lollar followed with another homer. Dick Donovan went the route, yielding five hits for his sixth win. Andy Carey, Mickey Mantle and Chico Carrasquel hit homers in addition to Hunter in the nightcap.

Seven Splits

Seven of the eight doubleheaders Sunday resulted in splits and the eighth was pending completion of a suspended game betwen the Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies. The Braves won the opener, 5-4, with the aid of Ed Mathews' two homers but the Phillies had a 4-0 margin when the nightcap was suspended in the seventh frame.

Rookie Duke Maas' first major league shutout and a 12-hit attack enabled the Detroit Tigers to score a victory but Cal Abrams' triple and two-run homer paced the Baltimore Orioles to a 6-5 decision in the nightcap. Hector Lopez singled home the winning run in the 19th inning to give the Athletics a 5-4 win but the Red Sox won the second game, 4-3, with the aid of Norm Zauchin's eighth home run.

Sal Maglie's seventh straight victory enabled the New York Giants to beat the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, but Sam Jones won his sixth decision in the nightcap when pinch-hitter Frankie Baumholtz hit a three - run homer in the ninth off relief pitcher Marv Grissom. Jim Hearn was the loser.

The Brooklyn Dodgers came up with six and four - run rallies for a 10-6 conquest after Ken Boyer's two homers sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to a 9-4, 10-inning victory. Jackie Collum's nine-hitter gave the Cincinnati Redlegs a 5-1 win after Ramon Mejias singled home the winning run in the ninth inning to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-6 decision.

Semi-Finals This Week In Two-Ball

Championship play in the men's two-ball match play golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club has reached the round of four pairs.

This week's action sends Brad Broyles and Ted Groomes against George Harrington and Ray Wise while Bob Corbin and Norm Hillyer tangle with Bill Blackledge and Norton Smith.

In quarter-finals last week Broyles and Grooomes defeated Al Althens and Ward Samuelson 1 up over 19 holes; Harrington and Wise bettered Dr. Bob Sleeter and Royal Bebb 5 and 5; Corbin and Hillyer bounced Frank Allen and Carl Schmidt 3 and 2 and Blackledge and Smith whipped Ward Hammond and Mill Hartman 3 and 1.

First flight matches to be completed by next Sunday are Ed Milne and Harry Millette against Ed Simmons and Roy Smith and Bill Marshall and Dick Henselman against George Stacey and George Rasmussen.

Mixed Play Held

Results in the flight last week were: Milne and Millette def. George Schuler and Clyde Crenshaw 3 and 2; Simmons and Smith def. A. C. Boyles and John Moffat 6 and 5; Marshall and Henselman def. Wallace Robinson and Jack Wood, 3 and 2 and Stacey and Rasmussen def. Bob Wells and Don Wood 3 and 2.

Mrs. George Harrington and Everett McGraw took temporary possession of the Brophy trophies yesterday with low net 37 in the mixed two-ball foursome. Mrs. Howard McClure and Fred Conrad were low gross with 50.

In Saturday's ball sweepstakes Ivan Harrington was low gross with 82 and Frank Allen low net with 66. Jack Wood won blind bogey.

Thirteen men played their club championship touney qualifying rounds over the week end. Al Althens was low with 70.

The Southern Oregon junior medal play tourney is underway at RVCC today and ends on Tuesday.

Trabert, Seixas French Champs

Paris — (U.P.) — Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, the tennis world's greatest doubles team, stood at the halfway mark today in their avowed objective to complete an international "grand slam" this year.

The American Davis Cup stars captured the doubles crown in the French championships Sunday. They won the Australian title earlier this year and need similar victories in the forthcoming Wimbledon championships in England and the U.S. tournament in August to wrap up the "grand slam."

In Sunday's finals, Trabert and Seixas became the first American pair to win the French doubles crown in successive years as they whipped Italy's Orlando Sirola and Nicolas Pietrangeli, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

SIGN PRO PACTS

Seattle —(U.P.)— Two members of the Seattle University baseball team, pitcher John Kelly and shortstop Ken Kane, have signed professional contracts with the Cleveland Indians of the American League, it was reported yesterday. Both Kelly and Kane are expected to join the Yakima team of the Northwest League soon. A third Seattle U. player, pitcher Bob Ward, also signed a contract and will play with Yakima.

Jack Morris Winner in Low Hurdles

Portland—(U.P.)—University of Oregon broadjumper Martin Pedigo erased a mark set way back in 1906 Saturday night in the Oregon AAU track and field meet here by leaping 23 feet, 10⅝ inches.

The mark of 23 feet, 9½ inches was set by Dan Kelley of Multnomah Athletic Club nearly a half century ago.

Oregon's NCAA mile champ Bill Dellinger knocked over a mark set in 1950 by southern Cal's Jim Newcomb with a mile clocking of 4:14.5.

Ken Reiser, University of Oregon, ran the two-mile in 9:10.2 to break the mark of 9:18.8 set last year by Denny Meyer, Washington.

Sets Two Records

Fortune Gordien, Olympic discus champ, toppled records in both his specialty and the shotput. He set a discus mark of 178 feet, 3½inches and topped the shotput mark with a heave of 53 feet, 9 inches.

In the 100-yard dash, Bob Gary of Washington State edged out Oregon's Jack Morris by less than a stride. The time was :09.7. Morris had beaten Gary in the prelims in :09.8. Morris won the low hurdles in :24 flat.

Ed Bingham, Medford, and University of Oregon, was second to Jerry Church, OSC, in the college division of AAU track meet at Portland.

Terry Tops ND Pitching

Moscow, Ida. —(U.P.)— Oregon State's first baseman Jay Dean won the Northern Division batting crown, figures compiled for the 1955 baseball season showed today.

Dean, with 44 times at bat in 12 games, had a .545 average.

Oregon State took team batting honors with a .362 average although the Beavers were second in division standings. Champion was second in the hitting department with a .307 average.

Oregon's Norm Forbes hit a startling .704 but because he appeared at bat only 27 times his average was not considered for the division batting title. Ranking second to Dean in the standings was his teammate. Phil Jantz, with .453 in 53 trips to the plate.

In the pitching department, Oregon's Terry Maddox, with a perfect record, led the division.

Rainiers Acquire Ewell Blackwell

San Francisco—(U.P.)—The Seattle Rainiers have picked up a series and two players from the San Francisco Seals. After defeating the Seals, five games to three, the Rainiers announced acquisition of Ewell (The Whip) Blackwell, former Cincinnati pitching star, and Leo Righetti, Seals shortstop.

John Willener Wins Mail Tribune Trophy

Firing the sixth perfect score in the history of the competition, John Willener, Eugene, Sunday broke 100-straight birds at 16 yards to capture the M-T trophy in the annual Mail Tribune Trapshooting tournament at Medford Gun club.

Willener's score gave him also the Class A prize. In addition he won the Class I double with a 47 count and was top shooter in the 24-25 yardage group of the handicap with 94. He added his Sunday honors to his high overall in the Elks lodge state shoot here Saturday.

E. E. Driscoll, Klamath Falls, gained the Mendenhall trophy. That award goes to best score for Class B and lower in the 16-yard event. Driscoll headed Class B with a 99.

Forrest Solomon, Winchester, was high gun in the 100-target handicap. He shattered 97 pigeons to edge Harry Lupher, Drain, who busted 96.

Walt Fisher, Tillamook, nabbed 16-yard Class AA laurels with a 99. W. W. Hileman, Cottage Grove, was runner-up. He blasted 98 along with Solomon and Gordon Miller, Eugene, then broke 25 in the shoot-off while the others smashed 24 each.

Samson Breaks 99

Sam Samson, Medford, was another who broke 99 but he had to trail Willener in Class A. Runner-up to Driscoll in Class B was Bud Cloake, also Klamath Falls, with 98. Lloyd Hauptman, Chemult, plastered 98 at 16 yards to get Class C trophy and W. L. Winnert, Toledo, was runner-up with 97.

Class D was won by Joe Brooks, Medford, with 90, and Floyd Young, Medford, was next with 85. Donna Woolley, Drain, was high lady at 16 yards at 89 while Larry Horn, Grants Pass, took junior honors with 90.

Miller downed 46 birds for runner-up in Class I doubles. Driscoll and Dr. Earl Hunt, Eureka, Calif., both broke 46 in Class II and Driscoll won the flip for the trophy.

Francis Shatters AAU Prep Spear Standard

One Medfordite turned in a record shattering performance and three others won first places Saturday in the Oregon AAU track meet at Portland.

Eldon Francis hurled the javeline 194 ft. ½ inch. It was the best throw of his competitive career and eclipsed by almost 12 feet the high school division mark of 182-9 established by D. C. Mills, Medford, in 1950. His was the only Medford first in the prep class. Best previous throw by the Black Tornado star who'll be a junior next year, was 189-1.

Neil Plumley was best in the junior bracket eight-pound shot put for Medford, Mike Russell won the quarter-mile in :53.2 and Les Lingscheit the half-mile in 2:05.6. Plumley's 57-2½ in the shot was 10 inches shy of the record. Russell's time was considered excellent since he'll just be a sophomore next year. Plumley and Lingscheit will be juniors.

Russell was fourth in the junior division shot put and Wally Larson, another who has concluded his soph year at Medford, was second in a fast high school group low hurdles race. Mike McCluskey, Chehalis, equalled the :20.1 set by Frank Morris, Medford, in 1951. Jerry Close, Medford, was fourth in the junior broad jump.

Lawrence Wagner, Rogue River, was fourth in the junior mile.

DASH RECORDS FALL

Portland — (U.P.) — The all-time Northwest high school record for the 100-yard dash was tied Saturday night by Clarence Goosby of Yakima who was clocked in 9.8 in the prep division of the Oregon AAU track and field meet here.

Julius Strong of Portland's Roosevelt high set a record of 21.9 in the 220 to edge Goosby in that race.

Steve Frye, also of Yakima, tossed the shot 59 feet 4¼ inches for a new record. Frye also won the discus.

Portland's Beavers Drop Doublebill To Hollywood

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

Nobody did anything by halves in the Pacific Coast league Sunday.

Oakland, Seattle, Los Angeles and Hollywood all improved their positions in the league with double-dip victories while the others kept pace with the league leaders—by losing twice.

Oakland contributed much to keeping the pennant race close by waxing San Diego twice, 11-5 and 5-1, to win a 6-3 series from the loop leaders and cut their margin to six games.

Seattle moved up by dumping San Francisco 5-3 and 4-1, Los Angeles dropped Sacramento further into the cellar with 10-9 and 3-2 decisions and Hollywood took sixth place away from Portland 5-1 and 6-0.

Oakland's feat moved the Acorns into third place as Hector Brown and Don Ferrarese turned in full-stint performances.

Bob Garber pitched a four-hitter in the first game and Roger Bowman had a five hitter in the second as Hollywood swept Portland aside.

R. C. Stevens hit two home runs for the Stars, both in the first game.

Portland's lone run of the day came in the first inning of the first game and the Beavers then went 15 scoreless frames.
