

Service Weds Talent Couple

Talent—A four o'clock afternoon ceremony May 29, wedded Miss Kary Ellen Suksdorf and Terry Duane Burnette. The double ring rites were performed by the Rev. Alice May Woolley at Talent Methodist church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Suksdorf, route 1, box 41, Talent, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Burnette, Second street, Talent.

The bride wore a white ballerina length dress. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls and she carried a white Bible with pink sweetheart rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lianis Burnette, a sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant. She wore a pink ballerina length dress and carried a nosegay of Easter Reed daisies and lavender sweet peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Bill Eagle was best man for the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a grey dress with white linen duster and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a pink suit with white accessories and both wore corsages of gardenias.

Bill Reichstein and Brent Winston were ushers. Miss Marilyn Suksdorf had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Albert Gandt sang and Mrs. Gertrude Starmer furnished the accompaniment.

The reception was held in the church rooms after the ceremony.

Mrs. Veiva Saltmarsh served the cake and Mrs. Walter Herman poured the punch.

The bridegroom is serving with the Air Force and is stationed at San Angelo, Tex., where the couple plan to live.

Camp, Auxiliary To Meet Sunday

Polings Observe Anniversary At Open House Last Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. N. Poling held open house Sunday, June 5, in observance of their fortieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Poling married the former Nellie Vincent in Phillipsburg, Kansas, on June 8, 1915. In 1920 the Polings moved to Oregon, and have lived since in their present home on Route 3.

Approximately fifty friends called during the afternoon. Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Sims at the piano, and Mrs. George Carpenter, accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Thompson, entertained with vocal selections. Mrs. Elmer Gott presented a reading.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Poling's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Vincent from Tigard, Oregon. Mrs. Vincent presided over the punch table. The Poling's daughter, Mrs. Roger Lawrence, served the cake. The Lawrences came from Bremerton, Washington for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Van Gordon of Grants Pass also attended.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon, and Mrs. Nick R. DeWitt, the Polings' other daughters, both of Medford. Judith Van Gordon took charge of the guest book, and Leslie Kay Van Gordon and Kathleen DeWitt helped at the gift table.

Rasmussen - Stafford Rites Held Here; Couple in Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duane Rasmussen are living at Eugene after their wedding May 27 at the Medford Assembly of God church and a trip to the Oregon coast. The bride is the former Miss Mildred Loraine Stafford of Dunsmuir, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stafford of that city. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Rasmussen, 308 Garfield street.

The ceremony was attended by about 175 guests and was performed in candlelight at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. F. Wilton Colbaugh read the double ring rites.

Mr. Stafford gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress of nylon net was trimmed with lace inserts and was styled with a hoop skirt. A headpiece of rhinestones and lace held her fingertip length veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ross Hollar, Sacramento, Calif., the matron of honor, wore a blue nylon net gown and her bouquet was of pink carnations. Miss Carol McKinley, the bridesmaid, wore a gown which matched the one worn by the honor attendant. She also carried pink carnations.

Miss Virginia Dickerson, Dunsmuir, and Miss Esther Wheeler, Roseville, Calif., who lighted the candles, wore pink net gowns with white carnation corsages.

Decorations were of pink rosebuds and ivy on a trellis. The same trellis had been used at the wedding of the bride's sister, Mrs. Don Kahl, 10 years previously. Baskets of white stock and snapdragons with candelabra were used in the background. Mrs. Leo Nylander furnished songs and Miss Sunny Wiest was the accompanist.

About 150 guests attended the reception which was held in the church annex.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a white afternoon dress with navy blue figures and her stole and accessories were white. The bridegroom's mother wore a white dress with black polka dots. Her stole was black and accessories white and both wore gardenia corsages.

Miss Hazel Hanson registered the guests and Mrs. Delbert Stafford, Dunsmuir, a sister-in-law, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Jerry Leslie, Phoenix, a sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Rasmussen, a sister-in-law, poured the punch.

In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Douglas Dawson and Mrs. Kahl, sisters of the bride.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. George Trask, aunt of the bride, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoskins and daughter, Joann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickerson and son, David, Miss Barbara Vose, Mrs. John Hardy and daughter, Loretta, Mrs. Sverre Landoe and Harold M. Kahl, all of Dunsmuir, Calif., and Mr. Hollar from Sacramento.

The bride has been employed as a clerk-typist at the McClellan Air Force base at Sacramento and the bridegroom is a carpenter employed by Ivan P. Edwards contractor. She attended Canyonville Bible academy and the bridegroom attended Medford Senior High school.
