Studs at GP Tuesday Night; Face Fort Jones Here Wednesday

Two lefties are expected to be Medford's starting pitchers when the semi-pro Cheney Studs see baseball action Tuesday and Wednesday. The Studs go to Grants Pass for a non-league encounter tomorrow night and on Wednesday they'll be hosts to Fort Jones, Calif., at the fairgrounds.

Likely pitchers for Medford are Marv Scherf, just returned from National Guard camp, and Jim Kelly, who tossed four innings of fine ball last week against Mount Shasta, Calif. Jack Lovrich, University of Southern California ace, may be the chucker for Grants Pass on Tuesday. He tossed four-hit ball Saturday in the Elks 3 to 2 win Saturday over Bandon and also tripled in one run. It probably will be Lovrich's only appearance against the Studs this season.

The twirler and his battery mate, Tom Shollin, have been invited to make a trip to Japan with the Southern Cal team. Shollin was a freshman receiver for the Trojans this year. He also tripled in one of the runs Saturday night and along with teammate Bob Reid hit a two-run homer as Grants Pass also won Sunday 13 to 10.

Grants Pass is expected to be considerably stronger than in its three previous frays with Medford. The Studs won all three, 6 to 4, 10 to 7 and 9 to 8.

CP-MEDFORD LEGION 9 NABS 2 AT LAKEVIEW

Central Point-Medford's heavy slugging American Legion junior baseball aggregation maintained its strong pace in the District 4 pennant race Sunday by sweeping a twin bill at Lakeview 16 to 6 and 5 to 0.

Victories were the seventh and eighth for the unmarred CP-Meds. Ashland kept its second place status with two wins at Klamath Falls. One margin was 8 to 2. Exact score of the other contest was not available. Fred Herrmann threw a three-hit shutout for CP-Med in the

Jackson Favorite In Bout Tonight

New York — (U.P.) — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, young heavyweight contender of Far Rockaway, N.Y., is favored at 13-5 to get revenge on veteran Jimmy Slade of New York in their return television 10-round bout tonight at St. Nicholas arena. Speedy, light-punching Slade — a "spoiler" — won an upset decision over the youngster with the goofy style on April 28, 1954. At that time Jackson was being hailed as a possible title challenger.

Jackson, 23, is favored to win tonight because he apparently improved since their first tilt. He has a winning streak of five. Meanwhile, Slade, 28, lost four of his last five bouts. Jackson's last defeat was on a kayo by Nino Valdes July 14.

Tonight's bout will be televised over a DuMont network at 10 p.m. (EDT).

Charley Brown Has Low Gross

Charley Brown, with a 76, was low gross in Saturday golf sweepstakes at Rogue Valley Country club.

Low net honors went to Ivan Harrington with a 68. Jack Sanborn had a 70 net and Larry Butler and Paul Meyers each 71s.

Bill Marshall took blind bogey.

Cavicchi Europe Heavy Champion

Bologna, Italy — (U.P.) — An estimated 60,000 boxing fans watched Francesco Cavicchi of Italy win the European heavyweight championship Sunday night by outpointing titleholder Heinn Neuhaus of Germany in a 15-round bout. Cavicchi weighed 205 pounds; Neuhaus, 216.

tighter second fracas. Duane Sides yielded only one hit in the first five innings of the opener but gave up two raps each in the sixth and seventh frames. Reinking 4 for 5

In the first mix CP-Medford got its runs on 11 hits and 12 Lakeview errors. Ed Reinking swatted four for five and Eldon Francis three for five in shaping the win. Each socked two triples. Laval Meunier hit two for two with one triple. Big Sides issued four walks along with the hits in the last inning as Lakeview got four runs. Creel three-baggered for the home team in the sixth.

Francis tallied three runs in the second mix. In the second inning he walked and stole second. Henry Putney sacrificed and Meunier singled in the run. In the fourth Francis singled and went the rest of the way on a stolen base, a balk and a wild pitch. Francis doubled in the sixth inning. Herrmann also got a two-base hit and Jim Putney hit for three bases. Henry Putney got a single and a fielder's choice by Meunier also figured in the tabulation of three runs.

Francis hit two for two in the tussle and Jim Putney two for three.

Sides whiffed 13 batters in the first game. In the second Herrmann struckout 11 and walked just two.

Berg Grabs Fifth Crown

Madison, Wis. — (U.P.) — Patty Berg, a 37-year-old redhead who has been a golf professional for 15 years, held an unprecedented fifth women's Western Open crown today, and she said "it's a pretty good feeling when you are racing the calendar."

Miss Berg, who earlier this year won the title holders' tournament for the sixth time, matched par of 292 for 72 holes at Maple Bluff Country Club to win the Women's Western by two strokes over Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., and Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay.

Miss Suggs and Mrs. Babe Didrickson Zaharias in the past have won four Western Opens each and until Miss Berg's par 73 finish Sunday shared that honor with her.

Campbell Cops NCAA Links Toga

Knoxville, Tenn. — (U.P.) — Nineteen-year-old Joe Campbell of Purdue, who kept the pressure relentlessly on his rival, reigned today as the new king of college golf.

The stocky Purdue star, trailing after the first 18 holes of the final round Saturday, came from behind Sunday to whip long-hitting John Garrett of Rice, 3 and 2.

Paris — (U.P.) — Nate Brooks of Cleveland, the U.S. bantamweight champion, will box Hilshire Pratesi of France tonight in a 10-round bout at the Palais Des Sports.

Portland Beavers Divide With Seattle, 1-0, 2-5

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer
All Pacific Coast League teams had a chance to get somewhere in Sunday's twin bills but all they got was older.

They all spun their wheels in divided doubleheaders with Hollywood, Sacramento and Portland getting as far with a total of three runs as San Francisco did with 15.

The Seals scored 15 runs on 20 hits in the two games but made the mistake of spacing them wrongly. Los Angeles won the first game 9-8 when Steve Bilko hit two crucial homers. Then in the second contest the Seals wasted runs in winning 7-1.

Hollywood got only one tally in losing to Oakland 6-1 but made two stand up for a 2-1 victory in the second contest. Sacramento's single run wasn't good enough against San Diego's five in the 5-1 opener but the Solons also took a 2-1 second game.

Same Pattern
Seattle played at Portland and completed the pattern in which the home team always won the first game and the visitors the second.

The Portland Beavers prevented Seattle from closing in on the league-leaders as Bob Alexander and Ed Bertschey blanked the Rainiers on three hits. Portland put three of its seven hits in the eighth for the only score.
