(Heimbecker studio, Langdon, N.D.)

Couple Now Living in Medford After North Dakota Ceremony

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Morgan, recently married in Langdon, N.D., are now residing in Medford at 20 Laurel street. The bride is the former Miss Rhena E. Blair, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blair of Maida, N.D., and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morgan, Gold Hill.

The wedding, a candlelight, double ring ceremony, took place June 15 in the Presbyterian church of Langdon. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a Queen Anne's ballerina length embroidered organza gown with a standup collar. Her chapel-length veil also was of organza and had a pearl headress. Her bouquet was of Pinnocchio rosebuds with a white orchid which she carried on a white Bible.

July First Rites Wed Rosa Clark, John H. Masters

John Henry Masters and Rosa Irene Clark were married July 1 at the Medford Full Gospel tabernacle. The Rev. Don Garner officiated. About 40 guests attended.

Maid of honor and best man were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bray. The bride wore a white nylon dress with corsage of white Ester Reed daisies. The maid of honor was dressed in black with white accessories, and her corsage was of white daisies.

A reception after the wedding was held at the church, given by Mrs. Garner and Mrs. Leonard Stevenson.

They now reside at the bridegroom's home, 832 Humphrey street.

Women Golfers Hold Meeting; Trophy Donated

About 80 lady golfers attended a luncheon and business meeting of the women's golf association Thursday at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Warren Lesseg, general chairman, introduced Mrs. Joe Johnson, general chairman of the Grants Pass lady golfers.

Harold A. Johnson of Grants Pass has donated a trophy to be given the winner of two consecutive team wins. Medford lady golfers won the first match, the second to be played in Grants Pass August 10. If Medford is successful again, they gain permanent possession of the trophy.

The next WVSQ play will be June 20 at the Eugene Country club in Eugene. Mrs. Bell Schenck informed the group that those who go to Eugene should have reservations in by July 16.

Gardeners Make Plans for Fall District Meeting

Eagle Point—The Eagle Point Federated garden club met July 6 at the home of Mrs. John Carnes. Purpose of the meeting was to plan a district convention to be held in the Eagle Point Grange hall, September 29, for which the Eagle Point and Butte Falls clubs will be joint hosts.

Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald introduced a committee of three, Mrs. Frank Carson, Mrs. Ralph Conrad, and Mrs. Harry Dalton of the Butte Falls club and tentative arrangements were made for entertaining the 250 expected guests.

Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald and Mrs. Cliff Green reported on assistance, the Eagle Point club offered a newly organized group at Camp White. Thanks were extended Mrs. William Perry and Mrs. Cal Lusk for decorating the chapel.

Butte Falls club invited Eagle Point members to a picnic in their town, July 19. Mrs. Lawrence Messal reported on a trip to a recent state convention.

Next meeting of the Eagle Point club will be a picnic to be held August 3 in Ashland park. Meat and ice cream will be provided. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Delegate Gives Convention News

Mrs. Chester Jines gave a report of the 8th International convention held at Wichita, Kan., of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority during a meeting Wednesday of Alpha Lambda chapter members. Mrs. Robert Barbee, 197 Clover lane, was hostess.

Mrs. Jines attended as a delegate from Oregon and was a candidate for second vice-president. She showed a copper work display of Beta Epsilon chapter, Portland, which won first prize for the best study project displayed at the convention. This was the second time an Oregon chapter has won such an award, the previous award going to a chapter in Pendleton.

Mary Berriman Bride of Richard Delano Roberts

Jacksonville — Miss Mary Susan Berriman became the bride of Richard Delano Roberts at St. Mark's Episcopal church June 25. The Rev. Robert Franz Burger officiated for the 8 o'clock evening ceremony. About 35 guests attended.

Miss Berriman, until recently employed in the offices of the Medford hotel, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Job Berriman, Jacksonville. The bridegroom, who is a member of a long time Jackson county family, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lee Roberts of Central Point. He is a sergeant in the Army and the couple left for their wedding trip to Ft. Campbell, Ky., where he is stationed. He is a radio chief.

The bride's sisters, Mrs. E. O. Graham, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Donald Sanford, here from Sacramento, Calif., for the occasion, were the attendants.

James Lee Roberts, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride wore a plain white suit with navy blue accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Mr. Berriman gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Sanford both wore navy blue suits with white accessories and their corsages were of white carnations.

Baskets of snapdragons and white daisies were used to decorate the altar.

The bride's mother was dressed in lavender and the bridegroom's mother wore a black dress. Both had white accessories and Mrs. Berriman's corsage was of white carnations, while Mrs. Roberts had red carnations.

The Medford hotel Rogue room was scene of the reception. Mrs. Byron V. Turner cut the cake and Mrs. Bryant Sanford presided at the punch bowl. Arrangements of snapdragons and daisies decorated the room.

The bride is a graduate of the Jacksonville high school and the bridegroom is a Central Point high school graduate.

Miss Berriman was honored at three events given by members of the Royal Neighbors of America lodge women; the Rebekah lodge, and the hotel staff. She is a member of both lodge groups.

The RNA members entertained Tuesday, June 21, in the dining hall of the IOOF hall. Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. A. E. Reinking, Mrs. Arthur Davies and Mrs. Rupert Maddox planned the event and about 60 persons attended. Entertainment in the form of a skit was furnished by Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Maddox, Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. Sanford. Several vocal selections were sung by the Maddox sisters. Table decorations were made by Mrs. Reinking who used blue candles with pink rosebuds.

The Rebekah lodge members, with about 20 in attendance, gave a shower on June 6 when Mrs. George Brownlee and Mrs. Louis Jones made up the committee.

At both showers the bride was given many presents. The hotel staff presented Miss Berriman a gift of luggage when they gathered Wednesday, June 23, to honor their co-worker.
