News About Servicemen

NEW PROGRAM

The Navy has inaugurated a special enlistment program for junior college graduates, it was announced today by E. D. Houdesheldt, local Navy recruiter. Junior college graduates applying for enlistment in the Navy will be guaranteed the opportunity of attending one of the Navy's top technical training schools. Selection of the particular school for each enlistee will be determined by testing, counseling, interviewing and the individual's preference coupled with his academic training.

All Navy recruiting stations are authorized to accept applications under this new program.

ENLIST

Two Jackson county men enlisted June 22 for the Navy High school training program available to all high school graduates. E. D. Houdesheldt, Navy recruiter, reported today. They are Stanley Kalapus Jr., 2156 Hillcrest rd., Medford, and Donald Lee Myers, Box 216, Shady Cove. They went by plane to San Diego to begin their training.

Obituaries

FRANKLIN FAWCETT
Services for Franklin P. Fawcett, 75, of 205 Tripp st., who died Thursday morning, will be held in Conger-Morris chapel Saturday at 10 a.m. with the Rev. William C. Piper, of the First Christian church, officiating. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

The deceased was born July 13, 1879, in Trinity county, Calif., the son of the late James and Joanne Fawcett. For several years he carried the mails in Humboldt county, Calif., and at the age of 21 he moved to southern Oregon, living in the Applegate area for several years. In 1901 he moved to Crescent City, Calif., where on May 3, 1911, he was married to Cora M. Morrison, who survives. He was employed as a blacksmith from 1914 until 1918 by the old Brookings Co., of Brookings, Ore. Later he returned to southern Oregon, working for the Medford Corporation from 1935 to 1940. In 1940 he moved to Valsezt, Ore., where he was employed by the Valsezt Lumber Co. until 1953, when he retired.

Other survivors include two sons, Frank W., Medford, and Mervyn J., Valsezt, Ore.; two sisters, Mrs. Dora Coy, Grants Pass, Ore., and Mrs. Nellie Foote, Salem, Ore., and five grandchildren.

French Round Up Algerian Rebels

Algiers, Algeria—(U.P.)—Algerian authorities today reported "thousands" of suspected nationalist rebels rounded up in the biggest security operation by the French since they conquered Algeria more than 100 years ago.

Land, sea and air forces participated in the countryside sweep against terrorist forces. At least eight suspected rebels were killed.

Youth, Five Brothers, Unhurt in Accident

A sedan driven by Orland Elton Calhoun, 16, Jacksonville, and having as passengers the driver's five brothers, overturned on Stewart ave. at about 8:35 p.m. yesterday, according to a state police report. There were no injuries listed.

Calhoun lost control of the car as it rounded a curve, the report said. Damage was confined to the left side and top of the car.

Korean 'Casanova' May Escape Charge

Seoul, Korea—(U.P.)—A South Korean "Casanova," who proudly admitted to charges of seducing 70 women, may escape trial because none of his alleged victims are willing to testify against him, police said today.

The man was arrested last month. The trial was originally scheduled for this week but has been postponed in view of the difficulty in finding a complainant.

Portland SP Chief Retires from Post

Portland—(U.P.)—Retirement of L. P. Hopkins, superintendent of Southern Pacific's Portland division for the past 11 years, was announced here today. He will be succeeded by L. R. Smith, a veteran of 30 years with the line and assistant superintendent since 1948.

Hopkins started his railroad career 48 years ago as a laborer in the San Francisco car repair shops.

During his years in Portland, Hopkins also served three terms as president of the Northern Pacific Terminal Co., the firm which operates the Portland rail terminal. He and Mrs. Hopkins plan a South American cruise as their first activities after his retirement.

Street Construction Projects To Start

Construction on street projects awarded at the last city council meeting will begin within two weeks, after contracts sent to the contractor are signed, according to Vernon Thorpe, city public works director.

The projects are on Hamilton st., between 13th st. and 106 feet south of 14th st.; Jackson st., between Lindley ave. and Berkeley Way; and Park ave. between Catherine st. and Stewart ave.

The streets will be 44 feet wide, according to the proposed street program prepared by state highway department last fall, Thorpe said.

Overcross Trial Jury Completed

Salem—(U.P.)—The nine women and three men chosen to serve on the jury in the murder trial of Casper A. Overcross were taken today to the Silverton area home where Ervin Kaser was shot to death Feb. 17.

The jury, with two alternates, was completed last night. While in the area south of Silverton, the jury visited the home of James Gilham where Overcross is reported to have visited on the night Kaser was killed. They also visited several other points in Silverton where Overcross was reported to have been seen.

Opening statements in the trial were to be made this afternoon. First witnesses are expected to be called tomorrow morning.
