

Competition Winners In Annual Catfish Derby Here Listed

Fishing competition at the 19th annual National Catfish Derby conducted yesterday at TouVelle state park was won by Jules Padois, Jacksonville, who was awarded the grand champion sweepstakes award. He caught his fish at Willow springs.

Other fishing awards reported by the sponsoring 20-30 club included, largest catfish, two pounds caught at Hiatt lake, William Edwards; smallest catfish, Max Burton; youngest catfisher, Craig Flury, 3, and Debbie Clemans, 6; largest number, Jay Walker, 100 fish, and Gary Kenney, also 100.

Oldest Man

A Mr. Hostetter, 89, was listed as winner of the oldest registered voter contest, and also the oldest person in attendance. Race winners included Ronnie Greb, Eagle Point, and Bob Wright, Medford, three-legged race; Dennis Pfaff, Central Point, sack race; Buckie Sullivan, Mike Neathamer and Jimmy Norlander, spoon and egg race.

Mrs. Nellie Wall, Medford, won the oldest-car contest, with a 1928 Chevrolet. W. M. Tucker attended with a 1901 Sears, but did not have an Oregon registration card, as they are not issued for old-timers, but he was given a place in the competition.

Donkey Eliminated

Mike McDonald, 4 weeks old, was the youngest person present, and won that prize. Club members report that a two-day old donkey attempted to enter the contest, but the rules forbade a non-human contestant.

Wanger Gives NPPA 'Inside Story' on U.S. Penal System

St. Paul, Minn. — (U.P.) — Movie producer Walter Wanger, who served a jail sentence for shooting a friend of his actress wife, said last night that the United States penal system is a "jungle of human disgrace."

Wanger, speaking to the National Probation and Parole association convention, said "I must admit that I earned my invitation to be here to address you the hard way."

Drawing on his own jail experiences, the silver-haired producer said "From the moment of arrest, the citizen who is apprehended is abused and degraded."

Without Rights

"Everything possible is done to automatically convince him that, through the magic of the law, he is no longer a man with rights, but a law-breaker, con-man, fraud, bum and he'd better keep his place if he knows what is good for him," he said.

Wanger urged big businesses to help solve the country's penal problem.

The producer served three months and nine days in jail in 1952. He had shot actors agent Jennings Lang in the groin as Lang sat and chatted in a parked car with Wanger's wife, actress Joan Bennett.

GETS LATE START

Pasadena, Calif. — (U.P.) — Mrs. Phoebe F. Deming, who last week was awarded an associate of arts certificate at Pasadena City College, said Sunday she plans to be one of the first students to enroll at the new Los Angeles State College in Alhambra. Mrs. Deming is 74.

42 Persons Hurt in Elevated Train Crash

New York — (U.P.) — Two elevated trains crashed head-on near the Coney Island terminal Sunday and 42 persons were injured, three seriously.

Authorities said the accident probably would have taken a much greater toll of injured had it occurred a few hours later when the trains would have been jammed with beach-bound New Yorkers. As it was 42 of the 44 persons aboard the two trains were hurt.

Transit authorities blamed "human failure" for the accident which they said occurred when the motorman of one train ran through a red stop signal and rammed the other train in head-on. It was the second crash of subway trains in New York in less than a month.
