

Johnson-Starks Ceremony Held in Community Church

Central Point—Miss Frances Marie Starks became the bride of Martin Paul Johnson in a ceremony held June 11 at 7 o'clock at Community Bible church in Central Point. The Rev. Rolf H. Hansen performed the double-ring ceremony. About 150 guests were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry F. Starks, 68 Freeman road, Central Point and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil B. Johnson, Gold Hill.

The bride's gown was designed with a long-sleeved bodice and full skirt of ruffled tulle over satin, trimmed with small velvet bows. At her throat the bride wore a small pearl fan pin which belonged to her mother for the traditional something old and her full-length veil was held by a crown of white net leaves and pearls. She carried an orchid encircled with staphanotis.

Miss Nancy Runyan, Vista, Calif., was honor attendant. She wore a yellow taffeta ballerina frock with white lace and net overskirt and matching bolero jacket. Her bouquet was of blue Ester Reed daisies and staphanotis.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Obenchain and Miss Doreen Bohnert, Central Point, and Miss Janet Willard, Medford. Miss Obenchain's gown was of blue net over taffeta, ballerina style, worn with white lace jacket and she carried pink daisies. Miss Bohnert wore a frock of green net and taffeta with white lace jacket and her flowers were yellow daisies. Miss Willard's frock was of orchid net and taffeta with white lace jacket and her nosegay was of green Ester Reed daisies.

All four attendants wore white blossoms and their costumes were completed with white nylon gloves and white ballerina slippers.

Flower girl was Carolyn Starks, Ukiah, Calif., cousin of the bride. Her frock was orchid color with white daisies, and her headband was of blue ribbon and daisies. She carried a small basket of ribbon and lace.

Miss Le Ann Simonson, Smith River, Calif., and Charles Johnson, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. Miss Simonson wore a pink net frock trimmed with white sequins.

Mr. Starks gave his daughter in marriage and Leland Starks, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Charles Gichrist and Stanley Newnam, Medford, and Gene Holderness, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Loree Ford was soloist. Arrangements of garden blossoms and tapers in candelabra decorated the church, and white bows marked the pews ends. Miss Alice Turner took charge of decorations.

The reception was held in the church parlor, which was also decorated with bouquets of flowers. Mrs. Don Turner took charge of the gift table and Miss Alice Turner the guest book. Mrs. Arthur Brereton served the wedding cake and Mrs. Ervin Willard the punch.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Starks wore a formal gown of white flowered nylon and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in orchid-colored lace and net over taffeta and her flowers were also yellow rosebuds.

The newlyweds traveled to California for their wedding trip and are at home at 709 Manzanita street, Central Point.

The bride, a graduate of Crater High school, is a stenographer for Attorney J. F. Fliegel. The bridegroom served four years in the United States Navy after completing Gold Hill High school and is with the Medford corporation.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Amy Johnson, Salem, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Myra P. Starks, Boise, Ida., grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taw and Lee Tallman, Salem, uncles and aunt of the bridegroom; Miss Jeanette Starks, Seattle, a cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Don Starks and children, Ukiah and John W. Leonard, Boise, uncles and aunt of the bride.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leonard, Twenty-nine Palms, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horrell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rietz and daughter, all of John Day, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Les Schnabele and sons, Ize, Ore.; Mrs. Fred Hanson, Fox, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Simonson and Lou Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Simonson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simonson, all of Smith River.
