4-Minute Mile Figured Unlikely In AAU Contest

Boulder, Colo. — (U.P.)—Wes Santee, the Ashland antelope, and Fred Dwyer renewed their duel of endurance today, but neither hoped to approach the four-minute mile.

The mile was rated the best opening day event in the National AAU track and field meet at the University of Colorado.

The 5,350-foot altitude of Folsom field was figured to prevent any records in distances from the mile and beyond because the normal barometric pressure is 24.60, compared to 29.92 at sea level. That means nearly 20 per cent less oxygen in each breath a runner takes here.

Santee, who held the AAU championship for two years before Dwyer won a year ago, holds the Folsom field record for the mile—4:13. He said that the four-minute mile was "out of the question up here," so he just planned to "run to win."

He'll not only have to beat Dwyer, but Billy Tidwell, a fellow Kansan; UCLA's Bob Seaman, Bill Dellinger, 1954 NCAA champion from Oregon.

Camp White Picked Over Butte Falls

ROGUE VALLEY LEAGUE STANDINGS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Camp White	3	0	1.000
Glendale	3	1	.750
Grants Pass	1	2	.333
Eagle Point	1	2	.333
Ashland	1	2	.333
Butte Falls	1	2	.333

Camp White is favored to hang on to its unbeaten status Sunday in Rogue Valley Baseball league campaigning.

The Whittiers, with a record of three league triumphs, will play Butte Falls, current tail end club in the circuit. The game reportedly will be at Prospect since the Butte Falls field is not ready.

Glendale, struggling to hold on to second position and possibly bounce back into the lead, may run into trouble with Eagle Point. The Eagles, home team this week, gave Camp White the jitters before succumbing last week. Camp White's margin over EP was 15 to 12 and the Sunday previous the Whittiers got by Glendale 7 to 4.

Ashland and Grants Pass collide in the other RVL Sunday fust.

Martinez Faces Varona Tonight

Syracuse, N.Y. — (U.P.)—Vince Martinez of Patterson, N.J., the welterweight contender who claimed he was "grounded" by the International Boxing guild, finally gets a fight tonight with Cuban Chico Varona in War Memorial auditorium.

Although it will be Martinez' first bout of the year, he is favored at 3-1 to beat the Cuban slugger in their nationally televised and broadcast 10-round.

Tonight's scrap will be the last regularly scheduled Friday night television fight of the season.

CUBS FARM PLAYERS

Chicago — (U.P.)—Jim Woolard, 22-year-old third baseman from Cushing, Okla., and Bob Cooke, 19-year-old catcher from Reidsville, N.C., were signed today by the Chicago Cubs and assigned to farm clubs. Woolard went to Twin Falls of the Pioneer league and Cooke to Paris of the Mississippi-Ohio Valley league.

Portland Helps Pads Strengthen PCL Lead

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer

The Portland Beavers were San Diego's favorite ball club today after the Bevs knocked over the threatening Seattle Rainiers and gave the Padres some breathing space in the Pacific Coast league pennant race.

San Diego took care of Sacramento 11-3 with a home run barrage and the Beavers let them increase their lead to a game and a half by rallying to down Seattle 3-2.

Oakland outlasted Hollywood 6-5 and San Francisco beat Los Angeles 4-2 in battles affecting the mid-section of the standings.

Bill Werle held the hard-hitting Rainiers to six hits last night, but it looked as if that would not be enough. The Suds had a 2-1 lead going into the bottom of the ninth but the Beavers ran through three Seattle pitchers and scored the needed two runs for victory. Dick Whitman's single brought home the winning run.

Bill Kennedy, second Seattle pitcher, got the loss.

Four Homers
Meanwhile San Diego bombed Sacramento with four home runs, one a grand slammer to win with ease for John Carmichael.

The Pads scored five runs in the first inning to sew up the contest. Dick Sisler hit two of the home run blows including the bases-loaded smack. Ed Bailey and John Merson hit the other round trip blasts.

Harry Bright homered for two of the Solon runs.
