Beavers Rap Twinks 9-2, 5-1; Suds Win 9 in Row

By DON THACKREY

The San Diego Padres still had their one-game Pacific Coast League lead today only because they had presence of mind enough to win both ends of yesterday's doubleheader.

The Pads gained a measure of revenge on Lefty O'Doul by belting his charges, the Oakland Oaks, twice—7-2 and then 3-1.

And while the Padres were having all this fun the foaming Seattle Rainiers made it nine straight by sweeping a doubleheader and a series from San Francisco. The Sunday scores were 7-3 and 6-1.

Orioles Obtain Texas Baseballer

Baltimore —(U.P.)— Paul Richards, who says the Baltimore Orioles are ready to out-bid all other clubs in the bonus market, signed three youngsters at a clip today and described one of them as "the greatest thing since the invention of the round wheel."

Object of Richards' praise was first baseman-pitcher Robert Sydney Nelson, 18-year-old batting and hurling "phenom" from Dallas.

"Of all the bonus players we signed this season, Nelson is the one we wanted most," Richards said. "Every club in the majors was interested in him but we made up our minds to get him and we did."

Modest Bonus

Nelson, signed for a "modest bonus" estimated around $20,000, immediately was placed on the Baltimore roster along with 22-year-old catcher Tommy Gastall, former Boston University baseball and football star, who was given an estimated $15,000 bonus by the Orioles.

The third youngster signed was William Lajoie, a 20-year-old centerfielder from Western Michigan College, who received less than $4,000 and was assigned to the Orioles' San Antonio farm club in the Texas League.

Poirier Faces Pita Tonight

New York —(U.P.)— Two young welterweight sluggers will match explosives tonight in the television fight between Gene Poirier of Niagara Falls, N.Y., and unbeaten Oscar Pita of Argentina at St. Nicholas Arena.

Wagering on their 10-rounder is "even money."

Poirier, who looks and fights like ex-middleweight champion Tony Zale, is seeking his fourth straight knockout. He was very impressive in his last bout on May 30, when he belted out the more experienced Miguel Diaz in the fourth round.

Pita, 21, will be seeking his 42nd consecutive professional victory in his second U.S. appearance. The welterweight champion of Argentina outpointed Freddy Monforte at Brockton, Mass., on April 25.

Miller played football at Denver; Van Loo has been football coach at Myrtle Creek high school, and McGown is currently a member of the OTI faculty.

Eugene Has Lead in NWL

By UNITED PRESS

The Wenatchee Chiefs were tumbled from the top of the Northwest League standings during the week end. Looking down on the circuit's six other teams today was Eugene, but the Emeralds owed some thanks to the lowly Spokane Indians for their lofty position.

Spokane spotted visiting Wenatchee four runs in the third inning of their game Sunday night, then fought an uphill battle all the way to tie the game with three runs in the ninth. Joe Porter singled home his third run of the game in the 10th to give the Indians a well-earned 9-8 victory, their third in four games with the Chiefs. Spokane won its first series of the season, by the way.

Eugene, meanwhile, had to come from behind to get a split with Yakima in the nightcap of the doubleheader in the Oregon city. Triples by Granny Gladstone and Cliff Dapper proved the big blows for the Emeralds 6-5 win in the nightcap. Des Charoux singled home Sam Mitchell and Bob Nard to give Yakima the seven-inning opener 2-1.

Sunday's other game was at Tri-City where he visiting Lewiston Broncos made themselves unwanted guests by the same 5-3 score they used in setting down the Braves Saturday night.

In the other Saturday games, Wenatchee split a pair with Spokane, winning 17-9, losing 1-7; and Eugene edged Yakima, 4-3.

Suggs Triangle Tourney Winner

Grossinger, N. Y. —(U.P.)— Little Louise Suggs, whose dynamic finish earned her a $1,500 check for first place in the Triangle Round-Robin women's golf tournament, now rates as the hottest player in women's golf.

Miss Suggs of Atlanta, Ga., victor in the Los Angeles, Oklahoma City, and Eastern opens this season before her triumph here Saturday, took the top prize in the Triangle with a score of plus 44 points under the unique system of scoring.

That gave her a one-point triumph over rapidly-improving Marlene Bauer of Sarasota, Fla., who had 43 points, while Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., was right behind with 42.

The system of scoring called for the 16 entrants to split up each day into four different foursomes until each player had met every other at least once.

Medford	250	250	.500

Drain's solidly knit Black Sox took over second place alone and shoved the Cheney Studs into sixth position in the circuit with 13 to 5 and 4 to 3 verdicts over the Medford aggregation in week end Southern Oregon League baseball games at Drain.

Medford had been knotted for second in the loop.

Coquille split a doublebill with Bandon but kept its league leadership. Bandon won the Saturday tussle 4 to 0 but the Loggers came back on Sunday 7 to 5.

The other league series also produced a split with Grants Pass nipping Bend 4 to 3 on Saturday but Bend outslugged the Elks 17 to 3 on Sunday.

In Drain's Saturday night 13 to 5 decision the Black Sox broke up a tie ball game with five runs in the seventh inning and added four more counters in the eighth. Four singles, a walk and a three-base miscue hurt the Studs in the seventh. A two-bagger by Bob Buob and four singles aided Drain in the eighth.

The teams were deadlocked at 4-all after six innings.

Dick Weaver's winning pitching performance was done in five. He gave that many hits and walks and strikeouts also totaled five.

Derald Wooten hit three for four for Medford. He had a double and triple and drove in four of the runs. Don Porter had a four for five night and Bill Beard got two for two for Drain.

Sunday's game was on a more even keel with both pitchers working well. The Studs' two errors, however proved damaging. Jerry Cade held Medford to five bingles again. He whiffed 13 batters and walked four. Terry Maddox gave up seven hits, walked three men and struck out three.

Maddox Paces

Maddox with two hits in four tries paced Medford at bat. His single followed two walks and a fielder's option for a Medford run in the first inning. Clarence Melbye singled and Maddox doubled off the centerfield wall 376 feet from the plate in the third inning for a score. Singles by Jack Cooney and Bill McLean and an error helped the Studs to a marker in the ninth. Drain got a run in the first inning on a walk, error and Beard's one - baser. Another scored in the fourth on Beard's single and Ad Rutschman's single. Safeties by Beard and Porter and an error put across a run in the sixth frame. Buob walked and stole second in the seventh and Glenn Stetter singled him home.

The Studs will be seen next in non-league action at the fairgrounds here. They play Mt. Shasta, Calif., on Wednesday night.

Bobo Olson Eager For Moore Fight

Asbury Park, N.J. —(U.P.)— Bobo Olson, usually poker-faced, displayed the eagerness of a kid anticipating a Davy Crockett cap today as he awaited Wednesday night's fight with Archie Moore.

With his training chores finished, the confidently smiling middleweight champion declared "I wish the fight was tonight. I feel marvelous—stronger and faster than ever."

His mood belied the odds that made 38-year-old Moore the favorite at 8½ to 5 to keep his light heavyweight crown at the Polo grounds. Bobo was a very happy underdog—almost jubilant.

Portland —(U.P.)— Next big event on the golf trail is the Western Open scheduled for Thursday through Sunday of this week at the Portland Golf Club here.

Ben Hogan, who lost in a playoff with Jack Fleck for the National Open crown yesterday, and Lloyd Mangrum, defending Western Open champ, are not entered in the Portland meet. But most of the rest of the nation's top golfers, including Fleck, are entered.

The field includes about 160 golfers.

Enough Refrigeration for 109,000 homes

helps make Oregon's own fine beer your better buy!

In Portland's big Blitz brewery, as in any housewife's kitchen, refrigeration facilities are mighty important.

Take the natural process of fermentation, for example, which happens after near-boiling mash extract is rapidly cooled to precisely 48°F. Or the aging and finishing of Blitz beer in spotless, freezing-cold cellars filled with glass-lined steel tanks, each big enough to hold more than 18,000 gallons.

And, like the "vegetable crisper" in a modern refrigerator, Blitz Weinhard's hop storage room is cooled and humidified to the exact point known to be best for holding the delicate flavors of choicest hops.

It's Dr. Max Zimmermann, Blitz brewmaster and world-renowned beer-making authority, who watches over the temperature in all parts of the brewery. He knows that carefully-controlled refrigeration is one of many factors behind the light, clean beer taste you prefer.

Here's another reason why, for beer that always tastes best ... to you and your guests ... Better Buy Blitz!
