Miss Joyce Milton, Lester Prettyman Wedded in Ashland Faith Temple Church

Phoenix—Miss Joyce Milton, bride, and Lester Prettyman, groom, were united in marriage at either side of the arch.

Mrs. O'Neal of Ashland played the wedding music and Cleatis Mitchell furnished the wedding songs.

The bride's mother wore a light blue and white crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a pink faille dress. Both had pink carnation corsages.

The reception was held after the ceremony and was given by Mrs. Raymond McDougall, a sister of the bridegroom, at 520 Terrace street. Approximately 100 guests attended.

The bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of the wedding cake and continuing the serving was Mrs. McDougall. Mrs. Pat Colbaugh presided at the punch bowl. Miss Whitmore had charge of the guest book.

The couple will live at Phoenix.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon tulle and lace over taffeta. The skirt was fashioned with panels of lace and the gown was worn with a bolero jacket. Her finger tip veil was held by a pearl beaded crown, and her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

Miss Darlene Skinner, Phoenix, was maid of honor. She wore a light blue gown and her flowers were red roses.

Candlelighters were Miss June Whitmore, who wore a yellow gown, and Miss Kay Goin, whose gown was lavender.

Best man was Donald C. Gay, and Miss Sharon Prettyman, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Wanda Prettyman, a cousin were the ushers. Mr. Gay is a Navy seaman who serves on the USS Courage.

Decorations included an arch covered with ivy and bridal wreath flowers with yellow roses. Baskets of bridal wreath and pale lavender and yellow

Six Teachers To Attend NEA Session

A group of Jackson county teachers will attend the 93rd annual convention of National Education association to be held in Chicago July 3-8. Heading the delegation will be Mrs. Paul R. (Maxine) Smith, president of the Department of Classroom Teachers, Oregon Education association and teacher at Medford Senior High school.

Also attending will be Mrs. Kathryn Smith, Ashland Lincoln school teacher and vice-president of Jackson County unit, Oregon Education association; Giles Green, Ashland Senior High school and president of Ashland Teachers' association; Mrs. Elsie Turner and Mrs. Viola Pomeroy, teachers in the Eagle Point system who will be official delegates from county OEA and Mrs. Edith Arnold, teacher at Griffin Creek school.

Mrs. Smith leaves by plane this morning for Portland and from there will go to DeKalb, Ill., where she first will attend a meeting of the national commission on teacher education and professional standards to be held at Northern Illinois State Teachers' college. From there she will continue to Chicago for the NEA and the national meeting of the Department of Classroom Teachers.

Following the convention Mrs. Smith will go to Purdue university, West Lafayette, Ind., where she will attend a teachers' workshop and take classes in Spanish and public speaking.

Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Pomeroy left last week and were to travel east on the Canadian Pacific by way of Vancouver, B.C., Banff and Lake Louise. They planned to visit relatives of Mrs. Turner in LaCrosse, Wis., before continuing to Chicago. The return trip will be by way of Denver and Salt Lake City.

Speakers at the NEA meeting will include Harold Stassen, director, Foreign Operations administration and special assistant to President Eisenhower; Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate in 1952; Benjamin C. Willis, general superintendent, Chicago public schools, and Mrs. Waurine Walker, president of NEA.
