

Reno Rites Wed Medford Couples; Home From Trip

Mrs. Arvilla Carbiener, Carrigill court, and Frank F. Ewald, Allen hotel, and Mrs. Nell Littrell, 32 Myrtle street, and John J. Beaman, Oakdale avenue, were married in a double wedding ceremony Saturday, July 2 at the First Methodist church in Reno, Nev.

A double-ring ceremony was performed for both couples by the Rev. Stephen C. Thomas, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Carbiener wore a soft blue crystalure taffeta, with petal tucked bodice and full box pleated skirt, ballerina length, with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Littrell's dress was lilac crystalure, full ballerina length. The long torso was embroidered in a contrasting shade of peach and she had matching accessories. A peach orchid served as her corsage.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast took place at the Mapes hotel, after which the couples traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewald are now at home at Carrigill court, and Mr. and Mrs. Beaman at Myrtle street.

A dental assistant for Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, Mrs. Ewald is the daughter of Mrs. Herman A. Diestler, 825 Bennett avenue.

Mr. Ewald is employed at Ober Logging company and Mr. Beaman at White City.

Cottage Grove Church Scene of Wedding Rites

Cottage Grove — The bridegroom's cousin, the Rev. Robert Kunz, officiated at Cottage Grove ceremonies that united in marriage Miss Dorothy Maxine Rutherford, Medford, and Fred Currie Kunz, Yreka, Calif., last June 25.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Louise Rutherford, 103 Genesee street, and A. J. Rutherford, Gardena, Calif. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kunz, Coquille.

Cottage Grove Lutheran church was the scene of the double ring ceremony, attended by family members and close friends of the couple. A reception was held afterwards at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Kunz.

The bride wore a street length pink nylon dress with full skirt. Her corsage was a white orchid. The bride was attended by her mother, who wore a pastel blue suit and pastel carnations. The bridegroom's mother also chose pastel carnations for her corsage.

Best man for Mr. Kunz was his father.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the couple will make their home in Yreka.

Mr. Kunz is employed by the Lorenz company, Yreka, as a salesman, and the bride has been employed by Pinnacle Packing company here.

Newly Wedded Couple On Trip to Victoria, B. C.

Now on a wedding trip to Victoria, British Columbia, following their recent marriage here are Gary James Pree and his bride, the former Miss Eleanor Dale Davis.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Davis, 384 O'Gara street, and Mr. Pree, son of James Pree, 2612 Howard street, and of Mrs. D. N. Sanders, Seattle, were married last Sunday, July 3, at 2 p.m., in the First Methodist church. The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon conducted the double ring ceremony and Mr. Davis gave his daughter in marriage. About 100 guests attended.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a rose petal lace jacket. As "something old," she wore an Irish fillet crocheted lapel ornament that had been worn by her maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Savella Davidson, at the golden wedding anniversary in 1913 of Mrs. Davidson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Braudus. The bride's pearl earrings and necklace were gifts of the bridegroom and his grandmother, Mrs. Dora Mae Hilton, respectively. She carried white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. The bride's veil was loaned by Mrs. Segur, the former Miss Marie Laird, whose wedding was an event of last year in Medford. White gladiolus decorated the church and pew ends were marked with pastel gladiolus.

For the wedding Mrs. Davis wore navy and white with white accessories, and Mrs. Sanders wore a toast-colored lace gown with toast accessories. A white carnation corsage was worn by each.

Bridal attendants, wearing pastel ballerina dresses with matching lace jackets and headbands and carrying colonial nosegays, were Miss Barbara Pree, the bridegroom's sister, maid of honor; and bridesmaids Misses Judy Pree, Seattle, another sister of the bridegroom; Rita Rose, Hope Herriott, cousin of the bride; and Lanora Kyker, Pamela McCoy and Rene Roethler were flower girl and ring bearer. Mrs. Charles Champlin sang wedding songs.

Edmond Dean Davis, brother of the bride, served as Mr. Pree's best man. Ushers were Thomas Tilton, William Kennedy and Wayne Hackett, Medford; and Verner McCall, Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis held a reception at the church following the ceremony. Mrs. John W. Gordon, Sacramento, the bride's aunt, served the wedding cake. Miss Delores Mercer displayed the wedding gifts and Mrs. Verner McCall took charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Sanders and daughter Miss Judy Pree, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gordon the bride's aunt and uncle and sons Larry, Gary and Michael, Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Neske, the bride's aunt and uncle, San Fernando, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray West, the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Seattle; Mrs. Anna Taylor, the bridegroom's grandmother, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Limer, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom and daughters Susan and Lee Anna, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. David Segur, Oakland, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Popkin, Grants Pass.

The bride, whose home has been Medford all her life, is a graduate of Medford Senior High school. The bridegroom attended Seattle schools and is also a graduate of Medford High school. The couple will live in Medford at 607 West 11th street.
