

Records Broken In AAU; Reiser Takes Two Mile

Jack Morris, Medford, placed third and qualified in the first heat of the 220-yard low hurdles Saturday in the National AAU track and field meet at Boulder, Colo., according to United Press.

Morris was eliminated when he finished last in the second heat, the news service reported. No time for Morris was available for either the first or second heat.

Boulder, Colo. — (U.P.) — Arnie Sowell of Pittsburg, driven by a desire to vindicate his lazy failure in the NCAA championships last week, unofficially bettered the world record in the National AAU 880-yard finals Saturday by a full second.

Ken Reiser of the University of Oregon, running for the Eugene, Ore., Town club took the Gordien's best toss today was only 147 feet, six inches—20 feet shy of his world record and 13 inches less than O'Brien's winning throw.

Boulder, Colo. — (U.P.) — Jerry Church of Oregon State college had the best javelin toss of his athletic career Friday to qualify for the finals of the national AAU track and field championships here.

Church's toss went 236 feet 8 inches, to put him fifth among qualifiers for yesterday's finals. The Oregon State spearman was third in the event at the NCAA meet. Bill Dellinger of Oregon, who finished second in the NCAA mile, slowed down Friday for a seventh place in a lackadaisical race won by Wes Santee of Abilene, Kans., in 4:11.5.

Dellinger said he thought the altitude may have bothered him and his teammates.

Dean Benson of Willamette university, Salem, ran a 144 but failed to qualify for the 120-yard high hurdles. Ironically, he was edged by Jack Davis, former USC hurdler, who jumped the gun in the finals and was disqualified.

Terry Maddox Named As Starter Against Bend Loggers Today

Righthander Terry Maddox is scheduled to be on the mound for the Medford Cheney Studs baseball nine in Southern Oregon league rivalry with the Bend Loggers this afternoon. And, a pair of lefties, Jim Kelly and Marv Scherpf, likely will be in reserve if the University of Oregon star needs aid.

Play ball time this afternoon is set for 2 o'clock. However, there is a qualification. Should last night's series starter have been rained out, there was to be a doubleheader today with the opener at 1 p.m.

Studs' Manager Clarence Melby said yesterday he planned on Derald Wootton and Maddox as his series pitchers. Wootton was to get one call today if the series is crowded by the weather into a doublebill.

Arrival of infield reinforcement, Jack Fassett, veteran semi pro, will probably mean Melby will have an outfield berth today. Mel has played shortstop and second base this spring so far. The shortstop post has been taken over by Bob Selsor and Fassett will be at second. Elsewhere in the infield may be Ed McCullough at third base and Jack Cooney at short.

Line-up for today's series wind-up hasse will, of course, depend on how the combination works in the starter.

Chuck DeAutremont, an old favorite of southern Oregon fans, is ticketed for one outfield spot with choices among Melby, Bill McLean and Maddox or Wootton. Howard Morris is the catcher.

For pitchers, can pick from among Lowell Peace, Lynn Mohler, Frank West, Ken Ackerman, Jim Duff and Paul Gehrmann, the Logger manager, who was a Cheney Studs player for a number of years. Possible catchers will be chosen from among Phil Jantje, Twink Pederson, Tommy Bowen, Chuck Christensen and Maurie Rasmussen. Outfielders will be named from among Tom Hunt, Gene Stott, Curt Jantje and Jack Lutz.

Other league series this week are Bandon at Grants Pass and Drain at Roseburg. With Coquille idle, Drain went into the week end play with the hope of deadlocking with that club for the loop lead.

Thoroughbred Destroyed Following Mishap at Portland; Riders Hurt

Portland — (U.P.) — A thoroughbred horse was killed and four jockeys injured in a spectacular spill at Portland Meadows during Friday night's seventh race.

The injured jockeys were Bub Zollinger, Glen Dixon, Merle Armstrong and Gil Simmons. Zollinger was the most seriously hurt, with a possible broken nose, face lacerations and shock.

Submissive, Dixon's mount, broke its leg in the mishap. The horse was later destroyed. Zollinger's mount, Booney, was badly cut.

The mishap occurred as one of the horses fell at about the middle of the stretch. Three other mounts rammed into the fallen horse, tossing their jockeys to the ground.

The three riderless horses continued the race while an ambulance crew rushed to the fallen jockeys.

Boxer Injured In Auto Crash

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — California lightweight boxing champion Don Jordan, 21, suffered minor bruises early Saturday as his speeding car hurtled off a freeway ramp and crashed into an abutment. Three of his passengers also were hurt.

Police said Jordan suffered slight bruises on the right knee and right elbow. Jordan minimized any injuries. He said it would not interfere with plans to meet Jimmy Carter late in July.

Multnomah Club Wins AAU Meet

Portland — (U.P.) — Sixteen-year-old Terry Kelly led the Multnomah Athletic club's junior boys swimming team to a smashing victory Friday in the Oregon AAU age-group tank meet.

MAC swimmers piled up 200 points. Aero club was second with 140 points, and The Dalles finished third with 43 points. Other finishers were Portland's Columbia Athletic club, 32, and Northeast YMCA, 6.

Kelly won the 110-yard freestyle and butterfly races, and the 220-yard medley.

NEW CHICKS OWNERS

Memphis, Tenn. — (U.P.) — The Memphis Chicks, currently leading the Southern Association, will be placed under new ownership of a Memphis group headed by businessman Leo Burson next Monday. Frank Longinotti and Ed Barry announced Friday that they were resigning as the Chicks' headmen effective July 1. The Chicks are an affiliate of the Chicago White Sox.

Washington Studs Coming To Medford in Two Weeks

A baseball series which looms as the outstanding semi-pro attractions in the Rogue river valley this summer is only two week ends away.

This topnotch diamond bill-of-fare will bring together two clubs sponsored by the same lumber firm — the outstanding Washington Cheney Studs and the Medford Cheney Studs. Their encounters are set for Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, July 9 and 10, at the fairgrounds baseball park.

Both aggregations are Cheney Lumber company teams.

The youthful Washington Studs, whose main stamping grounds are the Seattle-Tacoma area, are the defending American Baseball congress north-west regional champions as well

Vince Martinez Decisions Varona

Syracuse, N. Y. — (U.P.) — Well-touted contender Vince Martinez, back in victorious action again after his alleged "grounding," said today, "I need two more bouts, then I'll be sharp enough for a shot at the title."

Martinez of Patterson, N. J., weighed 151½ pounds Friday night as he won a unanimous 10-round decision over 155-pound Chico Varona of Cuba before 1,800 in their TV-radio fight at War Memorial Auditorium.

Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio, who lives nearby, was at the ringside as 26-year-old Vince, third-ranking contender, retreated to victory and blasted Chico with long-range counters. He floored the aggressive, bobbing and weaving Cuban with a left-right to the head just before the bell ended the fourth round.

Varona tried to beat tender-bodded Vince with an attack to the mid-section. And it would have been close had not Chico lost the second and fifth rounds for low blows.

100 Sports Cars Entered in Race

Goldendale, Wash. — (U.P.) — Trials began Saturday for the only sport car races west of Colorado with 50 of the fast sleek cars already entered and between 75 and 100 expected by race time today.

The cars paraded through downtown Goldendale last night led by Ruth Ann Grady, a senior from Goldendale high school who was elected "queen of the hill" Friday.

The races, sponsored by the Yakima, Wash., sports car club, are held on the old Maryhill loops road just south of here. The course rises from 712 feet to 1700 feet with 26 hairpin turns along the way.

Previously, several northwest cars have traveled the course in a little more than two minutes averaging 58 miles per hour.

Hamlin Winner In Junior Scrap

Tom Hamlin, Nick Rasmussen and Pam Stacey won their divisions last week in the junior match golf competition at Rogue Valley Country club.

Hamlin defeated Jeep Town 6 and 5 in the boys division. In pee wee play Nick Rasmussen went four extra holes to tip Chris Rasmussen 1 up on the 13th green.

Miss Stacey took girls' laurels with a 4 and 2 decision over Diane Gilchrist.

Yankees Stretch Lead, 3-2; Newcombe Wins For Dodgers

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Jim Konstanty, the comeback kid of the year, turned in his second sparkling relief performance in less than 24 hours Saturday to gain credit for the New York Yankees' 3-2 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

Konstanty, who won Friday night's 2-1, 10-inning opener of a four-game series, limited the Indians to one hit in three innings yesterday to pick up his sixth triumph of the year without a loss. The six victories already give him the fourth highest single-season win total of his career.

The victory stretched the Yankees' lead over the third-place Indians to six games and left them two ahead of the second-place Chicago White Sox, who beat the Boston Red Sox, 8-3. The Detroit Tigers downed the Washington Senators, 4-0, and the Kansas City Athletics played a rain-halted, 10-inning, 3-3 tie with the Baltimore Orioles in other American league games.

Newcombe Wins 13th
In the National league, the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers beat the Milwaukee Braves, 5-3, as Don Newcombe won his 13th game. The Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-4. Philadelphia at Cincinnati was rained out.

Al Smith homered behind a walk to Bobby Avila to give the Indians a 2-0 lead in the sixth inning but the Yankees tied the score again in the bottom of the frame, when Gil McDougald singled and Yogi Berra homered. The Yankees scored the winning run off Art Houtteman in the next inning when Andy Carey doubled and pinch-hitter Bob Cerv singled.

Jim Busby, Sherman Lollar and Walt Dropo hit homers to feature an 11-hit White Sox attack that gave 35-year-old Rookie Dixie Howell his first major league win. Howell yielded only six hits and one run in 6 1-3 innings of relief hurling.

Gromek Hurls 4-Hitter
Steve Gromek tossed a four-hitter for his seventh consecutive victory as the Tigers dealt the Senators their eighth consecutive defeat. Earl Torgerson drove in two Detroit runs and every Tiger hit safely except Bill Tittle.

Doubles by Hal Smith and Hoot Evers in the ninth ended the Orioles to tie the Athletics in a game played in a steady rain and halted after 10 innings.

The contest was halted for 45 minutes in the first inning and the remainder of it was played under the arc lights.

Newcombe Batters .451
Newcombe became the first National league pitcher to beat every rival and also treated himself to three hits that raised his season's average to .451.

Brooklyn's Paul Bunyan needed help in the ninth inning, however, and got it from Karl Spooner, who got the last out. The loss was charged to Gene Conley, who yielded three runs in the fifth inning after being hit on the arm by a liner by why, Newcombe, of course.

Warren Hacker retired 20 of the last 22 Pirates to gain his eighth victory for the Cubs. Eddie Miksis, Dee Fondy and Walker Cooper drove in all Chicago's runs while Jerry Lynch homered for Pittsburgh.

Rookie Luis Arroyo won his ninth game of the season when the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the New York Giants, 5-3, in a night game. Home runs by Wally Moon, Red Schoendienst and Stan Musial accounted for all the Cardinals' runs while Arroyo scattered eight hits.

Oakland, Calif. — (U.P.) — Bob Garber pitched his second shutout of the week to give Hollywood a 2-0 victory over Oakland and clinch their Pacific Coast league series Saturday.

A crowd of 1,168 saw Garber weave three-hit magic against the A's and drop them into a sixth place tie with the San Francisco Seals.

Earlier in the week Garber blanked the Oaks on five hits, winning 3-0. Saturday's win gave the Stars a 4-1 series edge with tomorrow's doubleheader to play.

The Oaks got good pitching, holding the Stars to four hits as Bud Black went the first eight innings and Karl Drews finished up. One of the Hollywood runs was unearned.
