

Legion Team Will Travel To Lakeview

Central Point-Medford American Legion junior baseball squad should be at full strength this Sunday as it tries to continue its unblemished march in District 4 rivalry.

The CP-Medford aggregation travels to Lakeview for an afternoon twinbill and is heavily favored to extend its district record to eight victories.

Manager Alva Perkins said the local Legion squad anticipates the return of Paul Eckel and Lyman Stubbs from National Guard camp. Eckel is a heavy hitting outfielder from Medford high and Stubbs is a third sacker from Crater high.

Possible Line-Up
Duane Sides and Fred Herrman are likely starters in the pitching department again this week although Henry Putney might have the call for one of the games. Laval Meunier probably will handle the catching. The infield may be picked from among Dick McLaughlin, Larry Perkins, Dick Paup, Gordon Owsley, Jim Putney and Stubbs and the outfield from among Ed Reinking, Dennis King, Eldon Francis, Eckel and Ron Pruitt.

Central Point-Medford laced inexperienced Lakeview 11 to 0 and 8 to 2 in the earlier session.

Ashland goes to Klamath Falls Sunday for the other district doubleheader.

Oral Argument Heard in Probe Of Johnson Bout

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission heard oral arguments from six respondents today before moving toward a decision in its investigation of Harold Johnson's "blackout" bout with Julio Mederos of Cuba, May 6.

New interest was focused on the investigation after Rep. Thomas J. Lane (D-Mass.) called on Congress last Wednesday for a probe to determine whether professional boxing is a sport or a racket. Lane said the "most recent tipoff" on the blight of boxing came when Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania suspended the sport for 90 days "following the strange circumstances surrounding the Johnson-Mederos contest."

Perjury Charged
Attorneys for the respondents were to direct their oratory to Commission Chairman James H. Crowley and Commissioners Alfred Klein and Paul Sullivan, who conducted a probe which closed June 7 and already has resulted in the arrest of matchmaker Pete Moran on perjury charges.

The respondents, including Moran, Johnson and Johnson's manager of record, Tommy Loughrey, are accused of participating in a "sham or collusive" bout and "conduct detrimental to boxing."

The three, along with Johnson's handlers, Clarence Davidson, Joe Rowland and Lou Gross, are charged with knowing Johnson was not in condition to fight but permitted him to enter the ring against the hard-punching Mederos.

Park Director Announces Date Of Swim Classes

First series of swimming lessons this summer at the city of Medford's Hawthorne park pool will be conducted July 5 to 15, Park Director D. F. Huson has reported.

Registration for the classes is scheduled at the pool from 2 to 8 p.m. beginning the week of June 27. Fee is $2.00 and children must be eight years of age or over.

Thirty-minute classes for beginners will be conducted from 9:30 to 11 a.m. daily except Sunday. Sessions for intermediate swimmers will be held from 9 to 9:30 a.m.

Phil Sanders and John Smock, Hawthorne pool lifeguards, will be instructors. Red Cross certificates will be issued for successful completion of the course.

Second series of lessons will start July 18. Registration dates will be announced.

Title Fight Talk To Be Resumed

New York — (U.P.) — Negotiations for the proposed Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title fight will be resumed next Thursday at a New York conference.

Promoter Jim Norris, who flew to Miami Thursday, will return and confer next week with Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Marciano, and Charley Johnston, pilot of light heavyweight champion Moore.

Although Los Angeles is bidding for the September fight, it's nearly certain that New York or Chicago will be the site. Norris originally had hoped to stage it at a New York ball park on Sept. 22, but Weill told reporters, "The site is a big issue in the negotiations."

FETCHIK TOPS WESTERN OPEN GOLF 1ST ROUND; RVCC LINKSMEN TRAIL

Al Williams, professional at Rogue Valley Country club, was six strokes off the pace, and George Harrington, manager of RVCC, was eight behind the leader after yesterday's first round in the Western Open tournament at Portland Golf club. Williams had a 75 and Harrington a 77.

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — Mike Fetchik of Mahopac, N.Y., a relative unknown who carded a scintillating four under par 31 on the opening nine, led the pack today as 175 hopefuls entered the second round of the Western Open. Fetchik surged into a one-stroke lead at dusk Thursday with a 31-37—68 when freak penalties hampered two of his closest competitors, Smiley Quick of Los Angeles, Calif., and Julius Boros of the Pines, N.C.

Meanwhile, pre-tournament favorites Sam Snead and Tommy Bolt were far back of the pacemakers with 73 and 74 respectively.

Altogether six competitors, including Dr. Cary Middlecoff, were tied at 69, as more than 20 golfers broke the ar 72 Portland course in the $15,000 tournament.

Quick fired a 68 but suffered a two-stroke penalty when an extra club was found in his bag.

Quick did not discover the strange sand iron until the 12th hole when he immediately turned it in to tournament officials. He was not disqualified.

Budge Patty Clips Flam

Wimbledon, England — (U.P.) — Budge Patty of Los Angeles, the tennis playboy who spends most of his time in Europe, reached the quarterfinals of the Wimbledon Tournament today by defeating Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-1, 6-3, 4-6, 1-6, 6-4, in an all-American match.

Sven Davidson of Sweden was pitted against Luis Ayala of Chile in the only other men's singles match on today's program, while four other Americans still in the running for the title drew one-day respites.

Whips Wilson
In Thursday's third round action, Flam looked impressive in routing Freddie Huber of Austria, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2, while Patty whipped Bobby Wilson of England, 6-4, 7-9, 6-4, 6-1. They were joined in the round of 16 by top-seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., Gil Shea of Pesidio, Calif., and Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

Trabert, still the tournament favorite despite a sore hand, breezed past lanky Hugh Stewart of San Marino, Calif., 6-4, 6-3, 6-1. Larsen eliminated Owen Williams of South Africa, 6-2, 10-8, 6-2; Shea outlasted Adrian Quist of Australia, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5, 6-3; and Perry turned back Stefan Stockenberg of Sweden, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

Clustered at 69 were Robert McKendrick of Lake Grove, Ore.; Gene Littler, Palm Springs, Calif.; Paul O'Leary, Bismarck, N. D.; Mike Souchak, Durham, N. C.; Ralph Blomquist, Glendale, Calif.; and Middlecoff.

GOOD FORM, ANYWAY — Italian tennis star Lea Pericoli, whose brief tennis attire has been what the British press calls "the centre of not a little controversy," slams one back across the net to Josephine de Riba of Spain during first round of All-England Lawn Tennis championships at Wimbledon, England. Lea's form was good but she lost, 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

Mickey Wright Surprise Leader

Madison, Wis. — (U.P.) — Mickey Wright, a former National Amateur champion playing her first season as a pro, was the surprise leader today as a field of 68 players took off for the second round of the 26th annual Women's Western open golf tournament.

Miss Wright, a 21-year old from La Jolla, Calif., who doesn't rank among the 10 leading money winners in women's golf this year, defied a rainstorm for seven holes to knock one stroke off par with a 72 and first place in the first 18 holes of the annual event.

Trailing by only one stroke going into the last round of the 36 hole qualification test were veteran Patty Berg, Chicago, second in earnings this year, and Wiffi Smith, an amateur, once from Guadalajara, Mexico and now playing from St. Clair, Mich.

New London, Conn. — (U.P.) — Massachusetts Institute of Technology scored its ninth victory in the 19-year history of the Intercollegiate Dinghy Regatta on Thursday when it nosed out Navy, 217-210, on the Thames river. Following were Princeton, 202; UCLA, 178; Coast Guard academy, 176; Ohio Wesleyan, 169; Cincinnati, 138, and San Diego, 119.

Quillian Rated Player To Beat

Chapel Hill, N.C. — (U.P.) — Bill Quillian of the University of Washington loomed as the player to beat today as four seeded players moved into the singles semi-finals of the annual NCAA tennis championships.

Only two of the four seeded teams remained in contention in the doubles after a quarter-final round which saw the top two teams upset.

The fifth-seeded Quillian, who upset top-seeded Sammy Giammalva of Texas in Thursday's quarterfinals, met eighth-seeded Pancho Contreras of southern California in one of today's matches, while third-seeded Jacque Grigry of California met seventh-seeded Jose Agüero of Tulane.

Doubles pairings sent third-seeded Contreras and Joaquin Reyes against Mark Jaffe and Barry MacKay of Michigan and the fourth-seeded team of Giammalva and Johnny Hernandez against James Read and Craig Garman of UCLA.
