Jack-Gardner Wedding Held At First Methodist Church

Miss Venita Deloris Gardner became the bride June 17 of Dick Ray Jack in double ring rites read at 8 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. The Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb performed the ceremony which was attended by about 500 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Gardner, 323 South Peach street, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. James Lucas, 143 Third street, Ashland, and Raymond Jack, Venice, Calif.

Church decorations were pink gladioli, white stock and orchid daisies combined with white candles and candelabra. Small baskets of gladioli and daisies with ribbon and net marked the ends of pews.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a satin gown designed with cathedral train and long-sleeved bodice trimmed with imported lace and seedpearls on nylon tulle. Her full length double veil was of nylon tulle edged with Italian chantilly lace and was held by a pearl beaded crown of imported lace. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, valley lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Warren Fichtner of Eugene was matron of honor. Her gown was of Nile green net over taffeta with lace bodice and matching lace jacket and mitts. She also wore a matching flowered headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids wore matching gowns in pastel shades with lace jackets and mitts, and carried pink carnations. Mrs. Richard Stratton and Miss Darlene Jack, a sister of the bridegroom, wore pink gowns, while Miss Shannon and Miss Jannan Van Valzah were dressed in blue, and Mrs. Clyde Hughes and Mrs. William Biddle, in orchid.

Mrs. Donald A. Faber and Mrs. Jack Wolgamott were candlelighters. They wore frocks of pink net and lace with net headpieces and wrist bouquets of pink carnations.

Linda Pittock, flower girl, wore a floor length dress of yellow net with net headpiece and carried a yellow basket with white rose petals. Billy Fichtner of Eugene was ring bearer.

James Lucas, Ashland, was best man and ushers were Donald A. Faber, Al Edwards, Bob Wickman, Bryon Schroeder, Don Hale and Harold Williams.

Mrs. Charles Adamson furnished the organ music and Mrs. Charles Champlin was soloist.

One of the wedding songs, "Love's Own Way," was composed by the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Thomas P. Woods, of Huntington Park, Calif., for the wedding of the bride's grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Murrey, Medford, 57 years ago.

The reception which followed was held in the church rooms. Baskets of white stock and deep pink carnations decorated the fireplace and baby rosebuds were placed on the mantel. Other decorations were of Canterbury bells and roses.

Mrs. Everett Faber completed cutting the wedding cake and

Ceremonies Held For Two Groups At Friends Church

Mrs. C. C. Hoover installed officers for both Howard Garden club and Roxy Gardeners at a joint ceremony held at the Friends church June 28. The new officers were presented with handkerchief corsages.

The men planned a fishing trip to Four Mile lake Friday and Saturday and today the entire group went to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dwyer Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prough will entertain this week end at their camp at the Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. Dwyer and children, Darelene, Dennis and Michael, and Mrs. Prough and children, Devonne and Shireen, are spending several weeks at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rolland, Mallory lane, Shady Cove, will spend the holidays at Diamond Lake lodge, leaving Saturday and returning Monday. They also will visit at Toketee Falls where Mr. Rolland is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin May and sons, Dennis and Lynn, Barnett road, will spend the week end at their cabin on Carberry creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lehman, Almond street, have gone to Seattle, Wash., where they are spending the week end holiday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunziker, Mt. Prospect, Ill., arrived Thursday evening to visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hunziker, and their grandson, John Michael Hunziker, 719-B Bennett street. This is their first visit with their grandson.

A. Hunziker is in the importing and exporting business in Chicago, Ill., and is making a trip to the west on business. They arrived here from San Francisco and will continue to Seattle.

Amelia Earhart Awards Announced By Zonta Clubs

Chicago—Two Amelia Earhart scholarships for graduate study in the field of aeronautical engineering, will be awarded by Zonta International for 1955. The winners of the $1200 grants are Mrs. Selma Carolina Swift Teichmann, Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Doria Domenighetti, a citizen of Switzerland whose family now lives in Milano, Italy. This is the sixth time since the Amelia Earhart Scholarship was established in 1936 that two winners have received awards.

The announcement was made by the chairman of the Amelia Earhart scholarship committee, Miss J. Winifred Hughes, Syracuse, New York, following approval of the selections by the Zonta International board of directors. The Amelia Earhart Scholarship committee accepts the applications and selects the winners of the awards which are offered annually to qualified young women engineers.

The Amelia Earhart Scholarship for graduate study in aeronautical engineering was established by Zonta International in 1936 as its international service project to honor the pioneer woman aviator, Amelia Earhart, a member of the Zonta club of New York City, who disappeared in July 1937 while on a flight around the world. She was the first flyer to attempt to circle the globe at the equator. The scholarship program is supported by voluntary contributions from the 11,000 members of 2,310 Zonta clubs in 13 countries: Canada, Chile, Denmark, England, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Norway, The Philippines, Sweden, Switzerland, United States and the Territory of Hawaii.

The Medford club, of which Mrs. Effie Kurtz is president, contributes each year to the Earhart scholarship funds.

This year's scholarships bring to 18 the number of young women who have been aided.
