Couple Married In Reno Service Saturday Evening

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Miner Grant, Cargill court, and Willis Thompson Fasel, 1244 South Riverside avenue, was read at eight o'clock, Saturday evening, June 4, at the First Methodist church, in Reno, Nev.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stephen C. Thomas, pastor of the church in a setting of baskets of pink carnations and lighted candles.

The bride wore a gray costume suit, with pink accessories. Her corsage was white Australian orchids.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Clifford L. Thomas, daughter of the bridegroom, who wore a dark blue costume suit, with pink accessories and her corsage was pink carnations.

Clifford L. Thomas, son-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner took place at the Mapes hotel, and the couple traveled to Lake Tahoe for their honeymoon. They are now at home at Cargill Court.

The bride is a department head at Montgomery, Ward and Co.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Fasel, Turlock, Calif., is a realtor in Medford.

Piano Students Present Recital

Another group of Mrs. Katherine Diepenbrock's piano students gathered at her home on Vancouver avenue Sunday afternoon to present a recital program. Music of various types, light and serious, modern and classical, was played.

Composers such as Beethoven, Schubert, Mendelssohn, Tchaikovsky, Strauss, Rossini, Suppe and Deppen, were represented. Solos and duets varied the program, and parents and friends were interested listeners.

Performing were Georgie Lawson, Karen Christensen, Susan Garner, Carolyn Menckce, Sandra Edwards, Mrs. McGinty and Karen Johnson. Upon special request little Melinda Wray repeated a part of her numbers which she had played at the first recital.

Vernal Goodrich sang two special numbers, "Invictus" by Huhn and "The Road to Mandalay," by Speaks, lending variety to the instrumental music.

After the program refreshments were served.

Minister, Wife Return From Trip

The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas McCamant, 300 Oakwood dr., have returned after a four-week tour through the midwest and south, during which they visited a number of relatives.

Mr. McCamant, minister of the Congregational church here, will resume charge of the services at the church Sunday.

They drove to Northfield, Minn., to see one son, visited relatives in Indiana and Tennessee, visited a daughter in Memphis, and drove home by way of New Orleans and the southwest. They saw another son at Stanford university en route north through California.

Sister Here

Mrs. E. B. Larson has arrived in Medford from Seattle, Wash., to visit her sister, Mrs. W. A. Cormany, and her brother, J. W. Hokanson, 1017 West Ninth street. Mrs. Larson has visited here frequently in the past and has many friends in the valley. She will be here about two weeks.

Newswriters Due Here On Tour During July

Four newspaper writers will tour the Rogue valley late next month under the sponsorship of the Pacific Northwest Travel association, the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce has announced.

Elks' Flag Day Rites Scheduled Thursday

Exalted Ruler C. Aubrey Sander, of the local Elks lodge, has announced that the Elks' annual Flag day service, which is open to the public, will be held Thursday, June 16, at 8 p.m., in the basement lounge of the Elks temple.

A special program has been arranged and Mrs. Jo Anne Smith and Miss Carol Denman will be the principal speakers. Their subjects will be "Freedom Foundation" and "A Visit to Valley Forge." Mrs. Belle Van Dyke will provide the music and a troop of the Boy Scouts will present the flags. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Sander also announced that a short session of Lodge will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Lodge hall.

Portlander Heads Oregon Lions Clubs

Pendleton, Ore. — (U.P.) — The biggest Lions club convention in state history adjourned yesterday afternoon after electing and installing four new district governors for the state.

New governors were Ivan Koeber, Portland; Al Stockstead, Springfield; William L. Miller, Coos Bay; and Sterling May, Baker.

Before adjournment, the La Grande Lions club was presented an achievement plaque and the Eugene club won a trophy for traveling the most man-miles in attending the convention.

Portland was selected for the site of next year's meet.

Japanese Ship Drill Watched by Portlanders

Portland — (U.P.) — Thousands of fascinated Portlanders watched yesterday evening as the Japanese training ship Nippon Maru held sail drill.

The vessel's sails were unfurled by the 110 cadets and 30 sailors while the ship remained at its mooring near Terminal No. 2. Main mast of the vessel, which sailed here for Portland's Rose Festival, is 140 feet above the water level.

The cadets will become officers of Japanese merchant vessels when they complete training on the Nippon Maru.

Hope Skillman's "pigtail" striped cotton makes a chic sundress for the vacationer. Designed by Alex Colman, the dress combines comfort with good looks. The eye-catching striped cotton has a square neckline with wide shoulder straps.

College Student Now in Chicago

Miss Shirley Lynch, who completed her freshman year at Lewis and Clark college this month, has gone to Chicago to visit friends and is now employed at Marshall Field and company's Chicago store. Later she will visit cousins in Saginaw, Mich., and Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.

Miss Lynch, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lynch, 139 Kenwood avenue, will return to Oregon in late summer and plans to enter the University of Oregon for her senior year.

Plan Dinner

Royal Neighbors of America will hold a potluck dinner at the Pythian hall Thursday, June 16, at 6:30 p.m. A social hour and entertainment will follow dinner.
