The scholarship, awarded by the state system of higher education, is worth $120-$40 per term. The state system makes a limited number of study grants each year to help outstanding students complete their college careers.

A 1954 graduate of Medford High school, Ashby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ashby, 830 Bennett ave.

Wall Street

New York — (UP) — Stocks fluctuated narrowly with changes irregular today as Wall Street tried to decipher the future.

The list was lower at the end of the first hour. Then rails moved up ahead of lower industrials. The industrials beat out the rails. Many issues held at the previous close.

The market operators who had been anticipating an industrial average of 450 were ready to sell to take profits of which there were plenty. Some sales came from speculators taking profits.

Despite this unloading the market held to an even keel. Steels rallied from the lows. Rails moved higher. Utilities had some firm spots.

Dow-Jones closing stock averages: 30 industrials 449.86 up 0.93; 20 railroads 162.03 up 0.17; 15 utilities 64.85 off 0.22, and 15 stocks 164.75 up 0.05.

Sales today were about 2,280,000 shares compared with 2,410,000 shares last Friday.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Pickin' Pears News and Notes From Camp White

By L. J. "TICK" MALARKEY
Ray Williams has resigned as Camp White registrar, and Bertha P. Hopkins, Jackson county clerk, has appointed William P. (Bill) Hurn to take his place. Office hours will again be each Tuesday morning until greater demand makes it necessary to keep open longer.

Hurn, a World War I veteran, had the distinction of serving under President Eisenhower's command during his Army days and recalls those times vividly. As a student "Bill" attended the University of Oregon and was a member of its football squad. He is a long time member of the Masonic lodge and has been an active participant in its affairs in the state. At one time he was in the hardware business at Klamath Falls and refereed football games throughout southern Oregon.

Perhaps no one at Camp White is better versed in sports than John Sullivan, Company A. Sullivan is a close follower of all athletic events and can often be seen in a huddle with Cliff Barry, another ardent devotee of athletics. Barry had a future in professional baseball as a kid player for Columbia university, Portland. His father had other ideas, however, and the young man went into the banking business, a profession that he followed until retirement age had been reached.

John Sullivan and a brother operated mines in Nevada. He was transferred to the home here from the Reno hospital and is now going into his fourth year of residence at Camp White.

Another one of those one man "garden shows" is the work of Robert Rohr, who has taken the strip on both sides of the bus walk and is making it into a half acre of lawn and flowers. Early morning and until late in the evening Robert can be seen at his labor of love, and like the work that Walter Oedergard has done, the results are astounding. He gets plenty of advice, all for free, and some volunteer help.

Ray Clark and Harry Martin are soon to be transferred to the Barnes VA hospital, Vancouver, Wash., for specialized medical attention. Both men have been confined to the station's infirmary. Orders for their admittance to Barnes came last Thursday. Kenneth Hubbard, who was sent to Barnes recently is improving and expected to be returned to Camp White before too long.

A person who will be greatly missed out here is Nurse Ardath Auel. She resigned her position and left to join her husband who was transferred from a job in Medford to one in Oregon City. Mrs. Auel had been employed at Camp White for four years.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Camp White Post 6412, installed officers for the ensuing year at a formal ceremony in the veterans hall. Those taking office were Commander Hans Sorenson; Junior Vice Commander Frank Clayton; Quartermaster Robert Sullivan; Service Officer Pat Graham; Chaplain Henry Williams; and Trustee Henry Huls.

Entertainment was furnished by Kathleen Classic of Rogue River who did toe dancing and baton twirling. In addition to this feature students from Eve Prentice studio provided accordion music. Refreshments were served.

Frank Lacey, who was employed for two years as a night clerk at the Holland hotel, has

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK

Portland — (UP) — Hog and sheep prices were lower today.

Cattle 2100: market slow; early sales steers and heifers mostly steady but some bids on fed steers weak to 50c lower; early sales cows weak to 50c below last Monday; few loads choice fed steers held around 24-24.25; mixed good-choice lots 22; scattered lots good steers 21-22; two loads mostly choice around 200 lb fed heifers 22-25; load good-choice 85-14; 52-25; few utility heifers 12-14; canter-cutters cows mostly 5-5-5-10; few beef-type cutters 10-10.50; utility cows 11-12.50; load utility-commercial 100 lb cows 12; young commercial cows held around 14-14.50 or above few utility-commercial bulls 14.50-16. re-entered Camp White and is working as a sergeant under Captain Martin in Company I. Frank during other days was a chef and at various times owned his own restaurants. When he was here before he worked in the kitchen and for a while was one of the switchboard operators. Tom Beckett is also an addition to the Company I personnel and is working as a sergeant.

William B. (Catfish) Clayton, president of Camp White Fishing club, is making plans for a 30-day leave and will spend his time on the Smith river camping and fishing. "Catfish" has been very active in the affairs of the fishing club and some very enjoyable outings have been spent by this group.

Robert "Woody" Woods and Charles (The Harp) Mulvey have both taken discharges and are living in Central Point. When we call Mulvey "The Harp" there is a good reason for so doing. He was born in Ireland. Incidentally Charlie was quite a soccer player on the turf of the "Old Sod." Soccer is the national game and he appeared in many championships. Mulvey was assistant to Chaplain Eskay while a member of Company I. Woods is famous for his game of 8 ball. Some of the shots that he made will forever live in the history of the Camp White pool room. The last job "Woody" had on the "campus of White" was that of orderly on the "graveyard" shift.

Dennis Duffy and Thomas Mundt have both checked out and are employed as hotel clerks at Lakeview. Letters to friends here stated that they like their jobs very much and are getting along well.
