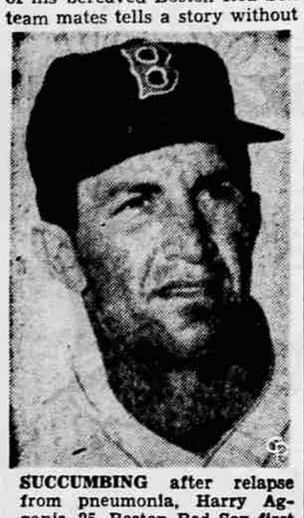
Bereaved Red Sox Nab Pair for Harry

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

The name of Harry Agganis never again will appear in a box score but the quiet determination of his bereaved Boston Red Sox team mates tells a story without words — they're winning 'em now for the likeable Greek guy whose funeral is Thursday afternoon.



SUCCUMBING after relapse from pneumonia, Harry Agganis, 25, Boston Red Sox first baseman, dies in Cambridge, Mass., hospital. (International)

The Red Sox wore their black arm bands of mourning in silence and they played without the usual wise-cracks and razzing Tuesday night, but they won two games, 4-0 and 8-2 over the Senators, the first on a three-hit shutout by Frank Sullivan, the second with an explosive eight-run rally in the ninth.

Sullivan, who now has won six games in a row, turned in his second straight shutout and Jack Jensen contributed three runs batted in on a homer and a sacrifice fly in the opener. Faye Throneberry also hit a homer. Sullivan, who had a two-hit shutout over Detroit in his last start, now has a 10-6 won and lost mark.

Bob Porterfield appeared to be "in" with a shutout of his own in the second game when the Red Sox became electric with energy and after Norm Zauchin hit a two-run homer made a rout of it, adding four singles and a double and also utilizing such devices as interference by the catcher, a sacrifice, a walk and a force out. Zauchin, up for the second time hit the double for the final run.

Tigers Edge White Sox

The victory moved Boston to within half a game of the fourth place Tigers who won a 10-inning struggle from the White Sox, 5-4, on a single by Frank House after Earl Torgeson walked and went to third on Jim Delsing's single. The White Sox had come from behind to tie it at 4-4 in the ninth. Chicago dropped 3½ games behind the idle Yankees.

In the only other American league game Cleveland topped Kansas City, 7-5 with six runs in the second inning, three on Larry Doby's homer. Mike Garcia won his first game since May 15 and his fourth of the year.

In the National league, the Dodgers came home to happy Flatbush and utilized home run smashes by Jack Robinson, Carl Furillo, and Duke Snider for a 6-5 victory over Sal Maglie and the Giants, who dropped to fifth place. Cincinnati took over fourth with a 9-1 victory over St. Louis while Chicago stayed in second place by beating Milwaukee 7-3.

After the Phils finished uncompleted business of last April 24 with a 3-0 victory in a suspended game, the Pirates went 10 innings to defeat the Phillies in the regular game, 7-5.

Snider Takes Home Lead

Maglie, who had won eight in a row, was tapped for the Robinson and Furillo homers in succession in the second inning and suffered his fourth defeat. Snider hit his 24th homer to take the major league lead again and this blast in the eighth proved to be the winning run. The Giants, full of fight, rallied for a run on a Robinson error in the ninth but Jackie atoned for that by starting a game ending double play.

Ernie Banks and Jim King each hit two homers and Sam Jones struck out 12 in the Cub triumph at Milwaukee. It was a seven-hitter and Jones' eighth victory of the year. Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

Joe Nuxhall missed in a bid for his third straight shutout but coasted to an easy nine-hit job for his eighth victory with Cincinnati. Johnny Temple batted in five runs, three on a triple, and stole a base while Ray Jablonski hit a two-run homer against his old Cardinal mates.

The Pirates made 12 hits, four of them singles by Tom Saffell, Dick Cole, Frank Thomas and Dale Long in the 10th to top the Phils. Willie Jones homered for the Phils and Long for the Bucs. The Phils added a ninth inning run in their suspended game victory. Jack Meyer was the winner in that game but lost the regular one in relief.

Studs Scuffle Stars Here Tonight; Bounce Grants Pass Elks 8-5

The Medford Cheney Studs mix with the Scott Valley Stars at the fairgrounds here tonight. Starting time for the non-league semi-pro baseball scrape with the Fort Jones, Calif., nine is 8 p.m.

Jim Kelly is the probable hurler for Medford. The Stars starter may be chosen from among four men, Fred Ruff, Jim Church, Sonnie Allen and Albert Facey.

The game will be the fifth for Medford against a Northern California League team. The Studs have tripped Yreka three times and Mt. Shasta once. Ft. Jones stumbled along at its NCL beginning this season but, after being bolstered in personnel, rose up to whip the loop leading Tulelake team a couple of Sundays ago.

Back to back home runs by Jack Cooney and Derald Wooton following a walk to Eddie McCullough got the Cheney Studs three runs in the first inning and three tallies was the margin of decision as the Studs subdued the Grants Pass Elks baseball nine 8 to 5 last night at Grants Pass.

The non-league scuffle marked the fourth straight triumph for the Studs over the Elks this season. Two of the victories were in Southern Oregon League engagements.

Medford assumed a 5 to 1 spread in the first four innings, saw its gap close to 5 to 4 and 6 to 5 then put on a two-run cushion in the ninth panel.

Lefty Marv Scherpf, making his first appearance for the Studs since returning from National Guard camp. He whiffed 12 batters in his eight-hitter, walked four and hit one man with a pitch. Three of the bases on balls were in the sixth frame when the Elks collected two runs. It was the only time they got more than one run in an inning.

Center Field Blows

Cooney and Wooton both smashed their roundtrippers to center field. Jack's went to the right of a shed in the outer pasture and Derald's out on to the black top parking of the school bus garage. Bill Martell slammed a homer for the Elks. It was also in the first canto and to center field.

The Studs grabbed one run in the third inning when Bob Selsor walked, went two bases to third on a wild pitch and scored on a single by Terry Maddox. A base on balls in the fourth chukker also put a run on base. McCullough was given the pass. He advanced a base on Selsor's ground out and tallied on an error on a rap by Maddox.

Grants Pass cut the score to 5 to 2 in the fifth inning. Chuck Nevi and Brad Lucas socked singles. There was a fielder's option, a base on balls and a wild pitch. Singles by Mel Friend and Jack Lovrich and an error on the Studs were added with the sixth inning walks that enabled GP to hack the Medford margin to 5 to 4.

Wooton Heads Batters

Both clubs scored in the eighth inning. Medford utilized safeties by Howard Morris and Ed McCullough (on a bunt) and two errors. Grants Pass loaded the bags on an error and hits by Clint Reese and Lucas. Pitcher Scherpf, apparently trying to keep the ball inside to Mel Drews, hit the GP catcher on the hand. Drews took his base forcing in a run.

Wooton, who had three hits in four times up to head all batters for the night, doubled to lead off the ninth canto. He scored on a bobble on Bill McLean's swat. McLean stole second and went to third base on a miscue. Scherpf singled him home.

Martell's homer and triple in four times up paced GP. Lucas also hit two for four. Morris socked two for five for the Studs.

Lucas and his mound reliever, Martell, gave up five hits apiece to the Studs. Lucas walked seven and fanned four in five innings while Martell struck out two and walked one in four frames.

Medford was "robbed" of one run or more in the seventh inning when Cooney and then McLean were called out on plays at first base by Base Umpire Newman. From the stands they appeared to have definitely beaten the throws. McLean's out was on the end of a double play and both decisions were hotly disputed by Studs' Manager Clarence Mellbye.

Salem, Eugene Run One-Two in Northwest Loop

By UNITED PRESS

The Northwest League had a decided Oregon flavor today with the two Oregon representatives, Salem and Eugene, running one-two in the tight race for first place.

Salem got five-hit pitching from Marion Cowdell and some power hitting from first baseman Jack Steinagel to take Spokane 6-1 last night at Salem. Steinagel settled matters with a bases-loaded homer in the fifth.

Eugene kept in the running with 3-1 and 12-5 decisions over Lewiston. Frank Chase handcuffed the Broncs in the first game allowing but five hits while fanning seven and issuing but three walks.

In the nightcap, a triple by Ron Jackson and a sacrifice fly by Art Preston gave Eugene a 6-5 edge in the seventh and the Emeralds added six more in the eighth with the aid of a three-run double by Granny Gladstone.

Tri-City stayed in contention six games off the pace with 2-0 and 7-4 decisions over Yakima. Dan Holden's two-run triple in the sixth inning of the opener handed Ralph Burns the decision.

In the nightcap, a six-run outburst in the first inning was all the Braves needed. Rookie Eddie Zander drove in three of Yakima's four runs in the nightcap.

PCL Bullpens Kept Busy

By UNITED PRESS

The bullpens of the Pacific coast league were busier last night than a pickpocket at a parade — and the hurlers who ride the outfield benches really earned their keep.

Al Lyons kept loop-leading San Diego three games ahead of Seattle by shutting off a San Francisco rally in the bottom of the ninth with the tying runs on base, and the Padres won 7-5. The Rainiers summoned Van Fletcher, Bill Kennedy, and Larry Jansen in the ninth to preserve a 2-1 win over Oakland.

Turk Lown bailed out George Piktuzis when the going got rough in the ninth inning and saved the Angels' 7-4 win over Portland. Only Hollywood's George Munger was able to last the night and did it with a six-hit, 8-0, win over Sacramento.

Los Angeles took a series opener away from Portland by turning in a 4-run second inning on five hits.

Patty Faces Trabert in Semi-Final

Wimbledon, England — (U.P.) —Tony Trabert and Budge Patty, two young men with special reasons for wanting to win the men's singles crown, battled today for the honor of carrying America's colors into the final round of the famed Wimbledon tennis championships.

Second-seeded Ken Rosewell of Australia faced unseeded Kurt Nielsen of Denmark in the other semi-final, which was scheduled to precede the Trabert-Patty match on the historic center court.

The victor in the Rosewell-Nielsen match will be reaching the final round for the second time. Rosewell made it last year, but was beaten by Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt. Nielsen was a finalist two years ago, but lost to Vic Seixas of Philadelphia.

The United States already is assured of winning the women's singles championship for the 12th straight year. That became certain Tuesday when U. S. girls captured all four berths in the semi-final round.

Top-seeded Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., advanced with a 6-4, 6-3 victory over Mrs. Dorothy Knode of Alameda, Calif., second-seeded Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., beat Beryl Penrose of Australia, 6-2, 6-0; third-seeded Mrs. Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., defeated Angela Buxton of Britain, 6-2, 6-2; and six-seeded Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., beat Suzi Kormoczi of Hungary, 6-2, 6-3.
