

Major League Star Fracas on Tuesday

Robin Roberts and little Billy Pierce were named the starting pitchers today for the 22nd annual All-Star game here tomorrow.

Roberts was Durocher's choice despite the fact that Don Newcombe has a 14-1 pitching record and a hitting mark some batters would steal for.

Makes No Difference
"It doesn't make any difference whether we pick lefties or righties," Durocher said, "because the American League batting order is very well balanced."

Durocher could not be censored for choosing a workhorse like Roberts in any event. This is the sixth All-Star game for Roberts, who owns 115 victories during the past five years and has a 12-7 record this year.

Lopez earlier hesitated on naming his probable choice. "I haven't even thought about it," he said. And then he said it probably would be Early, Wynn, Pierce or Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees. Ford apparently was ruled out, however, by his start against Washington Sunday.

Favored Starting Wynn
Lopez might have feared starting Wynn would bring more of the criticism he got by selecting six of his Cleveland players as alternates. Any such criticism would be hard to justify, looking back over Wynn's performance which has netted an 11-4 record to date.

The advance weather outlook was for partly cloudy skies with moderate temperatures in the high 70's. Odds which previously favored the National League by 7-5 had dropped to 11-10.

This stacked up to be the most colorful All-Star game with baseball mad Milwaukee soaring to even greater heights in a full week of All-Star festival events.

The game will be televised by NBC and broadcast by MBS. More than 45,000 fans are expected. The American League holds a 13-8 series edge but lost four of the last five, winning last year, 11-9, at Cleveland.

ED HOGAN VICTOR

Prineville — (U.P.) — Eddie Hogan of Portland's Riverside course was tops for the pros with a 64 here yesterday at the Prineville Pro-Amateur golf tournament. Owen Panner took the amateur prize with a 64 gross on the 68-par course. To help win his share of the $2500 prize money, Hogan hit the pin in one shot on the 3-par 18th hole.

Owner, Player Baseball Meet Could Be Vital

Milwaukee, Wis. — (U.P.) — The official announcement called it "strictly social," but Warren Spahn of the Braves said the meetings of player representatives with club owners today could be the most important in history for the players.

"We'll map advance details for the pension committee in regard to the new World Series television contract to be signed," Spahn said. "The pension fund gets 60 per cent of it and I wouldn't be staggered by a contract of near $5,000,000 a year."

The old five-year television contract on the World Series runs out this year, Spahn said. "That was for $6,000,000 total but television was in its infancy when it was signed."

Using Spahn's estimate, the player's pension fund would get 60 per cent of $25,000,000 over the five-year period, enough to keep all "vested" veterans from fading away.

Spahn explained that the only players now eligible for pensions of $100 per month after the age of 50 were those "vested" with five years of major league experience.

CP-Meds Rap Ashland 2-1, 7-2 To Annex District Legion Toga

Central Point-Medford was crowned District 44 American Legion junior baseball champion Sunday after two highly satisfying triumphs over the tough Ashland contingent.

The CP-Medfords confined all their scoring to fifth innings and the runs proved sufficient when they got two hit pitching performances from Duane Sides from Medford high and Fred Herrmann of Crater high for 7 to 2 and 2 to 1 triumphs.

Herrmann struck out six batters and didn't walk a man in his seven-inning tour of the second game. Ron Weinhold's triple after an error gave Ashland its lone marker.

Errors also figured in both scores for Ashland in the first tussle in which Sides whiffed seven and walked two. An error, sacrifice by Bob Alley and Phil Swords hit got Gordy Thoreson in for one run. A couple of miscues, a fielder's choice and two stolen bases enabled Jim McAbee to cross with the other.

Reinking Drives in Runs
A walk to Herrmann, a single by Larry Perkins, and sacrifice by Gordon Owsley set the stage for Ed Reinking to single in both CP-Medford runs in the second game.

Three hits and six Ashland miscues helped the CP-Meds to their counters in the opener. Perkins, Paul Eckel and Sides got the hits. There were two walks

Bystanders Act Quickly To Move Flaming Car

Cortina D'Ampozzo, Italy — (U.P.) — Quick action by bystanders in hauling a burning racing car off the course with their bare hands apparently prevented Sunday's racing tragedy here, which took the life of driver Piero Valenzano, from claiming other lives.

Valenzano, 31-year-old Italian driver, had covered only four kilometers in the "Golden Cup" Dolomites auto classic when he missed a curve and crashed.

Valenzano's 2,000 cc Maserati overturned on the road and he was thrown out.

Dupas Takes On Paddy DeMarco

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Ralph Dupas, the speedy 20-year-old top ranked lightweight contender who has his eyes mostly on the championship, meets former champion Paddy DeMarco in a scheduled 10 rounder at Municipal Auditorium tonight.

It is Dupas' last attempt in avenging his only 6 losses in 65 professional starts.

DeMarco, before he became champion, took a split decision from the local "native dancer" here Jan. 1, 1954. That was Dupas' first 10 round fight and he claimed he started too slow to make sure he could go the distance.

Dupas was a 3-1 favorite today.

New York — (U.P.) — Young Tony Anthony will test his speed and punch tonight against aggressive Tony Johnson's ruggedness in their TV lighthweight 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Anthony, former national amateur middleweight champion, is favored at 3-1 over his fellow New Yorker.

Swaps Coasts To 8th Straight Win

Inglewood, Calif. — (U.P.) — Rex C. Ellsworth's Swaps coasted to his eighth straight victory Saturday to strengthen his claim as the top three-year-old in the nation, winning the $57,750 Westerner at Hollywood Park by some half-dozen lengths.

The Kentucky Derby winner was cantering across the finish with Jockey Willie Shoemaker half-standing in the irons but despite the ease of Swaps' win his time was a creditable 2:00.6.

Fabulous Vegas finished second and Jean's Joe was third in the five-horse field but they were never in the race as Swaps led from wire to wire although under a tight hold that almost choked him during the early stages.
