

Ted Williams, Mick Mantle Display Punch As Red Sox Score Victory, Yankees Divide

By FRED DOWN United Press Sports Writer The American league All-Stars are supposed to lack the punch of their National league rivals but don't be surprised if Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle & Co., turn Tuesday's 22nd mid-summer classic into a slugfest.

In the National league, All-Star pitcher Gene Conley and rookie Luis Arroyo came through handsomely to score their 11th and 10th wins respectively.

7-6, on Wally Post's two-run ninth inning homer and leave the Braves 1 1/2 games out of first place despite a 17-7 pace since June 16.

Willie Mays singled through Brooklyn's drawn-in infield to cap a two-run ninth-inning rally that gave the New York Giants a 3-2 decision over the Dodgers. Paul Giel gained credit for his second major league win as the Dodgers suffered their seventh loss in 13 games.

SPORTS PCL Batting Averages Drop; Portland Wins

By DON THACKREY United Press Sports Writer Batting averages in the Pacific Coast League took a sudden drop Sunday, but then so did the San Diego Padres and the San Francisco Seals.

over Seattle shaved to two games. Sacramento got mileage from its 13 hits and plastered San Francisco 4-2 and 2-1.

There was one 1-0 game, three 2-1 games, four four-hits, two shutouts and out of 16 scores—12 were two runs or less.

Oakland split with Portland by virtue of Charlie Beamon's 1-0 win in the opener. In the second game Portland checked in with 13 runs and 14 hits for the day's high and a 13-1 victory. The Los Angeles Angels won 2-1 from Seattle and then lost 6-0.

The Padres lost a game off their league lead by making 19 hits produce only two runs and taking a double loss. And the Seals lost a pair and thudded into the cellar despite the fact that their pitchers gave up only 13 hits in the doubleheader.

Garber Allows 8 Hits Bob Garber pitched an eight-hitter in the first game for Hollywood to best John Carmichael. Gene Freese homered for the winners.

The Pads took 4-1 and 2-1 losses from Hollywood and wound up with their league lead

In the second game Ed Erault pitched a four hitter while the Pads managed 11 blows off Red Munger and George O'Donnell, but the Stars got the runs and won a 2-1 decision.

Chet Johnson got the win in the first game with San Francisco as each team got eight hits. Then in the second game Mariano Pieretti and Maurice Fisher tangled in a pitching duel. The Seals got six hits and one unearned run off Pieretti and the Solons won by getting two runs on five hits. One of the hits was a solo homer by Rufe Crawford.

Virgil Trucks and Sandy Consuegra combined in a five-hitter to give the Chicago White Sox a 4-2 triumph after the Indians won the opener, 5-2. All-Star rookie Herb Score suffered the second-game loss for Cleveland although Bob Nieman's two-run homer off Mike Garcia actually produced the winning runs. In the opener, Art Houtteman gained credit for his sixth win with relief help from Don Mossi and Ray Narleski.

Allen Van Alstyne homered as the first Oakland batter of the afternoon and that was all the scoring Beamon needed in a brilliant four-hit shutout. It was the first whitewash job by an Oakland pitcher this season. Glenn Elliott held the Oaks to six hits, but took the loss. Beamon, a 20-year-old rookie from the California League, was making his first appearance of the year for Oakland.

Lead Upped By Glendale Glendale stretched its lead in the Rogue Valley baseball league on Sunday while the Grants Pass Stars pulled into a tie with Camp White for second place. Glendale whipped Ashland 11 to 7, Grants Pass clubbed Camp White 14 to 9 and Butte Falls smeared Eagle Point 24 to 4 around the circuit.

Portland Gets Revenge Portland gained a measure of revenge in the nightcap by punning Hector Brown, Bud Black and Fred Besana while Dick Waibel pitched a four-hitter at the Acorns.

Trabert Heavy Tennis Favorite Atlanta (U.P.)—Wimbledon champion Tony Trabert ruled a heavy favorite today as the National Clay Courts tennis championships got under way with a field of 110-entries in the men's singles.

The Angels won a 2-1 decision in the first game with Seattle as Don Elston bested Howie Judson in a duel. The Angels got six hits to seven for the Rainiers.

Trabert was in Washington today while Richardson was en route from Sweden by plane and due in tonight.

In the second game Elmer Singleton pitched a four-hit shutout while the Rainiers got six runs, three of them unearned.

Neer, Neale In Net Final Portland (U.P.)—Jack Neer led the way into the all-Portland final round of the Oregon State tennis championships today after dominating Franklyn Johnson 6-1, 0-6, 6-0, 6-2 in the semifinals yesterday.

Johnson had been seeded No. 1 in the tourney after his Island Empire tournament victory.

Smith Cops ATA Handicap Salem (U.P.)—Byron Smith of Harrisburg took the main event of the state ATA trapshooting tournament here yesterday by scoring a perfect 25 in the second round of a three-gun shoot-off.

Smith, Pete Wheelhouse of Arlington and C. Fischback of Sherwood had tied with scores of 97 in the battle for the Oregon handicap title.

Neer, Neale In Net Final (Continued) Fred Mauser of The Dalles was the all-around champion with 382 hits in 400 shots. Hank Peters of Sublimity with 379 was runner-up.

Ernie Peiper got California's only point of the day when he defeated Erv Parent, 1 up.

Tommy Bolt Golf Champ St. Paul, Minn. (U.P.)—Tommy Bolt, the reformed "bad boy" was the new St. Paul Open champion today because he confined his "thunder" to his drives.

George Beecher, Ontario, Oregon Golf association champ, and Phil Getchell, Medford, OGA runner-up, were the only Northwest team to nab a match Saturday in two-ball foursomes. They beat Jack Bariteau and Ernie Peiper, both San Jose, Calif., 3 and 2.

Washington Studs Top Medford Twice in Week End Encounters

With exception of Pitcher Monte Geiger, the Washington Cheney Studs didn't consistently or fully flash their reputed "civil war" series with the Medford Cheney Studs but they proved sufficient opportunists to sweep the pair of "intramural baseball conflicts" at the fairgrounds here.

Seattle's highly publicized Centerfielder Carr swatted only two for nine for the series but patrolled the outer pasture in fine style except for his futile try on Selsor's 10th inning blow Sunday. He struckout four times.

Medford will play Crescent City here on Friday night.

Geiger handcuffed Medford with a three-hitter Saturday night while the Seattle-Tacoma contingent had two big innings of four and three runs to bounce the Medfords 9 to 2. On Sunday the Washingtonians got the advantage of a dropped fly ball in the extra 10th inning and surged for three runs for an 8 to 6 decision over their southern Oregon foes.

Sunday's battle was a wild, loose affair and the Medfords pretty much had themselves to blame for not coming out on top. Nevertheless, the Puget Sounders were guilty of eight miscues to Medford's four and five of them figured tabulating runs. They took advantage of three Medford misplays, seven of their 11 hits and three of their eight walks in getting markers. Score Tied 5-All 1
