

Gaspar Ousts Simmons in OGA Tournament; DeVoe, Harrington, Getchell Cop Matches

Portland — (U.P.) — A new Oregon Golf association men's champion will be crowned this year.

Eddie Simmons defending champion from Medford, dropped a 4 and 3 decision to Bob Gaspar of Cottage Grove over the rain-soaked Riverside Golf and Country club course yesterday.

Co-medalist Ray Chirgwin of the host club also was defeated, losing 1-up to Ralph Swan of Portland.

The favorites had better luck in women's play, although the same rain, thunder and lightning was present. Carol Jo Kabler of Sutherland, medalist, downed Naomi Borgensgard of Portland 5 and 4; Sue DeVoe of Medford won from Mary Scott of Portland 6 and 4, and Mrs. Harry Stapp of Portland defeated Mrs. R. I. Borst.

Mrs. Francis Rowell, defending champ from Portland, defeated Mrs. George Decker of La Grande, 4 and 2.

Another men's upset saw Elton Ellis of Portland defeat Bob Bronson, OGA president, 2-up. McAllister Beaton

In other men's matches, Phil Getchell of Medford defeated Dick Marks of Klamath Falls 3 and 2; George Harrington of Medford won a similar decision over Ed Vandenberg of Portland; Don Bick of Coos Bay defeated Jim Shaw Jr., of Portland, 3 and 2; George Beecher of Ontario was two-under-par in winning from Woody Ball of Portland 2 and 1; Ralph Dichter of Gearhart downed Harold Weston of Portland 2 and 1.

Light heavyweight champion Moore, 38, was named "Fighter of the Month" by the magazine because of his impressive knockout victory over middleweight ruler Bobo Olson last week.

Thirty-year old, Famechon, European featherweight champion, was boosted from third place to the top among contenders for the world 126-pound crown because of his recent victory over Billy Kelly of Ireland and because of the retirement of Percy Bassett.

Bassett Through

Bassett of Philadelphia, who had been number one, retired because of an eye injury.

Tony DeMarco of Boston, who lost the welterweight title to Carmen Basilio, is listed as top contender.

Mario D'Agata of Italy replaced Raton Macias of Mexico as top bantamweight contender because of Macia's knockout by Billy Peacock of Los Angeles. Macias was dropped to fourth. Peacock was elevated from tenth to sixth.

Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, broke into the middleweight ratings as number eight because of his victory over Gil Turner, who dropped from eighth to ninth.

Moore Honored In Ratings by Ring Magazine

New York — (U.P.) — Heavyweight Archie Moore and Ray Famechon of France, two veterans were honored today as the Ring Magazine issued its latest ratings.

Light heavyweight champion Moore, 38, was named "Fighter of the Month" by the magazine because of his impressive knockout victory over middleweight ruler Bobo Olson last week.

Thirty-year old, Famechon, European featherweight champion, was boosted from third place to the top among contenders for the world 126-pound crown because of his recent victory over Billy Kelly of Ireland and because of the retirement of Percy Bassett.

Will Pastrano Decisions Maxim In 10-Rounder

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Aging Joey Maxim had no excuses today for his loss to up and coming Willie Pastrano and said "Now I know how those guys used to feel that fought me when I was young."

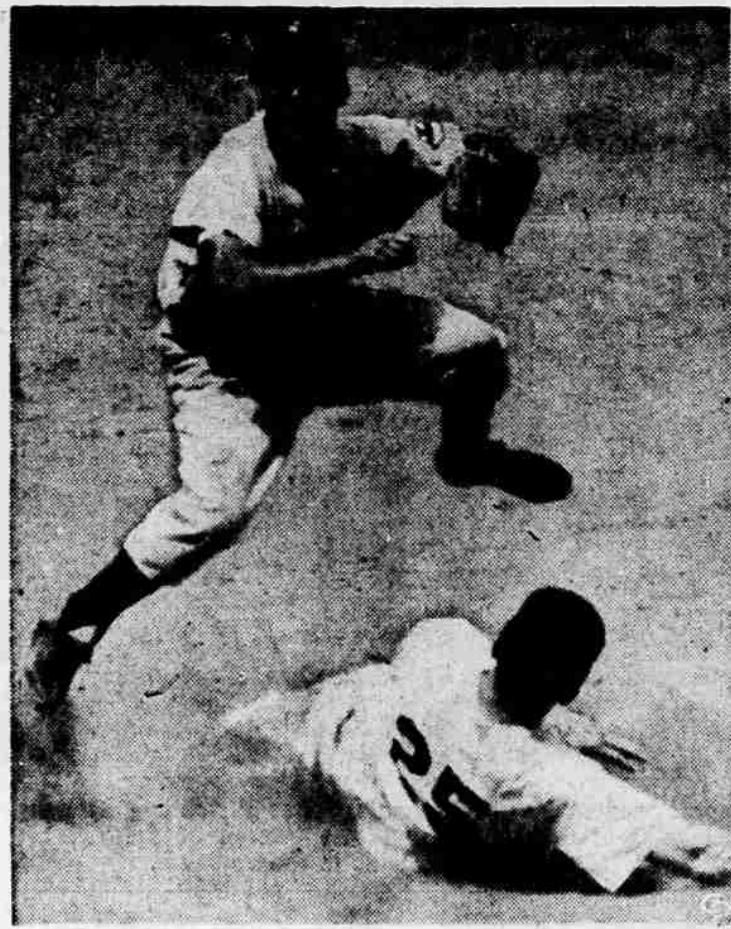

Pastrano, a 19-year-old New Orleans hustler, pounded out an easy 10-round unanimous decision over the 33-year-old former light heavyweight champion Tuesday night.

"I took it easy, saving myself so I could open up with speed and power in the final three rounds Pastrano said. It was his 31st win in 39 fights, and he salted it away with a barrage in the late stages.

Maxim weighed 186 to Pastrano's 176 and Pastrano said "That money is just too fast."

The fight, staged by Louisiana Boxing Enterprises, Inc., drew a paid attendance of only 3,169 and a net of $16,794. Maxim was guaranteed $15,000 for the fight and Pastrano $7,500.

Maxim apparently shot for a knockout or nothing and never got an opening against the speedy New Orleans youngster. Pastrano did no real damage to his opponent but kept jabbing away at the veteran Cleveland boxer.

Snider Musial Get Back Leads In All-Star Poll

Chicago — (U.P.) — Slugging Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Stan (The Man) Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals climbed back into the leads today in the balloting in the annual All-Star baseball poll.

Snider took over the center field spot on the National League squad by a margin of 12,024 over Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phillies. Snider had 848,203 votes to Ashburn's 836,179.

Musial went ahead of Ted Kluszewski of the Cincinnati Redlegs in tabulation for the first base job on the National League team by 13,511 votes. In another change, Jim Finigan of the Kansas City Athletics regained the third base spot on the American League team by 7,135 votes over George Kell of the Chicago White Sox.

Soviet Oarsmen Reconsider Race

London — (U.P.) — Soviet Oarsmen today decided to reconsider their decision to pull out of the Henley Regatta because they could not row their own shells.

The Russians had walked out of the Thames river classic that got under way this morning. But they decided to reconsider when striking London stevedores suddenly announced they would allow volunteers to carry the Russian shells off a strike-bound Russian steamer.

Stelle To Report To Rams' Camp

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League said today that linebacker Don Wade of Vanderbilt, quarterback Earl Stelle of Oregon and end Willie Roberts of Tulsa will report to their summer training camp on July 7.

Wade is a brother of LA back Billy Wade.

Stelle is an ex-Medford, Ore., high school gridder.

Oregon Runner Tours Finland

Helsinki — (U.P.) — A United States team made up of sprinter Dick Blair, half-miler Tom Courtney, miler Bob Seaman, broad jumper John Bennett, steeplechaser Ken Reiser and hammerthrower Bob Backus arrived Tuesday night to begin a tour of Finland and other Scandinavian countries.

Vancouver Police Inquiry To Open

Vancouver, B. C. — (U.P.) — Several high Vancouver Police Department authorities, some of them under fire for the way they've handled the city's narcotics problem, will appear next Tuesday before a royal commission conducting a sweeping investigation into the department's methods.

Chief Constable Walter Mulligan, currently on a leave of absence from the department, will be one of the key witnesses at the hearings.

The first open session of the inquiry Tuesday will be presided over by Commissioner R. H. Tupper, while chief counsel for the commission will be Vancouver lawyer J. G. A. Hutcheson.

The commission will probe all levels of the department and investigate charges of laxity, corruption, misbehavior and graft.

Kurz Cops Main On Ashland Oval

Ashland—After 20 odd laps with Al Root in the lead, it was "Lead Foot" Louis Kurz who jumped out in front to get the checkered flag first in the 25-lap A-main Saturday night at the Ashland Speedway.

Root in M-88 starting in the number one spot, held this position most of the way but was unable to hold off Kurz in M-7 in the last few laps of the race.

Throughout the entire A-main the cars were bumper to bumper with positions holding the same. Monty Hall in A-3 blew a tire just when he started to work up and lost his place.

Second place went to Root, with Bob Wilcox in M-4 taking third.

Highlight of the evening came in the third heat when Herb Parker in A-23 tangled with the crash wall in front of the grandstand. He flipped and was out for the rest of the program.

Results of the races: B-trophy Dash, A-15, Crook Hunter; A-trophy Dash, R-89, Bill Metzger; 1st Heat, M-31, Dick Imhausen; 2nd heat M-88, Al Root; 3rd heat, P-3, Jim Shippy; 4th heat, M-7, Louie Kurz; B-main, P-3, Jim Shippy.

Injury Troubles Plague Dodgers

Brooklyn — (U.P.) — The Brooklyn Dodgers' injury woes continued to pile up today with star catcher Roy Campanella scheduled for X-rays on the injured left knee that has hampered him for six days.

Tuesday, other X-rays disclosed that pitcher Russ Meyer—who was involved in a collision during a game in Milwaukee last Sunday—suffered a broken shoulder bone that will sideline him for at least 30 days and possibly for the rest of the season.

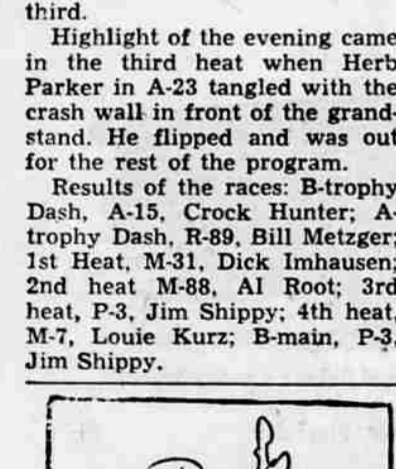

Pitchers Carl Erskine, Johnny Podres and Billy Loes also are out of action with arm ailments, and outfielder Duke Snider is just recovering from a leg injury.

BAYLOR STAR SIGNS

Waco, Tex. — (U.P.) — Fred Gottlieb, star pitcher of Baylor's baseball team this year, has been signed by the Philadelphia Phillies and assigned to Three Rivers in the Class C Provincial League.

Jim Carter Favored in Title Bout

Boston — (U.P.) — Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter of New York was a solid 3-1 favorite to turn back challenger Wallace (Bud) Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio, in their nationally-televised 15-round bout at Boston Garden tonight—the champ's 11th title fight.

However, the 31-year-old titleholder wasn't evoking as much Boston interest for this "grudge" battle as he did in drawing gates of $160,000 against Tommy Collins two years ago and $100,000 with Boston's Tony DeMarco earlier this year. Advance ticket sales for the fight were reportedly lighter than the original date of the match, June 1, when Carter came down with a cold.

Both fighters appeared trim and sharp as they wound up last minute training chores Tuesday and both were predicting knockout wins in the match, which will be blacked out in New England.

Fight Results

Houston, Tex. — Billy (Sweetpea) Peacock, 122½, Los Angeles, knocked out Alex Fimbres, 126, Phoenix, Ariz. (4).

Chicago—Bobby Boyd, 160, Chicago, knocked out Lloyd Triplett, 160, Chicago. (3).

Miami Beach, Fla.—Harold Carter, 190, Newark, N.J., outpointed Julio Moderos, 198, Havana, Cuba. (10).

Violent Weather in Midwest Easing Off

By UNITED

Violent June weather relented on the nation's midsection today, although it sent showers and thundershowers to the Mississippi Valley and the Southern Plains.

A small tornado ripped through two farm buildings near Aberdeen, S.D., last night and an unconfirmed tornado was spotted southwest of Shattuck, Okla. But other warnings of possible destructive storms failed to materialize.

In West Texas, soaking rains followed thunderstorms which killed two persons with lightning bolts Monday. San Angelo got 2.25 inches of rain in a flash thunderstorm yesterday and Childress measured two inches. Nebraska, meanwhile, got a chance to relax after a tornado which killed two persons and injured 85 near Scottsbluff.

Radio Operator Scared Stiff as Plane Crash Lands

Zuni, N.M. — (U.P.) — Maj. E. H. Manuel scared a CAA radio station operator stiff and set his three companions to mumbling prayers last night, but he brought an Air Force B26 down safely although he could not reach the El Moro emergency landing strip here.

Manuel made a wheels-up landing on level ground and skidded to a halt short of the strip—just 25 yards from the radio shack.

He was en route from his home base, Andrews AFB in Maryland, to Los Angeles with Navy Cmdr. J. F. Wilbur flying co-pilot and airman 2C F. S. Foster as engineer. Maj. J. M. Andrews of March AFB, Calif., was a passenger.
