Billy Graham May Preach in Moscow

Gothenburg, Sweden—(U.P.)—Billy Graham may make arrangements tonight to preach in Moscow.

The American evangelist, who has had audiences with two queens on his current European tour, expects to make another command performance before a group of Russian churchmen.

This audition may convince the Russians to invite the 37-year-old revivalist to preach behind the Iron Curtain.

Graham has often expressed the desire to conduct a crusade behind the Iron Curtain "if I am invited."

Jerry Beavan, Graham's right-hand man, said Swedish church leaders in charge of tonight's service told Graham the Russian Baptists were interested in getting the American into their country.

The Swedes said a Soviet delegate was due in this port city today and likely would attend tonight's meeting. Graham's only appearance in Sweden. They said the Russians probably would forward the invitation after the service.

Santa Barbara Festival Board Announces Ball

Santa Barbara—Invitations are out to select music-loving society leaders from Seattle to San Diego to Galveston to New York for the opening social event of the Pacific Coast Music Festival's 1955 season in Santa Barbara—the Bal d'Elegance—which will honor and applaud the appointment of Leopold Stokowski as music director and conductor.

Set for the evening of Friday, July 8, the Bal d'Elegance truly will be a red carpet affair; yards and yards of red velvet will extend from the inside door of the Santa Barbara Biltmore's Coral casino, one of the most beautiful spas in America, to the ballroom and the International room. "The whole Casino will represent a crimson 18th Century scene," said John T. deBlois Wack, chairman of the ball committee. "Scarlet fabrics will dominate the gorgeous setting; posts will become decorated pillars with flowers and garlands of leaves.

"The festival itself will be held from September 10 through 18 and guests from coast to coast attending the ball will be able to contribute to the success of America's newest symphony orchestra under the baton of Leopold Stokowski," he said.

The Bal d'Elegance will begin with cocktails at 7:30 when aperitifs are served in the cabanas around the blue, tiled Olympic pool and at tables on the terrace. During the cocktail hour there will be music and a sensational water ballet and aquacade from the Los Angeles Athletic club.

Dinner will be at 9 o'clock, followed by dancing to two orchestras, including the nationally-known Elliott Brothers M-G-M recording orchestra. Entertainment highlights of the evening will include an auction and a gala show featuring William Meigs, singing star of "Call Me Mister," and staged by Hollywood producer Joe Rines.

Other members of the ball committee are: General Pierpont Morgan Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Sherman, Mrs. Donald Balch, Mrs. Dorothy Earl, Mrs. Wilson Forbes, Mrs. Horace Gray, Mrs. Edmund Katenkamp, Mrs. M. Landreth Kelleher, Mrs. L. W. Lewis, Mrs. Kent Parrot and Mrs. Louis Soles.

Creating the decor for the Casino, the dining room, the International room and the ballroom are Mrs. Pierpont Morgan Hamilton and Peter Wolf of Santa Barbara's famed "Party Line."

Wisconsin Women Edit New Dairy Cookbook

Hartford, Wis.—(U.P.)—The women of Washington county are doing their bit to reduce the dairy products surplus by promoting their use.

Their weapon in the "battle of the surplus" is a new cookbook called Washington County Dairy Desserts. It is expected to be off the presses soon.

The book contains the best of the recipes submitted by more than 500 members of Homemakers clubs in a county-wide contest. The county home agent, Miss Myra Fierek, promoted the contest in which 40 clubs competed for top honors.

The main contest requirement, of course, was that the desserts must contain milk, cream or cheese—or any combination of these. The homemakers dreamed up new concoctions and held run-off contests within their clubs. Then the 40 club winners met at Hartford for the championship bake-off.

Mrs. Gilbert Arnold won the top prize with an invention called "heavenly pie." It featured a blend of butter, milk and whipped cream in a base of graham cracker crumbs.
