

Walker Is Beaten By Savage

New York — (U.P.) — Middleweight Milo Savage of Salt Lake City was unhappy today about his turn-table victory over Sammy Walker of Springfield, Mass., "because he didn't give me a good fight."

Savage finished stronger and won a majority decision Monday night at St. Nicholas arena in the return television 10-round fight with Walker, who had taken a split verdict over Milo on Mar. 14.

The Westerner weighed 161 pounds; Walker, 156 1/2.

Monday night's scrap lacked the thrills of their March brawl in which Walker rose twice from the canvas to take the decision. Walker, 27, changed his style Monday night and kept at close quarters with bobbing-weaving tactics. He was pushed through the ropes onto the ring apron as the bell ended the seventh round, but there were no knock-downs.

Savage, who landed the harder punches with hooks to body and head, suffered a cut on his left brow in the fifth round. Despite his March defeat, Milo was favored at 2-1 Monday night.

Brown Tops PCL Hitters

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Hector Brown of the Oakland Oaks topped the Pacific Coast League pitchers in percentages with eight wins and a single loss, according to figures released today by statistician William Weiss.

In games through Sunday Brown had a winning percentage of .889.

Gene Bearden of San Francisco had the most wins with 12 while George Piktuzis of Los Angeles had recorded 102 strikeouts for leadership in that department. Bob Garber of Hollywood was the loop's workingest hurler, having pitched 158 innings.

In the deficit column Allen Gettel of Oakland, Bob Hall of Portland and Gonzalo Naranjo of Hollywood had each been beaten ten times. John Briggs of Sacramento had issued the most free tickets, passing 63 batters.

The loop had six unbeaten pitchers, headed by Lou Kretlow of Seattle, but none had appeared often enough to figure in the standings. Kretlow, however, had three decisions, all shutouts and it appeared to be a matter of time before he became a figuring hurler.

Blonde Swims 15 Miles On Lake Erie Trek

Batavia, N. Y. — (U.P.) — Greta Patterson, attractive 18-year-old blonde swimmer who conquered the 15-mile expanse of Lake Erie between Angola, N. Y., and Crystal Beach, Ont., rested at her Batavia home today, content "not to see any more water for quite a while."

Gamely battling choppy water and stomach cramps a good part of the long haul, Miss Patterson was pulled from the lake at 7:38 o'clock last night, just 13 hours and three minutes after she plunged into the 65-degree water off Angola Beach.

A crowd estimated at 30,000 greeted the 138-pound long distance swimmer with thunderous cheers as she reached the Crystal Beach Amusement pier.

Waiting on the pier was her mother, Mrs. Guy W. Patterson, with tears streaming down her face. After a warm embrace by her mother, Greta was taken to a first aid room where she rested.

Services Today For Manager Sam Golden

New York — (U.P.) — Funeral services were held today for fight-manager Sam Golden, 69, who died Saturday from cancer of the esophagus at House of Calvary Hospital.

Services were conducted at the Riverside Funeral Parlor for the man who was formerly co-manager of heavyweight contender Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

During his career Golden managed many fighters, including Former welterweight contender Georgie Ward of Elizabeth, N.J. In 1916, he was co-manager of Jack Dempsey for about three months.

SHELTON LOSES

Gothenberg, Sweden — (U.P.) — American high jump star Ernie Shelton of Southern California was beaten Monday by European champion Bengt Nilsson of Sweden in an international track meet. However, U. S. victories were scored by Fred Dwyer in the mile, Josh Culbreath in the 400 meter hurdles, Jim Lea in the 400 meter run, Don Vick in the shot put, and Harold Connolly in the hammer throw.

REACHES SECOND ROUND

Baastad, Sweden — (U.P.) — Doris Hart, U.S. women's tennis champion from Miami, Fla., has reached the second round of the Baastad International Tournament. Yesterday she defeated Astri Winther of Norway, 6-3, 6-3.

Seven Americans Expected To Qualify At St. Andrews

St. Andrews, Scotland — (U.P.) — At least half the 15 Americans entered in the British Open golf tournament were expected today to qualify for the championship proper over the St. Andrews course which many Scots fretted was becoming "too easy."

Frank Jowle, a 46-year-old English weekend golfer, shot a 63 on the "new" course Monday for the best round in the 95-year history of the British Open. That gave him only a two-stroke lead over his closest rival, Charley Ward of England, in the first qualifying round.

Meanwhile, a young Texan and an old Texan shot the best rounds for the U.S. delegation. Joe Conrad of San Antonio, the British Amateur champion, had a 67,

Sadler In Japan for Friday Bout

Tokyo — (U.P.) — Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler said today his reception in Japan has been the "warmest" he ever received anywhere.

Since his arrival Saturday from New York for next Friday's fight, he has received batches of invitations. He has been interviewed by squads of reporters and followed by autograph seekers.

Sandy fights Shigeji Kaneko of Japan in a non-title 10-round bout Friday night. Kaneko, who uses the style of Rocky Marciano, is Japan's knockout king and 128-pound champion of the Far East. He knocked out 25 of his 45 opponents.

Sandy and Shigeji were guests of honor last night at Chinzanso, one of Tokyo's best known gardens.

Alexander To Orioles

By UNITED PRESS
The Cleveland Indians and Baltimore Orioles both made player changes today — the Indians with the idea of winning the pennant, the Orioles with just the idea of getting out of last place.

The Indians purchased Jim Dyck, leading hitter of the American Association with a .388 average, from their Indianapolis farm club. Dyck, an infielder-outfielder, also had 17 homers and 57 runs batted in for the A. A. club.

The Orioles released unconditionally outfielder Wally Westlake and pitcher Saul Rogovin, and replaced them with two players called up from their farm system — pitcher Bob Alexander from Portland of the Pacific Coast League and first baseman Bob Hale from York, Pa., of the Piedmont League.

Women's Golf

July 7, Rogue Valley Women Golfers will play 18 hole medal play with Grants Pass. It will be the first of two plays for the Grants Pass trophy. All members not scheduled to play with Grants Pass golfers will make their own pairings for the day. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m.

July 7 through July 12, women golfers will begin to qualify for the club championship and the nine hole tournament.

Ringer awards for the May-June Ringer tournament will be presented at the luncheon July 7. In the A group, Mrs. Thomas Culbertson Jr. won first place with a net 55, second place in the A group was Mrs. Noble Vincent with a net 60. In the B group, Mrs. Loren Haugen was first with a net 57, and Mrs. H. D. McClure and Mrs. Robert Temple tied for second with net 60's.

First award in the C group was won by Mrs. Victor Sether with a net 62, and Mrs. Al Hart and Mrs. W. L. Stark tied for second, with net 63's. D group, Mrs. Dean Lambert won first with a net 55 and Mrs. Ed Milne won second with a net 56. In the beginners 9 hole group, the ringer award goes to Mrs. Owen Middlekauff for a net 78.

Last Thursday, the 3 hole play for beginners was won by Mrs. J. Bruce Cyphers with a total of 16 strokes. In the scheduled 9 hole iron play Thursday Mrs. Noble Vincent won in the A group with a net 41, B group winner was Mrs. Ray Frisbie with a net 41, C group was Mrs. Ward Samuelson with a net 40, in the D group it was a tie between Mrs. James Shaw and Mrs. T. C. Groomes with net 41's. In the 9 hole D group, Mrs. William Blackledge won with a net 42.

while Byron Nelson of Fort Worth, the "old pro" who won the U. S. Open back in 1939, carded a 69.

Approximately half the field of 270 golfers shot the easier par 71 "new" course Monday, while the other entries played the tougher par 72 "old" course. These players will switch courses for today's second qualifying round. Qualifying scores will be forgotten after the field is narrowed to the lowest 100 and ties for the start of the 72-hole championship proper on Wednesday.

Because of the rash of low scores for Monday's first qualifying round it was expected that a 150 total would be the qualifying limit. Off their opening-day scores, that would put at least eight Yanks into the tournament proper.

In addition to Conrad and Nelson, the Americans with an excellent chance of making the grade are Ed Furgol of Clayton, Mo.; Jimmy McHale of Wynnewood, Pa.; George Fazio and Mort Dutra, both of Los Angeles; Mike Krak of Weirton, W. Va.; and Harrell Kirkpatrick of Greenville, N. C.

Fazio and Dutra shot 70's, Furgol a 71, Krak a 72 and Kirkpatrick a 73, all on the new course. McHale had an impressive 70 on the old course.

Ed Lowery of San Francisco, who had an opening round 75; Jack Munger of Dallas (76); Johnny Bulla of Pittsburgh (77) and O. F. Woodward of Grosse Pointe, Mich., were given only outside chances of making the grade. All shot on the old course Monday.

W. A. Wickliffe of Greenville, N. C. (78); Calvin Cook of Steubenville, Ohio (89); and Bob Lutz of Clearwater, Fla. (89) were expected to be eliminated.

Salem Beats Tri-City

By UNITED PRESS
Split it any way you want, the Salem Senators don't seem to mind.

Salem, first-half winners in the Northwest League, got off to a flying start as the second-half chase opened yesterday with 21-11 and 8-2 decisions over Tri-City.

Spokane edged Yakima 5-4 in one game but Yakima took the Indians 7-4 in the only other games played. A scheduled Wenatchee-Lewiston twin bill at Lewiston was postponed because of rain.

Salem rattled 21 hits off three Tri-City hurlers to win the opener with ease. Gene Tanselli, Don Frailey and Bill Shields each hit homers for the Oregonians.

Jr. Legion Drops Two At K. Falls

The Central Point-Medford Junior American Legion baseball team dropped a twin-bill at Klamath Falls Sunday, losing the first game, 3 to 2, in eight innings, and the second, 4 to 1.

CP-Medford collected six hits off Klamath's Donn Taucher in the first game, but failed to group hits effectively, pushing across runs in the third and fifth innings. Meunier walked in the third, advanced on a sacrifice and stolen base and scored on an error.

The local Legion tallied its final run in the fifth when Sides tripled and scored on a fielder's choice.

Klamath, which scored two runs in the fourth, tallied the winning run in the eighth when Jerry Bramwell walked, advanced on a stolen base and scored on a single.

CP-Medford's lone run in the second game came when Eckel was hit by a pitched ball, moved to third on passed balls and scored on a single.

Sides went the distance for CP-Medford in the first contest giving up three hits, fanning four and walking eight. Taucher struck out five and walked two.

Hermann gave up seven hits in the second game, while he and his teammates collected five safeties off Klamath Falls' Carney.

Beavers Beat Oaks Twice, 3-0, and 3-2

Oakland, Calif. — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers beat Oakland twice yesterday, 3-0, on Bon Alexander's eight hit pitching and 3-2 in the nightcap when Carl Powis scored in the 12th inning on a fielder's choice.

Joe Taylor hit a two-run single to spark Portland's first victory and figured in the scoring of the winning run in the scheduled seven inning nightcap.

Powis doubled in the 12th inning to start the rally against Al Gettel who went all the way for the Oaks. Powis advanced on an infield out and Taylor was purposely passed. Then Ed Mickelson grounded to shortstop Russ Rose who threw to second to force Taylor as Powis tallied.

Royce Lint went the distance to gain the victory.

Score on Singles
Portland scored its first two runs in the opening frame on singles by Artie Wilson, Taylor and Mickelson and a walk.

Lint blanked the Oaks until the fifth when Rose singled and scored after an infield out and Gettel's single. Gettel later scored on Johnny Jorgensen's double.

The runs ended 21 scoreless innings for the Oaks.

The two pitchers duelled until the top of the 12th when the Beavs got their winning run. Gettel fanned eight men.

In the opener, Portland scored all of its runs in the sixth inning, off loser Karl Drews.

Wilson opened with a single and Powis rapped one of his two doubles for the game. Then Taylor rapped a single to score both runners. Mickelson singled Taylor to third and Don Eggert brought him home with a sacrifice fly.

Alexander fanned five and walked two and was in serious trouble only in the fourth when the Oaks had men on second and third with one out.

But Bill Consolo grounded out, the runners holding their bases. Russ Rose grounded to short and Jim Marshall was thrown out at the plate. Len Neal fled out to end the threat.

The shutout in the first game extended Oakland's run drought to 17 consecutive innings.

Lowly Sacramento also scored a double victory, beating San Francisco 7-4 and 2-1 thanks to timely home runs by Harry Bright and Buddy Heslet.

Elsewhere in the loop, Hollywood trounced league-leading San Diego, 13-6, but dropped the nightcap, 8-6, while Los Angeles divided a pair of close ones, the Angeles taking the first game, 5-4, and the Rainiers winning the second, 2-1, in the 10th inning.

All teams rest today as a result of the holiday doubleheaders.

Gettchell On NW Cup Team

Portland — (U.P.) — Four of Oregon's top amateur golf stars have been named to the Northwest team for the annual Morse Cup matches next week end at Seattle.

The Oregonians are Walker Cuppers Bruce Cudd and Dick Yost; Oregon Amateur champion George Beechler of Ontario, and Phil Gettchell of Medford.

Rounding out the Northwest team which will match strokes with a California team are Bob Fleming, Victoria, B. C.; Erv Parent and Harry Givan, Seattle; Lyle Crawford, Vancouver, B. C., and Rod Funseth, Spokane.

Bick Wins Southern Oregon Golf Title

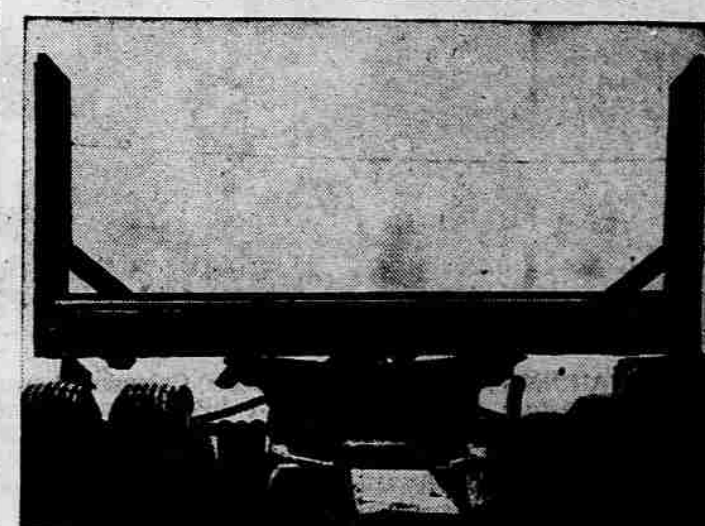

Coos Bay — (U.P.) — Don Bick of Coos Bay defeated Bob Norquist of Portland, 2 and 1, yesterday to win the Southern Oregon Golf championship at the Coos Country Club.

Alice Hammer, 16 - year - old Myrtle Point girl, won the women's medal play title with a 176-stroke total.
