

Rest Works Wonders for Mays; Homers Spark Win Over Pirates

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

A little rest did miracles for Don Newcombe of the Dodgers and it's working even greater wonders today for amazing Willie Mays of the Giants.

Mays, whose batting average dipped as low as .267 last month, has looked like an entirely new ball player since returning to action June 21 after he was benched for the first time in his life because he was "confused."

All told, the young Giant center fielder who was named the most valuable player in the National League for 1954, has slammed out 22 hits in 60 times up and walloped eight homers since being reinstated into the lineup.

That's a .367 pace and with it, the Giants don't figure to remain in second division much longer.

Mays Hits Two Homers
Willie smashed his 24th and 25th homers of the year while leading the Giants to a lopsided 11-1 triumph over the Pirates Tuesday night. Mays' hitting and Johnny Antonelli's fine four-hit pitching brought back recollections of the Giants' supremacy in the league a year ago.

The league-leading Dodgers, who still keep an eye peeled on the Giants, even though the world champions are 17 games back, dropped their first game of the season in Philadelphia by bowing to the Phillies, 5-4.

Robin Roberts batted in three runs in helping himself to his 12th victory but it was Andy Seminick's two-run homer in the eighth inning that spelled the margin of victory. Roberts was nicked for Duke Snider's 28th homer and finally gave way to Jack Meyer in the ninth when Brooklyn put together four hits for its final two runs.

Meyer came in, however, and retired Gil Hodges for the final out. Cincinnati nipped St. Louis, 5-4, in a game marked by a free-for-all by both clubs that was touched off when rival managers Birdie Tebbets and Harry Walker swapped punches in the ninth-inning single drove in the winning run in the ninth after Ted Kluszewski and Bobby Adams had homered for Cincinnati and Red Schoendienst, Joe Frazier and Bill Virdon had done likewise for St. Louis. Reliever Joe Black was the winner.

The Braves and Cubs were not scheduled.

A's Best Indians
In the only game played in the American League, Hector Lopez' eighth-inning homer off Early Wynn gave Kansas City a 4-3 victory and knocked Cleveland out of second place.

Shortstop Joe DeMaestri ended Wynn's string of 29 scoreless innings when he opened the game with a homer and the Athletics added another run in the first inning. Homers by Al Smith and Jim Hegan tied the score at 3-all off little Bobby Shantz. Tom Gorman, who relieved Shantz in the eighth, gained his fourth triumph while Wynn suffered his third loss.

Major Loop All-Star Skippers Draw Fire After Listing Squads

New York —(U.P.)— Leo Durocher and Al Lopez, rival managers for the 1955 All-Star game, were being bombarded by complaints already today, less than 24 hours after announcing their personnel for the annual mid-summer classic at Milwaukee, July 12.

Durocher was under fire on two counts:
1. He by-passed National League batting leader Richie Ashburn of the Phillies.
2. He appeared to be favoring his own Giants' pitching staff by also passing up veteran Sal Maglie 9-4, a 38-year-old right hander who can use a rest.

Lopez, the Cleveland skipper who will manage the American League All-Stars, also was the target of criticism for passing over first baseman Bill Skowron of the Yankees while selecting six of his own Indian players.

Durocher immediately snapped back at charges that he was giving the "cold shoulder" to Ashburn, who is hitting .342.
"We simply had to have some right-handed hitting to go with all those left-handed hitters picked by the fans," said the annoyed Giant manager.

"I have to start four left-handed hitters—Ted Kluszewski, Eddie Mathews, Duke Snider and Don Mueller—and with Roy Campanella hurt, I might start Smokey Burgess, another left-handed hitter. We're over balanced with left-handed hitters. If I picked Ashburn the American League would have us at a disadvantage."

Durocher said he talked the matter over with National League President Warren Giles and "we felt we had to have some right-handed power on the team to win."

Regarding the charge that he was purposely giving Maglie more rest, Durocher wouldn't dignify it with a reply. He did say, however:
"I went along entirely with the consensus of the other managers on the pitching staff. I did not pick the pitchers myself."

Pitching Staff
Four right-handed pitchers and three southpaws were named to the N. L. squad. The staff was headed by Don Newcombe, Brooklyn's 14-game winner, and the other three right-handers were Robin Roberts (12-7) of the Phillies, Gene Conley (9-5) of the Braves and Sam Jones (9-9) of the Cubs. The left-handers chosen were rookie Luis Arroyo (9-3) of the Cardinals, Joe Nuxhall (8-5) of the Redlegs and Harvey Haddix (5-9) of the Cardinals.

Durocher chose Del Crandall of the Braves and Burgess of the Redlegs to back up Campanella, the catcher selected by the fans. He also designated Gene Baker and Randy Jackson of the Cubs, Stan Musial of the Cards, Gil Hodges of the Dodgers and Johnny Logan of the Braves to augment the fans' infield choices of Red Schoendienst of the Cubs and Mathews and Kluszewski.

In the outfield, Durocher picked his own Willie Mays, Hank Aaron of the Braves and Frank Thomas of the Pirates. The fans chose Duke Snider of the Dodgers, Del Ennis of the Phils and Mueller.

Named as coaches by Durocher were managers Fred Haney of the Pirates and Mayo Smith of the Phillies. Bob Buhl and Chet Nichols of the Braves were designated batting practice pitchers while Coach Bob Keely, also of the Braves, was named batting practice catcher.

The six Cleveland players Lopez picked were pitchers Early Wynn and Herb Score, infielders Bobby Avila and Al Rosen and outfielders Larry Doby and Al Smith.

Lopez Names Two Yankees
While Lopez skipped Skowron, who is hitting .365, he named two other members of the Yankees, right-handed pitcher Bob Turley (10-7) and left-hander Whitey Ford (10-3). Rounding out the American League pitching staff are two White Sox hurlers, right-hander Dick Donovan (8-2) and left-hander Billy Pierce (5-5), southpaw Billy Hoefft (8-3) of the Tigers, and righthanders Frank Sullivan (11-6) of the Red Sox and Jim Wilson (5-8) of the Orioles.

NOTHING THIRD STRAIGHT SHUTOUT, against Chicago White Sox, 1-0 on three-hitter, Cleveland Indian Pitcher Early Wynn is all smiles as he holds ball after game. Earlier he shut out New York Yankees and Baltimore Orioles. He tops American League with 11 won and 2 lost. (International)

Seeded Netters Get by 1st Round
Portland —(U.P.)— Seeded players survived yesterday in the opening rounds of the Oregon state tennis tournament here.

Franklin Johnson of San Diego, top-seeded entry, got into the third round when Dick Rosemurgy of Seattle failed to appear. Emery Neale of Portland, second-seeded, defeated Jon Kettering of Seattle, 6-1, 6-2. Clyde Knox, another Portlander who is seeded third, downed Bob Quall of Spokane 6-2, 6-0.

Jack Neer of Portland, fourth-seeded, had an uphill struggle in defeating Brooks Rawlins of San Francisco 2-6, 6-4, 6-0.

Broncos, Indians Cop Tiffs In NWL
By UNITED PRESS
The Lewiston Broncos, who landed near the bottom of the Northwest League during the first half, landed on two Wednesday pitchers for a 12-6 victory last night.

Spokane topped Yakima 5-2 in the only other league game played. A scheduled Salem-Tri-City game at Kennewick was rained out and Eugene is sitting out a bye.

IT WAS ILLEGAL—At home in West Plains, Mo., Preacher Roe, former Dodger pitching ace from 1948 to 1954, demonstrates pitching form which enabled him to use the illegal spitball—the "money pitch" which kept in the big leagues. He had outstanding combined record of 44-8 for the 1951-52-53 seasons.

Floyd Patterson Battles McBride

New York —(U.P.)— Brooklyn's Floyd Patterson, who has been regarded as a future heavyweight champion by many fistic experts since his amateur days, tangles with his first Marciano-sized rival tonight when he meets Archie McBride in a TV-radio 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Twenty-year-old Patterson, now ranked as the No. 2 contender in the light-heavyweight division was rated a 3½-1 favorite for his first sally into the heavyweight class.

McBride, a solid but unranked ring workman from Trenton, N. J., was expected to tip the scales at about 185 pounds—or approximately the best fighting weight of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, the man Patterson's fans figure he may meet some day in a little fight.
