Car Demolished, None Hurt, in Accident

A car driven by Leslie Frank Yeager, 18, Azalea, Ore., was demolished early Friday afternoon when it was struck by a logging truck driven by Jack Koop, 54, Rogue River, according to a state police report. The investigating officer said Yeager was driving south on Highway 99 north of Medford when the truck crossed the highway, striking the Yeager car and skidding it into a bulldozer blade on the ground off the highway. No injuries were listed. The officer cited Koop for failure to yield the right of way. Eugene —(U.P.)— Sparks from a refuse burner were blamed Friday for a $15,000 fire which destroyed the green chain shed at the Barker Lumber Company here.

Aquatic Training Approved for Two Red Cross Workers

The board of the Jackson County Chapter of the American Red Cross voted to send John Smock, Central Point, and Dean Mayfield of Medford to the Red Cross aquatic school to be held at Trail's End Camp, Olympia, Wash., June 13 through 23, at its regular monthly meeting last week. Mrs. J. W. Burba, chairman of the blood program, announced the next blood mobile would visit Medford June 14. It will be at the Elks Club from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., with a quota set at 250 donors or 200 pints. Reports On Classes Mrs. T. R. Florey, chairman of home nursing, reported the completion of instructor and layman classes. Through the courtesy of the American Legion, a temporary classroom has been established at the Legion home, Riverside ave. Eugene Thorndike, chairman of the board, announced the annual meeting would be held July 14 at noon at the Rogue Valley Country Club. Gen. Curtis Beecher will be the featured speaker. San Francisco —(U.P.)— Subordinate officers of the freighter Marine Snapper and the tanker L. P. St. Clair have testified at a Coast Guard hearing that they saw each other's crafts by radar nearly 30 minutes before the two vessels collided outside the Golden Gate.

Portland Emergency Demanded on Pinballs

Portland — (U.P.)—The secretary of the Oregon Anti-Liquor League has demanded that Portland Mayor Fred L. Peterson declare a state of emergency until outlawed pinball machines are put out of business in the Rose City. In a letter addressed to the Mayor, George Smith Brown suggested that a state of emergency be declared and that all taverns be closed. He also urged that Peterson "remove all policemen from taverns and send them to every pinball-operating place and place an 'out of order' sign on each machine."

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 1 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.
