Grange

Upper Rogue Grange

Upper Rogue Grange met in regular session Thursday, June 16, with Master Herb Carlton presiding. Brother and Sister Barber and Sister Carlton all reported on the sessions they attended at State Grange in Klamath Falls. Master Carlton reported on the fire insurance meeting he attended while at State Grange.

The following members helped put one-half of the new roof on the hall: Ray Gillispie, Vic Chapman, Harry Harding, Ronald Axtell and son Monty, Bill Miller, Carl Richardson and Herb Carlton. Ladies furnished a hot meal at noon. Sister Axtell had a wonderful display of roses and talked briefly on same. Brother and Sister Richardson and Brother and Sister Ditsworth served strawberries, ice cream and cake after the meeting.

Youngs Leave

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Young, formerly of Medford and now of Calistoga, Calif., left for their home yesterday after visiting friends and relatives here. The Youngs, who lived on Stewart avenue until December, spent the past month visiting in various cities in Oregon.

Delegate Returns

Gold Hill—Miss Nadra Moore, Gold Hill, recently returned from Girls' State held at Willamette university in Salem, June 13-19.

Miss Moore, who attends Crater High school, served as a delegate to her party caucus, as a city auditor, and then as a representative in the House of Representatives.

The county report of activities, which included her report, won second place for neatness and content.

The final event of the week was a candlelight ceremony held in the rotunda of the Capitol.

Gasoline Truck Driver Killed in Accident

Vancouver, Wash.—(U.P.)—A Portland gasoline truck driver was crushed to death yesterday afternoon when his truck jackknifed and overturned east of here.

Howard W. Work, 35, was traveling about 35 miles an hour on Ellsworth road when his brakes apparently failed near the intersection of the road with the new Evergreen highway.

An eyewitness said the truck rolled over twice, throwing the driver out and crushing him beneath the cab.
