

White Sox Take Over Lead; Dodgers Lose At St. Louis

By United Press
First place sort of appeals to the White Sox, so they simply kicked out the Yankees Saturday and settled their themselves. All this came about as the White Sox beat the Yankees, 6-3, with the aid of 12 walks, seven of which were handed out by losing pitcher Bob Turley, Harry Byrd, obtained from the Orioles last Wednesday, pitched a seven hitter to move Chicago into the American League lead by 14 percentage points.

Turley was chased when he loaded the bases in the seventh and pinch hitter Bob Nieman doubled off reliever Tom Sturdivant, driving in two runs, the last of which proved to be the winning one. Jackie Jensen's 13 homer broke a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning and gave the Red Sox a 4-2 triumph over third-place Cleveland. Jensen also drove in an insurance run with a sacrifice fly in the eighth. Sammy White hit his fifth homer in the second as Frank Sullivan registered his eighth win. Pitches Two Hitter Rookie Duke Maas of the Tigers pitched a two-hitter in shutting out the Orioles for the second time this season, 7-0. The only Baltimore batters to reach base were Gus Triandos, who doubled in the fifth and Chuck Diering, who singled in the ninth. Kansas City defeated Washington, 9-4, with veteran Vic Raschi getting the victory although he needed help from Tom Gorman in the eighth. The Athletics collected 12 hits off loser Camilo Pascual and his successors, Ted Abernathy and Spec Shea. Sam (No-Hit) Jones of the Cubs hurled a seven-hit shutout to beat the Phillies, 4-0. Gene Baker doubled and Ransom Jackson singled for Chicago's first run off Robin Roberts in the fourth inning and rookie Jim King drove in two more runs with a triple in the sixth. Giants Lose 7-4 Henry Aaron's sixth inning single snapped a 4-4 tie and helped the Braves score their second victory in a row over the Giants, 7-4. Ernie Johnson relieved Chet Nichols in the sixth and picked up his third triumph. De Crandall and Sid Gordon each homered. Gerry Staley's five-hit pitching and homers by Wally

Post and Stan Palys gave the Redlegs a 4-1 decision over Pittsburgh. Rookie southpaw Lino Donoso, purchased from Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League, helped beat himself with a pair of wild pickoff throws that figured in Cincinnati's other two runs. In a night game at St. Louis, the Brooklyn Dodgers broke a 1-1 tie with three runs in the top half of the 10th inning but the Cardinals pushed across four in their turn at bat to gain a 5-4 victory.

TO EXTEND TOUR

New York (U.P.)—The United States weight-lifting team, which tied a Russian squad last Wednesday, was granted permission to extend its tour to July 1. The AAU's permission gives the weight-lifters a chance to appear in Iran and Egypt.

Dave Gray Joins Eugene Emeralds

Eugene (U.P.)—Dave Gray, who won 14 games and lost only one during his college pitching career at Willamette, joined the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League today. Gray, a right-hander, was signed by the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League and optioned to Eugene. He is a native of West Linn.

Bob Selsor Joins Studs; Plays Short

Bob Selsor has reported to the Medford Cheney Studs and was to be with the squad for this week end's series at Drain.

The University of California at Los Angeles baseballer is a shortstop. He is the last of a number of collegians to join the ranks of the Studs.

Medford's Southern Oregon League entry plays at Drain this afternoon. First game of the week end series was in the Douglas county town last night. It is the Studs' first full series away from home.

Play Mt. Shasta
Next semi-pro baseball encounter in Medford will be on Wednesday, June 22. The Studs will be hosts to Mt. Shasta, Calif., of the Northern California circuit.

Southern Oregon League play on Saturday and Sunday, June 25 and 26, will bring a new loop member to Medford. The Studs entertain the Bend Loggers. Coming of the Loggers will also mark the appearance of a former Stud's hurler in a managerial role. Paul Gehrmann is skipper of the Bend team.

A sizable number of players on the Bend roster are Oregon State collegians.

Jack Morris Participant In AAU Meet

Jack Morris, ex-Medford high athletic great, will enter the national AAU track meet at Boulder, Colo., under sponsorship of a group of Medford business men, it was reported Saturday.

Morris has been a standout this year as a freshman performer at University of Oregon. He will enter the high hurdles and the 100-yard dash.

The ex-Medford star will be one of six Oregon entries in the national. Others are Jerry Church, Oregon State javelin thrower; Bill Dellinger, University of Oregon miler; Ken Reiser, U of O two-miler; Fortune Gordien, defending discus champ, and Dean Benson, Willamette hurdler.

Injured Skier Is Improving In Calif.

Santa Monica, Calif. (U.P.)—Pretty Jill Kimmont, Bishop, Calif. skier seriously injured in a skiing accident in Utah last January, is reported improving in St. John's hospital here.

Miss Kimmont, one of the most promising skiers for the U. S. Olympic team, suffered a broken back in the accident. She was paralyzed from the neck down.

Spokesmen at the hospital said the 19-year-old girl has regained some movement in her right arm and now sits up part of the time.

Olympic Committee Accepts East Germany

Paris (U.P.)—The International Olympic Committee provisionally accepted Communist East Germany as a member Saturday on condition it forms a common team with free West Germany for the 1956 Olympics.

It made the decision at its final session. East Germany will become a regular member if the two Germanies can form a single team.

West Germany is already a member of the committee. East Germany has been vainly trying to become a member for the last three years.

TOMMY WAS STEADY—Tommy Bolt, trigger-tempered pro from Chattanooga, Tenn., holds up his hand to indicate the five birdies he collected in the first day of the USGA National Open at the Olympic Club Lakeside golf course in San Francisco. A birdie is making a hole in one stroke under par. Bolt played a steady game in one of the greatest first rounds of the Open history. He led the field with a 35-32—67.

Exhibition, Clinic By Two Pros at RVCC

Rogue Valley Country club will provide a treat for golfing followers of southern Oregon when it brings two of the top professionals in the United States to Medford on Monday for an exhibition and clinic.

The standout divoters, both following the pro circuit, are Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Bob Winger, Oklahoma City, Okla. They'll come here on the heels of participation in the U.S. Open tournament at San Francisco's Olympic club course.

Maxwell, the 1951 national amateur champion, and Winger, whose 60 scored in one tourney is low for 18 holes in Professional Golfers association circuit, will battle George Harrington and Al Williams in an 18-hole best ball match. Harrington, manager of RVCC, is a former Oregon medal play champ and is one of the state's leading amateurs. Williams is pro at the local links.

Maxwell had a 151 score after the Friday round of the U.S. Open. That was at the halfway point of the tourney. Winger's score was not available.

Legion Clubs Provide Only Baseball Action Here Today

American Legion junior aggregations provide the only baseball for Medford fans today.

Central Post-Medford, will battle the Klamath Falls Cokes. Medford senior high field will be the scene of conflict. Play ball time is 1:30 p.m. There will be two games of seven innings each.

Today's engagements will be the last opportunity for local baseballers to see CP-Medford in action this season on the Medford diamond, at least for several weeks. The locals will not appear here again unless they win the district championship and compete in interdistrict play-offs.

Games this afternoon mark the halfway point in the Legion schedule. CP-Medford is playing its first half games at home and the second half on the road.

Unbeaten So Far
The combination of Medford, Crater and St. Mary's high diamonders, competing under the banner of Myers-Holland American Legion post, Central Point, have an unbeaten record to protect. With four victories behind them, they will be in good position to go on to the district championship if they can sweep a pair from Klamath Falls.

But the CP-Med. gap looks for a tougher afternoon than it experienced since its double loss last week at Ashland.

Medford's pitching choices are among Fred Herrmann, Duane Sides and Henry Putney while Skipper Don Peterson may call

Hollywood (U.P.)—The Portland Beavers clinched a series win with Hollywood Saturday with a 4-2 victory as Luis Marquez slammed out a scoring double and a crucial home run to put the game on ice for the northern invaders.

The win gave Portland a 4-1 series advantage. Marquez took batting honors with a home run, a double, a stolen base and two runs batted in. The Beavers handed the stars their first home series defeat of the season.

Winning pitcher Bill Werle was lifted in the bottom of the ninth, but Carl Scheib forced Lee Walls to fly out to deep center with two on and two out.

Marquez started his hitting spree with a first inning double to score slugger Carl Fowles. Marquez' fifth-inning homer soared over the left field wall. It was Marquez' second home run of the season.

Fans 10 Oaks
Oakland, Calif. (U.P.)—Eddie Erault struck out 10 Oakland Oaks yesterday to highlight an 8-4 San Diego Padre victory, the 10th win of the season for the Pad fast-baller.

The league leading Padres went to work in earnest in the second inning, amassing six runs on a walk and five hits.

The Padres added one in the fourth and another in the eighth. Oakland clusted all its four runs in the second, when Bill Serena, pinch hitting for pitcher Bud Black, homered with the bases loaded.

"Experimental" Game
Sacramento, Calif. (U.P.)—Sacramento blasted four Los Angeles pitchers for nine hits and six runs to give pitcher Johnny Briggs his eighth win of the season, 6-4, Saturday in an "experimental" afternoon contest that pleased Sacramento president Fred David.

The last place Solons opened the scoring with a run in the first, tallied four times in the fourth and picked up an unneeded one in the sixth on Rufe Crawford's fourth home run of the year.

"The fans seem to be heartily in favor" of the afternoon game, commented David after surveying the 1,209 in attendance today. In an effort to boost sagging box office showings, the Sacs switched their normal Saturday night game to the daylight hours. They will likewise play an afternoon doubleheader today instead of the twilight twin ball customary to the capital city.

Tennis Class Registration On Monday

Both boys and girls may take the instruction being offered in tennis classes being sponsored by the Medford public school system.

The five-weeks program begins with registration at 9 a.m. on Monday and four classes each morning are planned five days per week.

Hot part of the day will be avoided since classes, under direction of Warren Brenner, senior high net coach, will be at 7, 8, 9 and 10 a.m.

The instruction is primarily for junior and senior high students here. But younger students interested also will be accepted. Pupils are to provide their own rackets and shoes. However, there will be a few rackets available to borrow.

More classes than presently planned may be arranged if enrollment demands.

Tennis Title To Louise Brough

London (U.P.)—Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., won the women's singles title in the London Grass Court Tennis tournament yesterday by beating "giant killer" Jean Forbes of South Africa, 6-3, 6-1.

The 15-year-old Miss Forbes gave Miss Brough a tough fight for the first six games, gaining a service break to tie the set at 3-all. But Miss Brough broke through in the next game and went on to win. She breezed through the second set.

Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., won the women's doubles crown Friday by defeating Britain's Angela Mortimer and Anne Shilcock.

RAMS SIGN ROOKIES

Los Angeles (U.P.)—The Los Angeles Rams team Saturday announced the addition of several rookies to their 1955 football team. The latest group to sign included End Claude Harland, Texas Tech; Charles Coates, Tulane tackle; Harfalks Lloyd Cox, Denver, and Robert Holladay, Tulsa university.

Site of 1960 Winter Olympics Grazed Cattle Seven Years Ago

Squaw Valley, Calif. (U.P.)—Squaw Valley, chosen as the site for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games, was just a peaceful High Sierra cow pasture a few years ago.

In 1948, an organization including movie stars, eastern socialites and local winter sports authorities traded the tinkle of Swiss bells on the grazing cattle for the sound of the workmen's tools and the huge ski lift, lodge and resort area was constructed. Squaw Valley will be the second U.S. site at which the Winter Games have been held. The Olympics were conducted at

Helbig Heads NWL Hitters

Wenatchee (U.P.)—Dwane Helbig of Tri-City led Northwest League hitters with a .405 mark according to latest league statistics released, but Herman Lewis, Yakima slugger, was tops in three departments.

Lewis' total base mark of 124, his hit harvest of 71 and his mark of nine triples all were high for the seven-club Class B circuit.

Hillis Layne, Lewiston manager, was tops in doubles with 18 and Bob Duretto of Wenatchee rated tops in homers with nine. Duretto also had driven in a high of 63 runs.

Joe Jacobs, Lewiston, led in stolen bases with 21 and Lloyd Jenney, former Wenatchee backstop, still led in walks with 51. Jack Steingard of Salem and Bill Marvier of Wenatchee shared the unpleasant mark of 39 strikeouts apiece.

Bob Roberts of Wenatchee dominated the pitching statistics leading in four divisions and being tied in a fifth. He had the most wins, 11, had appeared in the most complete games, 10, had pitched the most innings, 112, had allowed the most walks, 70, and was tied for strikeouts with Berlyn Hodges with 80. Hodges, Eugene, sported a 8-0 mark to date.

Cornell Wins Three Races

Syracuse, N. Y. (U.P.)—Cornell's powerful oarsmen, rewarded Coach Story Sanford's confidence in them Saturday by sweeping all three races of the 53rd annual intercollegiate rowing association regatta.

More than making up for a disappointing early season record which brought disappointing defeats by Pennsylvania and Navy, Cornell's sophomore-laden varsity stroked to a two and one-half length victory over the same rivals in mirror-like lake Onondaga, just north of Syracuse.

The big Red also won both the freshman and junior varsity races for a total of 20 points which earned them the Jim Ten Eyck team trophy for the second year in a row.

This was the first time in 41 years that the big Red Oarsmen swept all three races. The Washington huskies were the last previous crew to perform the feat in 1910.

Junior Golfers Quality Monday

Rogue Valley Country club junior golfers will qualify Monday morning for a no-handicap match play tournament.

Matches in four divisions are to be completed by Friday night. Juniors will tee off starting at 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Divisions are pee wees, boys, junior boys and girls.
