Birthday Tea Given Thursday By Association

Phoenix — Woman's association of Phoenix Presbyterian church sponsored the annual birthday tea at the church last Thursday afternoon. About 30 women gathered for the event.

A program, given under the direction of Mrs. John Kesler, consisted of devotions, group singing and other musical numbers. Numbers were presented by a trio composed of Bonnie Thompson, Bonnie and Penny Simmonds, accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Thompson; a piano duet by Margaret Ann Bolz and Nancy Stewart; an accordion solo by Cynthia Owens and a duet by Mrs. John Kesler and Mrs. Merle Simmonds, accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Thompson.

Tea was served in the banquet hall where 12 tables, one for each month of the year, were placed. Each table was decorated in keeping with the month represented, and the guests gathered at the table which represented the month in which their birthday occurred.

The serving table was decorated with a large centerpiece of roses, daisies and delphinium arranged with yellow tapers. Pouring were Mrs. Rex Nicodemus and Mrs. Jim Gardner. Mrs. Rose Owens, president of the association, was chairman in charge of arrangements, and was assisted by Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. J. H. Webster, Mrs. Marvin Williams and Miss Sandra Owens.

The church has several important events scheduled for the near future. A basket supper is planned July 1 at Jackson Hot Springs. This is to be a fried chicken supper, with each family to bring chicken and other picnic food.

July 16 has been chosen as the date of the annual ice cream social.

Altrusans Plan Final Meeting

Altrusa club will hold the last meeting of the season Thursday evening, June 30 at the home of Mrs. Adrienne Dippel. The hostesses, Mrs. Judy Stoll and Mrs. Ann Finley, have planned a pot-luck steak barbeque dinner at 6:30 p.m. on the patio in Mrs. Dippel's garden.

Mrs. Bertha Haskins, retiring president, will conduct a business meeting to close the year's activities and hear annual reports of all standing committees. Following the business meeting, the program will be in charge of the international relations chairman, Mrs. Edith Baker, who has secured Mrs. Bert Elliot as a guest speaker. Mrs. Elliot and her husband, Dr. Elliot, have recently returned from a tour of 15 countries in lower Europe and spent Easter on a special visit to the Holy Land.

Though no regular business meetings are held during the summer months, the Altrusa board, meeting at the home of Miss Grace Smith June 21, planned picnics to be held in July and August to which families and guests will be invited. The summer picnics have been held for the past two seasons.

Woman's Society To Give Playlet

A playlet will be presented at the June meeting of Woman's Society of Christian Service in First Methodist church at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 28. The playlet, titled "Where Your Treasure Is There Your Heart Will Be" was written by the president of the Oregon Conference, Mrs. L. D. Wrentmore, Portland, and is being given under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Thompson Jr.

Members of the cast are Mesdames Floyd Lewis, Ed Haas, L. G. Rankin, G. A. Dierdorff, Eugene Ray, C. B. Fields and the 10 circle chairmen. The story portrays the life of a Christian from early times to present days with a glimpse of the future. Mrs. Howard Bush will sing the solo parts and Mrs. J. T. Dixon is in charge of the afternoon devotions.

The program will be preceded in the morning by a prayer group at 10:30 o'clock a business session at 11 a.m., and a luncheon which will be served by the executive committee of the society.

Butte Falls Club Installs Officers

Butte Falls—Officers were installed at the June meeting of Butte Falls Garden club, held at the country home of Mrs. Harry Dalton. Mrs. Frank Carson gave an interesting talk on wild flowers.

Installed were Mrs. Carson, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Conrad, secretary; Mrs. Elmer Leathman, treasurer and Mrs. Clay Conley, historian.

Mrs. Carson suggested that to successfully transplant native flowers, one should try to imitate the natural setting as much as possible, and she mentioned some of them any publications which help with the identification and study of wild flowers.

She also pointed out that proper conservation of wild flowers is of vital importance.

Visitors were Mrs. Ted Freudenberg, Mrs. Page Stauffer and Mrs. Opal Collins.

The July meeting will be a potluck picnic in the city park July 19.

Anderson Predicts Peace Ship Defeat

Washington—(U.P.)—Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) believes the Senate will defeat President Eisenhower's proposal for an atomic "peace ship."

Anderson, chairman of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, said yesterday there is "no question" but that Mr. Eisenhower's proposed peace ship would delay other more vital phases of nuclear development.

and has been an outstanding student in scholarship, activities and leadership.
