

NOT A GOOD RED—Charles Grutner, veteran reporter for The New York Times, testifies before the Senate internal security subcommittee in Washington that he was a member of the Communist Party from 1937 to 1940 while working for The Franklin Eagle. He added he was not a very good member and finally quit in 1940.

Medford Lions Club Installs Officers At Dinner Meeting

Alva Perkins, manager of the Consolidated Freightways here, was installed as president of the Medford Lions club at a meeting held at the Tally-Ho Inn, South Pacific highway, last week.

Other officers installed were Dr. W. C. Albrant, first vice-president; Kenneth Campbell, second vice-president; Lee Knox, secretary-treasurer; Paul Smith, lion tamer; Nick Gier, tail twister; and directors Art Hardy, Jim McGoodwin, Don Minkler and Oscar Gage. William Miller, Coos Bay, district governor for Lions International, conducted the ceremony of installation.

A plaque was presented to the club in recognition of its outstanding service during the past year by Alvin Miller, Ashland, former zone chairman.

New Zone Chairman

Robert Dames, Medford attorney, and outgoing president of the club, received the appointment as zone chairman. The office is for supervising and coordinating club activities and functions for half of the Lions clubs which are located in Jackson county.

Officers for the auxiliary of the club were installed during the dinner-meeting. They were Mrs. Alan Jewett, president; Mrs. Joe Patella, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Tomjack, secretary; Mrs. Allan Cameron, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Dyer, lion trainer. Mrs. Dan Dwyer, auxiliary historian for Oregon took charge of the installation. Mrs. Don Minkler and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell assisted as pages.

Police Department Clears 58 Per Cent Of Major Offenses

The Medford police department cleared 58 per cent of the major offenses reported in the city last month, according to the monthly report of the department.

Of the 45 major offenses reported, 26 were cleared. In June of last year, 43 major offenses were reported, with 15, or 35 per cent, closed.

The department cleared 97 per cent of all major and miscellaneous crimes committed in June. There were 1,824 cases reported and 1,771 were cleared. During the same month last year there were 1,595 offenses, of which 96 per cent were cleared.

34 Casualties

Casualties, including motor vehicle accidents sick cared for, dog bites, and miscellaneous accidents, numbered 34.

During the month, the police department made 118 money escorts, 386 vacation house checks, issued 111 bicycle licenses, checked 384 open windows and 81 doors, checked 201 night-lights that were out, and did other miscellaneous work totaling 1,433 services.

Medford police issued 286 citations, including 70 basic rule violations, 55 cases of parking in a two hour zone, 22 cases of all night parking, 35 cases of not stopping at a light or sign, 15 cases of people driving with no operator's license, and other 89 minor infractions.
