

Demonstrations Given for Club

Phoenix—A demonstration on how to make a bride's bouquet was given for Phoenix Garden club at its meeting June 10. Mrs. J. E. Harper gave the demonstration, using pink roses for the bouquet. Mrs. Harper then demonstrated how to make a funeral spray, using snapdragons, Scotch broom and ferns.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. George Hartley, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Albert Arnold and Mrs. A. C. Lewis.

Arrangements were made to send two delegates to the convention of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs held in Portland this week. The delegates were Mrs. A. C. Lewis, president, and Mrs. Thomas Carter, program chairman.

The float chairman reported that the club won third place in the Phoenix festival parade May 28. The club voted to enter a float in the Jacksonville Jubilee parade.

The next meeting will be an arrangement workshop at the home of Mrs. W. I. House in Fern valley, July 8 at 10 a.m. Members are to take a sack lunch. A dessert lunch will be served later by Mrs. House, assisted by Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Mrs. Lester Carr and Mrs. J. E. Harper.

Guests present at the meeting were Mrs. Bert Stancliffe and Mrs. J. G. Klassen of Phoenix.

Cancel Show

Talent — Talent Garden club has announced cancellation of the flower show planned for June 18. Decision to cancel the show was made at a special meeting of the club held at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Long Monday, June 13.

Club members also discussed the year book at this meeting.

Professor, Family Return From Trip; Spend Year Abroad

Ashland—A brief description of his year's sabbatical leave for travel and study in Europe has been given by Dr. Eugene W. Bowman, associate professor of education at Southern Oregon college. Dr. Bowman returned May 3 on the Massdam from Cobh, Ireland, to New York. He and his family drove west from Detroit.

With his family, Mrs. Bowman, Virginia and Bill, Dr. Bowman toured the British Isles, France, Holland, Belgium, Germany, the Scandinavian countries, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and Austria by automobile. In March he made a tour of the Western Mediterranean which included calls to ports in Greece, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Turkey.

The Bowmans spent five months, from October last year through February, in Paris where the children were in French schools and he did work at the Sorbonne as well as observing French schools and educational practices.

Dr. Bowman resumed his teaching at Southern Oregon college with the opening of summer school on June 13.

Family Attends Rose Festival

Phoenix — Mr. and Mrs. Osa Waggoner of Phoenix, with their son, Jimmie Steele, their daughter, Mrs. Dolly Arnold and Miss Gloria Wall, left last Friday for Coos Bay. They were joined at Coos Bay by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Teague, Empire, and the group motored up the coast to Portland where they attended the rose festival.

They also visited the Waggoners' son-in-law, James Arnold, who is in the veterans' hospital there.
