Portland Church Scene of Soderlund - Sparling Rites

From Portland comes news of the wedding of Miss Donna Kay Sparling of that city and Peter G. Soderlund, Medford, on June 19 at St. Michael's and All Angels' Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. Turney officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sparling of Portland and Moro, Ore., and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Marjorie Soderlund, 215 North Peach street. Mrs. Soderlund was in Portland to attend the wedding.

Mr. Soderlund and his bride will live at San Marcos, Tex., where he is assigned to duty with the United States Air Force as an airman.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace with train and a coronet held her finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Vivette Lee Sparling, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She and the bridesmaids wore pink pleated ballerina length gowns with bouffant skirts over crinoline, and deep pink sashes, pink caps and shoes. They carried nosegays of pink carnations, sweet peas and bouvardia. Bridesmaids and matron were Miss Ardyth Germeroth of Hillsboro, Miss Mary Ann Lubick, Portland; Miss Joy Fielder, Fortuna, Calif.; Miss Yvonne Carson, Junction City, and Mrs. W. B. Eshelman, San Pedro, Calif.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Loren Soderlund, Medford, and ushers were W. B. Eshelman, San Pedro, and Clifford Cain, Bruce Ryan, David Bourquin and Robert DeGroot, all Medford.

Junior attendants were Linda Christiansen and Stephen Norton. Mrs. Henry Norton, aunt of the bride, was soloist.

The reception was held in the Parish hall of the church, with more than 200 guests attending. Pouring and serving were Mesdames Fred Hennagin, A. B. Christiansen, Bon Christianson, Arthur Justesen, A. B. Damon and C. L. Powell.

Reception Is Held for Newlyweds

Ruch — Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDonough, Ruch, entertained Saturday, June 18 at a wedding reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. McBeth whose wedding was an event of June 11 at Reno, Nev. The bride is the former Miss Eugenia L. Merritt, daughter of Mrs. McDonough, and P. C. Merritt of Monterey Park, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McBeth, of Jacksonville.

The reception was held in the gardens at the McDonough home and about 100 persons attended. A buffet lunch and wedding cake and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonough accompanied the couple to Reno and were attendants for the double ring ceremony which was held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Methodist church.

The bride wore a white knit suit and pink accessories.

The couple made their wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and Sacramento, Calif.

The bride attended Jacksonville high school and the Medford Business college, and the bridegroom attended Central Point High school. He received his discharge last December after serving for four years in the Navy, mainly on the USS Helena.

The couple is living at Days Creek where the bridegroom is self-employed as a logger.

University Choir To Sing Monday At Zion Church

An unexpected opportunity for valley residents to attend a concert Monday, June 27, of the Chapel a cappella choir of Capital university of Columbus, O., has been made possible through an unscheduled appearance here of the group while on tour of the country, the Rev. G. H. Hillerman of the Zion Lutheran church, announced last week.

The group is made up of 40 voices, both university men and women, and the concert will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at the Zion Lutheran church at Fourth street and Oakdale avenue.

The public is invited. Members of several other Medford churches are housing the members of the choir in their unplanned visit and are co-operating otherwise in welcoming the organization to the city.

A critic for the Christian Science Monitor of Boston wrote of the singers, "Astonishing mastery of styles encompassing the music of many lands and peoples." The Chicago Tribune published, "That most excellent Chapel choir left nothing to be desired." A Boston Herald critic wrote, "Refreshing vigor, attacks and releases keen, fabric of sound, transparent."

UN Reporter To Visit City

Mrs. Ruth Gage-Colby, a correspondent with the United Nations, will visit Medford July 8 under the sponsorship of Medford chapter, United Nations association.

It is announced that Mrs. Gage-Colby will speak and meet informally with valley residents interested in United Nations. Announcement of the meeting place will be made soon.

Mrs. Gage-Colby formerly was an official of UNICEF, the United Nations agency dealing with the welfare of children.

The auxiliary to the Crater Lake post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet Tuesday, July 5, at 8 p.m., at the VFW hall, 42 North Front street.

Miss Joanne Lee Orton Becomes Bride Of Jack Davis Henry in Church Service

A ceremony at First Methodist church in Medford Sunday, June 12, at 5 o'clock wedded Miss Joanne Lee Orton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Orton of Walker, Minn., and Jack Davis Henry, son of Mrs. J. T. Welch, of Glide, and J. D. Henry, of Los Angeles. Dr. Raymond Balcomb performed the double-ring ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and cathedral candles.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon net fashioned waltz length and with a jacket of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was of illusion and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Orton, Monterey, Calif., was maid of honor for her sister and wore a waltz-length gown of copper colored sheer nylon and carried gold chrysanthemums.

Bill Anderson of Marcola, Ore., was best man and Britton Weaver and Kenneth Calhoun of Myrtle Creek were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Orton wore a two-piece green faille ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a champagne faille jacket dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed for the family and out-of-town guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Mitchell. The serving table was covered with a white linen, hand-embroidered antique cloth. Pink roses floated in a crystal bowl for the centerpiece.

The wedding cake was served by Miss Shirley Orton and Mrs. Darrell Maher, Corvallis, Ore., sisters of the bride. Mrs. Forrest Losee, of Idleyld Park, cousin of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. Elton Jackson, aunt of the bridegroom, served punch.

The bride was graduated from Benedi State Teachers college in Minnesota and has been teaching in Medford Junior High school. The bridegroom is attending Southern Oregon college at Ashland. He completed a four-year term in the Air Force, three of which were spent in Germany, and attended high school in Klamath Falls prior to entering the service.

The newlyweds will live in Medford.

In addition to the parents, others who came from a distance to attend the wedding were Miss Donna Henry, Glide, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Orton, George, Jean and Leroy of Waldport, Ore.; Darrell Maher, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Harrington, Eugene; Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Henry and Lee, Menlo Park, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, Shermalee and Gracie Lou, Klamath Falls; Forrest Losee, Idleyld, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Compton, David and Carolyn Jackson and Miss Mary Becken, all of Roseburg; Mrs. J. D. Henry and Edwin, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry and Edwin were guests while here of Mrs. Henry's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Casebeer, 1012 Winchester avenue. From here they went to Klamath Falls and Bly to visit relatives before returning home.

Combust-Joanis Rites Are Held In Reno Church

Among recent weddings was that of Mrs. Alice Joanis, Talent, to Russell Combust, Ashland, which took place June 6 in Reno, Nev. The Rev. John Thomas of First Methodist church in Reno performed the single-ring ceremony.

For the ceremony the bride wore a two-piece ensemble of toast brown and white with pink accessories and corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Combust are living at 585 Terrace street, Ashland. The bride is an invoice clerk for DeVoe Sales, Inc., Medford, and the bridegroom is engaged in the lumber business.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Myatt Wedded to Ronald Moreland

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Myatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Myatt, Corvallis, to Ronald John Moreland of Medford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moreland, 123 Vancouver avenue.

The ceremony took place June 18 in Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan in Corvallis, with the Rev. C. S. Neville reading the service at three o'clock. Two-hundred guests attended the wedding, and the reception which followed in the parish hall.

Mrs. F. Kafel was soloist.

Miss Margaret Anne Myatt was her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Myatt gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over pink, waltz length, and cap of pleated tulle studded with pearls held her illusion veil. She carried stephanotis and pink roses.

The maid-of-honor wore a gown of tulip pink crystallette, waltz length, with headband of pink rosebuds and ribbon and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Hope Bullock, Portland, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock of white nylon was trimmed with pink rosebuds and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Norman B. Henkelman, Portland, was best man for the bridegroom and Larry Haverkamp and Reid McShane, Portland, the latter a cousin of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore a gown of light pink lace with white accessories and her flowerers were pink rosebuds. Mrs. Moreland was gowned in rose-colored lace with navy blue accessories and her corsage was also pink rosebuds.

For the reception Mrs. S. J. Wilson and Mrs. J. Keene cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. D. G. Myatt and Mrs. J. Clark Bullock poured.

The bride has completed her junior year at Oregon State college and is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Moreland, who was graduated from Oregon State college in June with a degree in engineering, will spend the next 15 months with the Westinghouse Electric corporation in Pittsburgh, and the couple will live there. He holds the reserve officers' commission of ensign in the Navy, and is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Moreland were both in Corvallis for their son's wedding.
