WALL STREET
New York—(U.P.)—Stocks rose to new bull market highs in an active session today.
Rails sparked the rise after lagging behind industrials for some time. The rail average hit a new top since Oct. 26, 1929. Industrials reached a new historic top.
Gains in the rails ranged to 3 points. Steels were strong in the industrial department. Autos were in demand. A long list of other stocks moved higher.
Automobile stocks stood out in the industrial department with the leaders rising more than a point. General Motors made a new high on its half billion dollar expansion program. Steels joined the rise. Several oils set new tops. Chemicals, metals, machine tools and airlines joined the advance.
Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 447.37 up 0.57; 20 railroads 163.26 up 2.74; 15 utilities 64.44 off 0.08; and 65 stocks 164.80, up 0.91.
Sales today were about 3,010,000 shares compared with 2,720,000 shares yesterday.
