Joint Funeral Arranged Thursday For Linn Couple

Ashland — Joint funeral services will be held Thursday, July 7, at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist church at Ashland for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Creighton Linn, who were killed Sunday evening when their private plane crashed as they approached the Fossil, Ore., airport. The Rev. Ross Knotts will officiate. Interment will be in Mt. View cemetery. Litwiller funeral home is in charge.

Mr. Linn was a son of the Ashland school district superintendent, Leland P. Linn, and Mrs. Linn. She was a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Brown of Mrytle Creek. Both were active in the Methodist church.

Married in February

The couple has lived in Ashland since their wedding last Feb. 19, and he had been employed by the city of Ashland. They planned to leave soon for Alaska where he was to have flown this summer for the Cordova Air lines. He was a pilot last summer for the same company.

The Linns left Roseburg last Sunday afternoon for Fossil to visit with her sister, Mrs. Jean Roark, and to attend a family reunion before their departure for Alaska.

Mrs. Linn was thrown clear of the plane but was unconscious and died en route to the Heppner hospital. He was still in the plane and it is believed he died instantly. He was an experienced pilot with hundreds of hours of flying time and was known as a conservative pilot.

Mr. Linn was born in Myrtle point, Feb. 28, 1927 and attended grade and high school there. He served with the Army in Germany, later attending Southern Oregon and Oregon State colleges. His wife also had attended Southern Oregon college, and had taught in Medford schools. She was the former Miss Edythe Brown.

Brother and Sister

Mr. Linn's other survivors are a brother, Phillip, Stockton, Cal., and a sister, Mrs. Charles Eliason of San Jose, Cal.

Mrs. Linn was born May 31, 1934 at East Coulee, Alberta, Can.

Her survivors in addition to her parents, are a brother, Wesley, John Day, and four sisters, Mrs. David Smith, Tygh Valley, Ore., Mrs. Oliver Calhoun, La Grande, Mrs. William Fisher, Redondo Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Roark, Fossil. A grandmother, Mrs. S. P. Brown, Jamieson, Ore., also survives.

Stockmen To Continue 4-H Scholarship Plan

The Jackson County Stockmen's association board of directors last night voted to continue sponsoring a $25 scholarship to send a 4-H boy to a week-end campment in eastern Oregon. The school is sponsored by the Northwest Section of the American Society of Range Management.

The directors also agreed to compile a list of Jackson county beef cattle and sheep which may be offered for sale on markets this fall. The list will help attract more buyers to the area, they feel.
