Rainiers Nudge Portland 4-3 To Gain Share of Lead in PCL

By NORM RITTER
United Press Sports Writer

The rampaging Seattle Rainiers, early season Pacific Coast League leaders, had a 10-game winning streak today and 50 per cent ownership of the top rung of the league ladder that slipped from their grasp last May 16.

The Rainiers vaulted into a tie for the league lead last night when they edged Portland, 4-3, for their 10th straight while last place Sacramento was upending pace-setting San Diego, 5-3.

Jim Walsh held the Los Angeles Angels to a scant four hits as the lowly San Francisco Seals snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 5-2 victory.

Another nifty mound display, this one a five-hitter by Hollywood's Bob Garber, helped the Stars to a 3-0 win over the Oakland A's.

Scored Fast

The Rainiers opened up fast by scoring all their four runs in the first inning. The big poke of the frame was Art Schultz's sixth home run of the year with Gene Verble and Bill Glynn aboard. Bobby Balcona singled the stole second and was doubled home by Joe Ginsberg for the run that was to become the clincher.

The Beavers struggled to catch up with a run in each of the second, third and fourth innings. But Suds hurler Van Fletcher, who had relieved starter John Oldham in the fifth, wouldn't allow any more.

The Padres, who have grimly watched a six-game lead vanish in the last fortnight, were limited to four hits by the Solons' mound stiff. Ed Cereghino replaced starter Chet Johnson in the fifth and pitched hitless ball for the Sacs the rest of the way.

Bright Homers

Sacramento tallied three times in the first two innings. Harry Bright walloped his second homer of the year in the third to give the Solons a temporary four-run advantage. Al Heist squeezed home Tommy Glaviano in the seventh for the "cushion" fifth run after the Padres had pushed over a total of three in the fourth and fifth.

The Stars clouted Oakland starter Skinny Brown in the first

'Scrambles' Race Slated By Cyclists
Rogue River Ramblers will hold a "scrambles" race Sunday, June 26 at the sheriff's posse track here. Official sanction has been received from the American Motorcycle association.

Pits for the riders will be open at 11 a.m. and practice will be permitted during the noon hour. Main time trials and first qualifying races will begin at 1:30 p.m.

A figure "B" will be added to the back stretch to cut down speed on corners where there is no cushion for the two-wheeled vehicles to slide upon.

Popular
The scrambles race has become popular on a majority of cycle tracks during the past year. Road riders have been encouraged to get into this type of competition. Riders through the scrambles event have a chance to see whether they are capable of entering the field on the larger race circuits. These hold competition at least twice a week.

Considerable excitement is predicted for spectators with a number of spills foreseen along with some broadsliding on the straight-away. The event calls for all kinds of riding.

CAMPY BRUISED
Chicago — (U.P.) — Catcher Roy Campanella was expected to be in his customary place with the plate when the Brooklyn Dodgers play the Chicago Cubs today in the second game of their three-game series. Campanella suffered a slight bruise on his left knee in the 11th inning of Brooklyn's 7-2 victory and was removed for a pinch runner.

Singles Help In NW Loop

By UNITED PRESS
Homers are dandy but sometimes a manager would settle for a plain old fashioned single.

Two Northwest League teams took victories last night with singles doing the trick as Salem blanked Spokane 8-0 and Tri-City edged Yakima 8-7. Eugene topped Wenatchee 9-6 in the third game.

At Kennewick, it was a ninth-inning single following a shower of homers that gave the Braves their victory. Frank Strazzullo singled home Stan Arthur with the winning run in the ninth. Seven homers were hit in the
