

All-Stars Top San Diego 7-4 As Bearden Picks Up Victory

By UNITED PRESS
Lefty O'Doul's touch with the San Diego Padres is only exceeded by his hex against them. The former National League batting champion led the Pads to the Pacific Coast League championship last year and then moved on to Oakland. Now he is giving the Padres fits.

All-Stars Win
Last night, for instance, Lefty led the Pacific Coast League All-Stars to a 7-4 win over the Pads in the annual All-Star game.

The All-Stars waited until the ninth to do it, though, coming from behind with four runs. Winning pitcher, by the way, was Gene Bearden who won the second game for San Francisco Sunday while pitching with only two days rest.

Mike Baxes of San Francisco walked to open the ninth frame and Gene Mauch of Los Angeles and Ted Beard of San Francisco then singled. Jim Marshall of Oakland tied the game at 4-4 with a sacrifice fly. Bobby Del Greco of Hollywood singled home Mauch and Beard and Portland's Don Egert tripled Del Greco in to ice the contest.

Tommy Herrera was the losing pitcher as he and John Carmichael went the distance for San Diego. The All-Stars used four pitchers among their 20 players with Bearden getting the win.

The attendance of 3204 fans was the smallest in PCL All-

Star history.

PASS THE SCALPEL—Chicago Bears end, Bill McColl, 24 (right), will be receiving surgical instruments instead of footballs in the near future when he interns in San Francisco's Stanford Hospital. Congratulating McColl for finishing his medical course is University of Chicago's Chancellor Lawrence A. Kimpton. McColl, All-America end at Stanford University in 1952, financed his medical education by playing pro football with the Chicago Bears.

Melbourne Appears Certain To Remain '56 Olympic Site

Paris —(U.P.)— Melbourne appeared certain to remain the site of the 1956 Olympic games and Rome and Lausanne seemed the most likely choices for the 1960 games today as the International Olympic committee buckled down to business at its meeting.

Decisions on the site of both games were expected to come either today or Wednesday as the committee shifted the site of its conclave to the Circle Interallie building for secret debate.

Although many leading delegates remain dissatisfied with Melbourne's preparations for next year's games, it still seemed certain that no action would be taken to change the site at this late date. Informed sources predicted the Melbourne subject would be debated but would be tabled without any action being taken.

The same sources indicated that Rome and Lausanne now have the best chances among

Little League Baseball To Aid Polio Campaign

Williamsport, Pa. — (U.P.) — Little League baseball goes to bat today for the National Polio Foundation.

Admission will be charged at about 15,000 Little League games from coast-to-coast on a voluntary basis, and the entire proceeds will be turned over by the kid sluggers to the infantile paralysis March of Dimes fund.

President Eisenhower saluted the half-million Little League players of 4,000 different leagues in a message to Peter McGovern, president of the Little League, at his headquarters here.
