

Ike's U.N. Speech at San Francisco Rated Best News of Week

By CHARLES E. McCANN
United Press Correspondent
The week's good and bad news on the international balance sheet:

The Good

1. President Eisenhower reafirmed the "unswerving loyalty" and "tireless support" of the United States to the ideals on which the United Nations was founded. Addressing the 10th anniversary meeting of the U.N.

in San Francisco, the President asked that the second 10 years of the world organization be dedicated to a search for a new kind of peace—one in which "all the world will think anew and act anew." The basis for success in the approaching Big Four conference of heads of government, he said, "is that every individual at that meeting be loyal to the spirit of the U.N. and dedicated to the principles of its charter."

2. The foreign ministers of the United States, Great Britain and France presented to Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M.

Molotov, also in San Francisco, their ideas on the way the Big Four conference should be conducted. The main purpose of the meeting, they said, should be to create an atmosphere which might help to reduce world tensions rather than aim at specific agreements. The meeting opens in Geneva, Switzerland,

July 18.

3. Officials of the steelworkers union called a series of mass meetings in an attempt to induce British dock workers to end a five-week strike. The strike had been even more costly than the recently-ended British railroad strike. At the same time, the luxury liner Queen Elizabeth sailed for New York with a full crew and it was hoped that a seamen's strike which kept seven other Cunard liners in port at the height of the American tour season might be ended.

The Bad

1. Pro-American, anti-Communist Premier Mario Scelba of Italy was thrown out of office by enemies in his own Christian Democratic Party. In Italy, as in France, there are numerous political parties. The Christian

Democrats, lacking a majority in the Chamber of Deputies must depend upon the support of other parties to stay in office.

Dispatches from Rome said that as the result of Scelba's downfall, Italy might be faced by a series of cabinet crises until elections are held next year.

2. "Neutralist" Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India ended a 15-day visit to the Soviet Union by making a joint declaration with Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin which closely coupled Indian and Russian political views. Nehru and Bulganin expressed the "earnest hope" that "it will be possible by peaceful means to satisfy the legitimate rights" of Red China to Formosa. This would mean surrendering Formosa to the Reds.

3. Soviet Foreign Minister

Molotov, speaking at the U.N. anniversary meeting in San Francisco, was sharply critical of the United States and its allies. The meeting was supposed to be strictly non-controversial.

Molotov's tone did not raise hopes for the success of the Big Four conference. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, annoyed by the speech, made it known that he would reply to it today.

Seed Certifiers Slate Visit Here

Seed certification specialists from Oregon State college will make field inspections in Jackson county June 29 and 30, according to Earle Jossy, county extension agent.

Seed growers must file applications for certification in the county agent's office before these dates to obtain inspection of their crops.

All seed crops to be certified in 1955 must be inspected this year, Jossy stated. Fields which have grown certified seed in the past but which will be harvested for hay this year require no inspection, but will be eligible for certification in future years if the owner so desires.

Jossy warned that noxious weeds, varieties other than the one being certified, and the presence of smut in grain are some of the conditions upon which an inspector will reject a field.

IT IS HEREBY APPROVED AND ORDERED that the necessary arrangements shall be made for the said election, and that the County Clerk be directed, and she is hereby directed, to make the said arrangements for the election and that she shall, further, certify the appointment of three judges for the election, who are to be elected by the district sought to be incorporated, and further,

IT IS CONSIDERED AND ORDERED that a copy of this order shall be posted for four (4) successive weeks, prior to the election, in three public places within the district proposed to be incorporated, and also that this order shall be published once a week, for four (4) successive weeks, prior to the said election, in the Medford Mail Tribune and that said posting and publication shall be sufficient notice to the electors, of said election.

Dated this 31st day of May, 1955.

Oregon Prep Students Meet Pinay at San Francisco UN

Portland—(U.P.)—Two Oregon high school students were back from San Francisco today excitedly telling friends about their visit to the United Nations meeting and an interview with French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay.

The boys Andre Pasternack of Toulouze, France, a student at Hood River high last winter, and Guy Deluz of Neuchatel, Switzerland, who attended Lake Oswego high. They were brought here under sponsorship of the American Field Service.

Saw Ike, Dulles
Deluz said they were in San Francisco Sunday night and saw President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles go into the St. Francis hotel.

"We said why not try to see Mr. Pinay," Deluz said. They learned he was at the Mark Hopkins and joined the crowd in the lobby. When Pinay came out, he said, a French newspaperman stepped up and spoke to him "and we just stepped up, too." Deluz said they told him about the American Field Service, the agency which arranges exchange of European and U.S. high school students.

Journalists Amazed
"It was most amazing and I think the most amazing were the two French journalists standing there."

The next day they got choice seats to the U.N. meeting. "We were five rows in front of the two French journalists we had talked with the night before," Deluz said.

They also managed to come back with Dulles' autograph and were close enough to V. M. Molotov to snap a picture "but we didn't have any film in our camera."

Work Progressing on Removal of Sharp Rise

Excavation work now under way on East Main st. is designed to remove a dangerous sharp rise of ground on both sides of the street, according to Vernon Thorpe, director of public works.

The excavation, between Modoc st. and White Oak dr., was authorized June 7 by the city council. When completed, the job will provide a better line of vision for drivers, Thorpe said. The work will cut approximately two feet of dirt from the surrounding area. It will be used to fill in parts of the road to a depth of from 1 to 2 1/2 feet in some places.

During the excavation, the city water department replaced a water main of nine-inch cast iron that had been installed during the 1920's, according to Robert Duff, city manager.

The firm, which is expected to expand into a quarter-million dollar business, covers about 5,760 square feet with a metal building supported by heavy timber.

Jeddloh brothers formerly operated two saw mills and a planing mill in Gall's creek. An announcement issued on the fifth anniversary of the Communist attack on South Korea said the 39th and 50th Reserve divisions will be activated in ceremonies at the east coast headquarters of I Corps.

Government News Suppression Due For House Probe

Washington—(U.P.)—Rep. John E. Moss Jr., (D-Calif.), today launched a congressional inquiry into suppression of government news. He acted on the firm conviction that people are entitled to know what their government does.

National security, the young House member and former real estate broker believes, is the only grounds on which a decision properly can be made to withhold information about the government. And that test, he says, must be applied with restraint.

Increasing Concern

Moss is afraid that not everybody in government agreed with him. He said there is "increasing concern" about some government information policies. One that worries him is Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's curb on military news that is not "constructive."

Wilson has said this is not intended as a "cover-up." He said he would consider news of something wrong in the Pentagon, for instance, as constructive. But Moss said it would be too easy for government officials to confuse the terms "conservative" and "favorable."
