Couple Here On Annual Valley Visit

Gen. and Mrs. Amos A. Fries of Washington, D. C., left Friday evening for Portland after a four-day visit in the valley. General and Mrs. Fries had attended the national convention of Sojourners' club, a Masonic organization for men who have no home lodge, and of which the general is past national president.

Following the convention they visited Mrs. Fries' two sisters in Los Angeles and their daughter and son-in-law, Commander and Mrs. Robert Merritt, who are stationed at Monterey Naval base.

In Medford they were at the home of Mrs. Volney Dixon and other relatives and friends, greeted and entertained them. Herbert Elmore, a nephew of Mrs. Fries, took the couple on a motor tour of the valley.

They were entertained at the home of Mrs. Purkeypile, sister of General Fries. Wednesday Miss Beulah Warner, long-time friend of the couple, honored them with a luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club. Miss Henrietta Medynski was co-hostess with Miss Warner and those enjoying their hospitality were Mrs. Fred Slagle, Mrs. J. R. Woodford and Mrs. Volney Dixon.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore gave a small luncheon at the Hotel Medford for the visitors. Thursday evening General and Mrs. Fries gave a family party at the Hotel Medford for relatives and friends still residing in the valley. About 27 attended.

Mrs. Pauline Elmore, Mrs. Fries' sister, died during the past year.

General and Mrs. Fries were graduated from Medford High school in 1893. Mrs. Fries is a daughter of the late Dr. Joseph Wait, pioneer physician of this district. The general entered West Point in 1894 and has had a military career of distinction. During World War I, when chemical warfare was introduced, he was made chief of that department with headquarters in Paris. For notable inventions in this line, he was awarded the distinguished service medal. He has also served on rivers and harbors projects in Oregon, Washington and California.

Since his retirement the general has devoted his life to making the country aware of the menace of communism and has lectured and written on that subject.

In Portland General and Mrs. Fries will be guests of the general's brother, Archie Fries, and will continue home via the Canadian Pacific railway with stops at Winnipeg, Quebec and Montreal.

Brides "Dumb" About Checks Says Tracer

By JAMES GEGGIES
Boston—(U.P.)—A woman who should know acknowledges what men already know—that most women are "dumb" when it comes to writing checks. Especially, brides.

Pretty Jean Manson, insurance firm check tracer, says a woman's handwriting on a check is better than a man's but too often she forgets one detail—like signing it.

Miss Manson's firm, an insurance company, receives some $3,000,000 yearly in unidentified checks.

The 20-year-old sleuth tries to find who sent them. Her work has won praise from dozens of investigative agencies, but Miss Manson says she's tired of being a snoop.

"I'll get married some day and concentrate on watching children," she says. At present, she is a long way from marriage. She works alone, surrounded by city directories and telephone books. Much of her time is spent in her company's immense filing rooms where she rifles through thousands of names.

Occasionally she gets a check for as much as $1,000, signed by an illegible name.

Miss Manson contends that women make more errors than men with checks. And she says young brides are the worst offenders.

"A woman's handwriting is better," she says, "but too often she forgets to include an invoice or business address. A bride writing her husband's checks will use her maiden name every time."

Handy "Canned" Ice Now Ready for Picnic

New York—(U.P.)—Canned "ice" is the latest in picnic accessories. One manufacturer is marketing a canned liquid chemical which will freeze more rapidly than just plain water and stay frozen longer. The refrigerator, which is to be used canned and not opened, solidifies in a few hours in a refrigerator freezing compartment or home freezer. It can be used over and over, and is suggested for packing around foods and beverages on a picnic, motor trip or for home barbecues or parties.

Morgan-Bennett Wedding Held in Gold Hill Church

Gold Hill—The marriage of Miss Nancy Mae Bennett to Claude D. Morgan was solemnized at a 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday, June 4, at Gold Hill Community Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bennett, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morgan, also of Gold Hill.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald Geer, pastor of the church. The church was decorated with baskets of white iris and mountain fern with twin seven-branched candelabra flanking the altar. Mrs. Norman Gail was soloist. Mrs. Roy Eskew played the accompaniment and the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white nylon net over tulle, ballet length, and her halo headpiece of sheer net with bows of seed pearls held a finger-tip veil of illusion net. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Dan Dollarhide, sister of the bride. Her dress was of ice blue satin and she carried a colonial bouquet of white iris and pink roses. Candelights were Misses Marge and Daisy Bennett, sisters of the bride. They were matching dresses of nylon shadow organza in pink and blue respectively with wreaths of rosebuds and forget-me-nots on their hair and wristlets of white carnations.

The brother of the bridegroom, Joseph Morgan, served as best man and ushers were Carl Boland and Dan Dollarhide.

The bride's mother wore a dress of grey with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Joseph Morgan's dress was of royal blue and she wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The table was decorated with pink roses and white candles. Mrs. Jack Garrison, of Medford, baked the cake and assisted with its serving. Mrs. Alvin

Air Conditioning Declared Healthful

Omaha, Neb.—(U.P.)—You can forget those fears that working in an air-conditioned building in the summer, then walking into a steaming-hot street will affect your health.

So says John W. James, Chicago, vice-president of the American Society of Heating and Air Conditioning Engineers.

James said research experts have shown that there is no harmful "shock effect" from going into a warmer atmosphere, he said, which temperatures are most healthful. However, he said, it is known that cool air benefits sufferers of asthma and hay fever.
