

WANT TO BEAT THE HEAT?—Then head for Squaw Valley, Cal., site of the 1960 Winter Olympics, like Jack Beglen and Leni Lacoce (above). They're getting in a little July skiing on the slopes above Squaw Valley Lodge where there is still plenty of snow to enjoy the winter sport in summer.

On The Side

Some people continue to claim the cost of living is just as high in London and other places in Great Britain as it is here. That claim I can't go for. Why, sir, the most recent statistics reveal the average weekly wage of those engaged in British manufacturing industry is the equivalent of $15 a week. Imagine a man in New York, Chicago, Detroit and other of our major cities trying to support a wife and several children on $15 a week.

Horses and Women

Woman has mastery of man because he does not understand her. So says Professor Sheldon of Yale University. However, gentlemen, be not too depressed by the good professor's statement. As you know, our horses and women experts are ever at work doing research that will aid you in understanding women. At present they are trying to understand why women with large round faces wear small hats flat on their heads. The question seems to have them baffled. Their reports have been most vague and unsatisfactory. I may subject our horses and women department to a shakeup. I have reason to suspect that many of the men in the department spend much more time trying to understand horses than they do women.

Gaelic Coffee

Is "Gaelic coffee" on the menu of your favorite restaurant? In case you don't know, Gaelic coffee is a mixture of Irish whiskey, whipped cream and coffee. Jack Koeppler, operator of San Francisco's Buena Vista Cafe, put Gaelic coffee on his menu some time ago. He now sells 250,000 cups of it yearly. It is the most profitable item on his card.

Asking

Queries from clients: Q.—What was the name of Joe Santley's vaudeville partner? A.—Ivy Sawyer. And a very cute little trick she was... Q.—Who popularized the song titled "Sprinkle Me With Kisses So My Love Will Grow"? A.—Evelyn Nesbit... Q.—How old is the Flatiron Building? What is the poem about the wind blowing the skirts of passing females "sky high"? A.—Building you mention is 53 years old. All of the poem you refer to I remember is, "The wind blows the ladies' skirts sky high, but the Lord is just and sends the dust to blow in the bad man's eye."

Among the Married

British husbands continue to have the matrimonial situation well in hand. Most Englishwomen don't even know how much their husband's salaries amount to. The husband gives his wife a "housekeeping allowance" and if she doesn't keep her budget balanced life becomes very unpleasant for her. Another British custom which shows to what extent the male dominates the domestic scene is that many business organizations there stage office parties and dances to which the wives of the employees are not invited! So, while the husbands dance the night away with the office "oomph girls" the wives sit on their hands at home. That's really being subdued and dominated.

Please Note

A Californian who has had four successful births by the Caesarian method says she was "up and walking around" at the hospital one and a half days after each birth. Two weeks after each birth she returned to her work. She is a professional ice skater!

Best

Cape Cod oysters are the best. Coney Island clam chowder is tops. Maine lobsters are superior to all the rest. How about crabs? How about Maryland soft-shell crabs? Or Florida stone crabs? Or would your vote go to Pacific Dungeness crabs? Or Alaska king crabs? It is very difficult to make a selection.

Eisenhower Tackles Heavy July Schedule

Washington — (U.P.) — President Eisenhower put away his holiday memories and buckled down yesterday to a grinding July schedule that will include the Big Four Conference and the possible windup of Congress.

For unexplained reasons, Mr. Eisenhower ended his holiday weekend stay at the presidential retreat in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains six hours earlier than originally planned and returned to the White House shortly after midnight.

Mrs. Eisenhower did not return with him. She has been at Camp David or their Gettysburg, Pa., farm since June 10.

Target Tow Plane Crashes; Two Killed

El Paso, Tex. — (U.P.) — A B26 target towing plane crashed and burned in the desert yesterday 15 miles southeast of the El Paso International Airport killing two men aboard.

The plane was based at Biggs Air Force Base near El Paso. A Biggs spokesman said the plane was on a training mission and was attached to the first two target squadron.

Sailplane Pilots Eye Annual Contest

Elmira, N.Y. — (U.P.) — More than a score of leading sailplane pilots hoped for favorable weather today as the 22nd national soaring contest got under way at nearby Harris Hill.

The event, extending through July 14, was expected to develop some of the keenest competition in years. Various types of high-performance craft were on the ground, ready for launching.

Freight Trains Crash Killing Two Crewmen

Vaughn, N. M. — (U.P.) — Two Santa Fe freight trains collided head-on with terrific force near here yesterday killing five crew members and injuring three others.

The accident occurred at about 1 a.m. (PST) at a switch known as Cardenas Junction about 21 miles east of here.

A tank car of highly inflammable acetate that was behind one of the locomotives covered the engines with fiery liquid. All of the dead were in the locomotives.

A Santa Fe official said the collision occurred when a west-bound train pulled into a siding at the junction to allow an east-bound freight to pass through without making a halt.

But for some reason, the west-bound freight apparently failed to stop and continued on through the siding and back onto the main line where it met the oncoming eastbound freight head-on.

Norblad Calls Attention To Foreign Butter Use

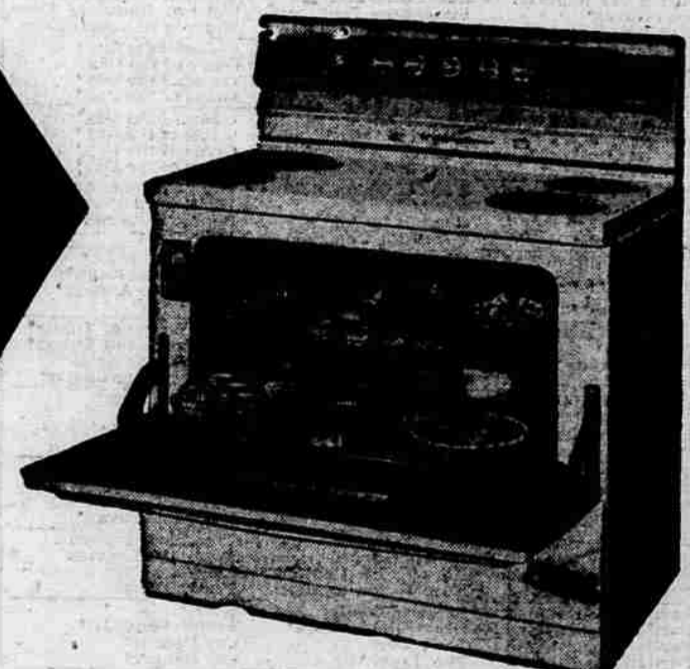

Washington — (U.P.) — Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) said that he had called to the attention of the Secretary of the Army that American servicemen were being served Danish and Australian butter at posts in Japan and Okinawa.

Norblad said he wrote the Secretary that "we do have huge surpluses of butter in this country which should be made available to American troops. This would certainly materially reduce our surplus and be very helpful in the problem facing our department of agriculture."

Washington — (U.P.) — Chairman William Martin Jr., of the Federal Reserve Board has recommended that government approval be required before a bank holding company can acquire more than five per cent of a bank's stock.
