

Double In 9th Gets Walker Out of Jam With Officer

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Correspondent
Washington — (U.P.)—I hope Harry (The Hat) Walker has better luck as new manager of the St. Louis Cardinals than he did running an automobile back in 1946.

Henry was tagged "The Hat" because while at bat he used to thumb and finger his cap between pitches to confuse the enemy on the mound. It got him a lot of free rides to first base, he always said.

Anyhow, in 1946 I was in a tizzy trying to sign up Dizzy Dean, the old pitcher, to a contract which called for me to play his ghost writer.

Ol' Diz kept stalling and screaming that he didn't see no dollar sign, although it was there in fine print. Diz finally agreed to terms and we were getting ready to run out to his house to sign the works. Harry, then an outfielder for the Cards, dressed and Diz, who had broadcast the game, came down.

He waited while "The Hat" signed a lot of autographs. It seems that that very day Harry had bought a new car. Also, on the way to the ball yard, some fan had presented him with a .32 calibre target rifle.

"Hold this, Nick," said "The Hat," handing me the weapon. Cop Stops Trio

So, we got into Harry's brand

Merentino KOs Smallwood in 2

New York — (U.P.)—Sluggish Rafael Merentino of Argentina will be rematched with middleweight Jackie Labau of Brooklyn on July 4 or July 11 as a reward for knocking out a substitute in a TV fight at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Merentino, 26, belted out Hardy Smallwood of Brooklyn at 2:36 of the second round before 1,200 fans. Referee Ray Miller counted out the 22-year-old Brooklyn Negro when he was on the floor the second time.

Smallwood, suffering the first kayo in his brief career, was a substitute for Labau, who withdrew last week because of rib injuries received during training. It was his second defeat in 16 professional bouts. He was a 9-5 underdog.

It was Merentino's 49th kayo and 54th victory in 65 fights.

Monday's leading scorer in the singles competition was Carolyn Behren, Fort Dodge, Ia., who rolled a 582 series in the singles and 1692 in the all-events.

The tournament resumes Friday at 7 p.m., and winds up Sunday.

Chiefs Tip Salem 13-7

By UNITED PRESS
Wenatchee's Chiefs held a five game bulge over second-place Salem in the Northwest league today.

The Chiefs took the Oregonians 13 to 7 in the first game of the series at Wenatchee last night with a 15-hit attack off three Salem hurlers.

Wenatchee catcher Lloyd Jenney drove in four runs with a double and a single Jerry Zuvella and Herb Anderson of the Chiefs each accounted for three runs driven in.

Shortstop Bob Cerratto clouted two homers as Spokane thumped Lewiston 18 to 4 at Spokane. His first came in the second with two runners aboard while the other came in the fourth with the bases empty.

Manager Cliff Dapper showed the way at Eugene where the Eugene Emeralds scored a 9 to 6 decision over Tri-City. Dapper had three singles in three trips. Tri-City came up with a triple play in the third inning and pushed across four runs in a ninth-inning rally but never quite could catch up with the Emeralds.

Leonard Gaines Favored To Defeat Augie Villa

Richmond, Calif. — (U.P.)—Leonard Gaines of Richmond is favored to defeat Augie Villa of De Coto, Calif., tonight when the pair clash in a 10-round lightweight bout at the Richmond Auditorium.

Gaines scored a fourth round knockout over Villa several months ago before losing a disputed decision to Tony Dupas of New Orleans and stopping Tommy Manolis.

Villa's most impressive victory to date is a decision over Art Ramponi.

Mile Marks Predicted by Slide Rule

By SCOTT BAILLIE
Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.)—Drop the stop watches and get a slide rule, track bugs, because professor Franklin M. Henry already has seen two world records smashed after he predicted their fall with mathematical formulae.

Henry, a professor of physical education at the University of California, learned from his equations last summer that a 3:58 mile was in the works and John Landy bore him out a little later on.

Henry's figures also foresaw a new world mark of 28:54.2 in the 10,000 meters and Emil Zatopek obliged by hitting the time on the nose.

The investigation, now entering its fourth week, appears to be headed for a longer run than anticipated, and may go far beyond the questioning of Johnson, Moran and four other respondents in the ring fiasco.

Long Way To Go
Commission Chairman James H. Crowley almost two weeks ago saw an early end to the inquiry but last week when Garfield W. Levy, Moran's counsel, suggested that perhaps the hearings "are ended," he was cut short by Commissioner Alfreid Klein.

"They are not over by a long shot," Klein snapped.

During the recess, police continued a separate investigation of the bout from the standpoint of how and by whom was Johnson drugged as reported by a commission doctor. Several boxing figures, including Frank (Blinky) Palermo, were quizzed by Inspector John Driscoll, but it was emphasized they had no connection with the case.

"We just wanted to talk to them for background material," Driscoll said.

Portland Releases
Hurler Lee Anthony
Portland — (U.P.)—The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league today announced the release of right-hand relief pitcher Lee Anthony.

The move was made in order to get down to the minimum player requirement. Anthony had won two and lost one in relief this season.

Henry usually sticks to doping the mile run because he has more complete records to work on. However, the formula can be applied to all foot races from 60 yards up to 26 miles, he says.

"The formula is based on times recorded in the mile during the past 50 years combined with what we have learned of the boy's physiological process," Henry explains. "Key factors there include the amount of blood sugar and oxygen depleted while a man is running."
