

Zemanek-Singler Wedding Held at Catholic Church

An event of Saturday, June 4, was the wedding of Miss Charlotte Lorraine Singler and Frank R. Zemanek, held in Sacred Heart church. The bride, who has been living in Seattle since her graduation from St. Mary's school here, is a daughter of Mrs. Ena Singler, 3138 Dark Hollow road, and the late Rudolph F. Singler. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zemanek, Orting, Wash.

The Rev. Charles J. Scott read the double-ring nuptial mass at 11 o'clock in the morning, and William Singler, Medford, escorted his sister to the altar.

The bride's gown was of nylon tulle and imported Chantilly lace over satin. The very full skirt was fashioned with a short train and the close-fitting bodice was of lace with long sleeves and low neckline. The bride's fingertip length veil was held by a crown of tiny lace flowers and seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book and orchid with cascade of ribbon and little bells.

Mrs. James Beckwith, Seattle, was matron-of-honor and other attendants were Mrs. William Singler, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Beverly Slutton.

Seattle. Their frocks were of figured nylon in pink and aquamarine worn with headresses of Ester Reed daisies in contrasting shades. They carried fans of lace and daisies.

George Zemanek, Stockton, Calif., was best man for his brother and ushers were Tom Zemanek, Tacoma, brother of the bridegroom and Allen Dobson, Pacific City.

Bruno Pellegrini was organist and Mrs. Howard Rickman was soloist.

The reception which followed at the Medford hotel was for relatives and close friends. The church decorations were baskets of pink and white gladiolus and arrangements of stock and pink peonies. Candelabra held lighted tapers. Table arrangements for the reception were of gladiolus and stock.

Mrs. Herbert Dungey took charge of the guest book, Mrs. Richard Coats served punch and Mrs. Rupert Maddox Sr. assisted in cutting the cake.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore an aquamarine suit dress with navy blue accessories and her flowers were pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk dress with white stole and her flowers were white gardenias.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco and from there flew to the Hawaiian islands for a 10-day honeymoon. They will live in Seattle where Mr. Zemanek is with Boeing Air Craft corporation. He is a veteran of service in the United States Air Force.

The bride attended St. Mary's school here and Seattle university. She was born and reared in Medford.

Here for the wedding in addition to the bridegroom's parents were Mrs. Ben Schenk and son, Orting; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wahoviak and children, Tacoma; Miss Beverly Slutton and James Beckwith, both Seattle.

Musical Given By Piano Pupils Monday Evening

A June musicale was presented by a group of the piano students of Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb at her residence studio Monday evening. A large audience attended.

The program included compositions by Bach, Beethoven, Schubert, Weber, Chaminade, Leucana, Debussy and Chopin. The piano duet, Weber's "Invitation to the Dance" was expertly played by the Misses Diana Getchell and Margaret Selby, and a pleasing interlude was provided by a vocal trio composed of the Misses Carolyn Carr, Kathryn Gott and Diana Getchell singing "Green Cathedral" by Hahn.

Dick Arnold presented Mrs. Bebb an orchid as an "expression of love from all the pupils." Decorations included a basket of flowers sent by the mother of a former outstanding pupil, Roger Wolf.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. The Misses Jane Bash, Margaret Selby and Sandra Kubalek, with Mrs. Bebb received the guests. Participating in the evening of music were Heather Rode, Tom Pepper, Charles Wall, LeRoy Axlund, Judy Bash, Lee Mellish, Mary Lee Cole, Carolyn Carr, Michael Phair, Kay Lee Ruhl, Margaret Selby, Diana Getchell, Dick Arnold, Jane Bash and Katherine Gott.

Home Ceremony Marries Couple

Miss Audrey Stenbridge became the bride of Wesley Phillips in a ceremony held May 28 at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stenbridge, 1300 Stewart avenue. The bridegroom, who is from Prospect, is the son of Mrs. Gladys Faulk of Westmorland, Calif., and George Phillips of Snyder, Okla. Dr. Raymond Balcomb of the First Methodist church read the rites and attending the couple were Miss Marjorie Newman and Doyle Henderson. Relatives of the couple attended.

The bride is a student at Medford Beauty school.

The couple is living in Medford after making a wedding trip to the coast.

Students Give Recital Tuesday

Mrs. W. E. Hercher held a piano recital at her home, 1608 Stratford avenue, on the evening of Tuesday, June 7. Parents and friends of the pupils were invited, and refreshments were served following the recital.

Students playing piano solos and duets were Kathleen Bevis, Linda Morlan and Karen Morlan. Jeanne Bevis played a flute solo, also.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Bevis, Michael Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morlan, Mrs. L. Aldrich, Mrs. R. P. Corbin and Mrs. Ronald E. Corbin.

Artist. Family Arrive in City; To Open School

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed Miller and their small son, Kit, have arrived in Medford to make their home. Mrs. Miller is the former Elaine Sherwood, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, 5 Loring court.

Mr. Miller, an artist, plans to establish an art school here for adults and children. A son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Miller, Portland, the young man was graduated from the University of Oregon's school of fine arts in 1949. He served in the United States Naval Reserve.

The Millers were married in 1951 and traveled in Europe for a year, during which time they visited galleries, studios and museums in London, Paris, Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, Amsterdam and Brussels. Returning to Oregon the couple resided in Portland for a time and for the past year, living in Eugene, Nelscott, and Depoe Bay, Ore., Mr. Miller has painted steadily, beginning a new direction in his work which these areas particularly satisfied, he reports. Two of his paintings will be on display at Mann's Department store beginning Monday.

Mrs. Miller, who majored in English literature at the University of Oregon, later was graduated from the Maria Easterly School of Modeling. She now plans to complete her studies for a teaching certificate at Southern Oregon college in Ashland.

The Millers are living at 514 West Jackson street while Mr. Miller seeks accommodations for his proposed school.

Eagle Point—Miss Sally Eccleston became the bride of William Jackson, airman first class in the United States Air Force, in a ceremony held May 28 at Eagle Point Community church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Eccleston, Eagle Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon E. Jackson, Eagle Point.

The couple exchanged wedding vows at seven o'clock in the evening before the Rev. Glen S. Wade, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Ray Chamberlain played the wedding music and Miss Joanne Henderson sang.

Garden flowers in pastel colors decorated the church, and arrangements of dogwood and rhododendron made up the reception decorations.

The bride's gown was white nylon lace, designed ballerina style, and she carried a white orchid encircled with lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Betty Eccleston was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Cathy Eccleston, another sister, and Mrs. Larry Buchanan, sister of the bridegroom were bridesmaid and matron, and Jeanie Jackson, niece of the bridegroom from Coos Bay, was flower girl.

The maid-of-honor wore a frock of yellow and her bouquet and headpiece were of dutch iris. The other attendants wore frocks of blue and their flowers were dutch iris.

Mr. Eccleston gave his daughter in marriage and Peter Jackson was best man for his brother, Jerry Robeson, North Bend and George Jackson, another brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

The reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Leonard Lindall and Miss Phyllis Devore. Punch and coffee were poured by Mrs. Larry Nelson, Mrs. Dave Jackson and Miss Anna Carlson. About 100 guests attended the wedding and reception.

For the event the bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of avocado green and beige and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a two-piece dress of aquamarine color. Their corsages were of pink carnations and valley lilies.

Here for the wedding were S. H. Lewis, Redding, Calif., grandfather of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lindall and family, the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister from Corvallis, and three aunts of the bride, Mrs. Henry Steward, Lakeview, Ore., Mrs. Paul Smalley, Redding, and Miss Pansy Lewis, Lakeview, Mr. Steward and Mr. Smalley.
