Three Oregon Golfers Win in Publinks Play

Indianapolis, Ind. — (U.P.) — A field of 128 survivors moved into the second round of the 30th annual National Public Links tournament today, and defending champion Gene Andrews was among them—by a whisker.

Andrews, a Pacific Palisades, Calif., insurance salesman, made a fancy comeback Monday to Indianapolis — (U.P.) — Oregon's three entries in the national public links golf tournament came through with open-ended victories yesterday.

Roy Atkins defeated Stan Robert of Phoenix 4 and 3; Bob Parry took James Spencer of St. Louis 2 and 1 and Gene Maidment won from Harry Oates of Tonsawanda, N.Y., 5 and 4. All the Oregon entries are from Portland.

out Wallace Smith, Pontiac, Mich., 1-up in 19 holes over the sunny, tree-lined coffin course.

Andrews, 42, teed off today against Charles Affong, Honolulu. Affong advanced Monday with a 3-and-2 victory over Hans Shulz, Farmington, Mich.

1939 Winner Out
First round victims of this par 70 course noted for its slim fairways and slanted greens included in the only ex-champ in the running—Andrew Szewko, Pittsburgh, the 1939 winner and veteran of 17 tournaments. He was sidelined 2-up by George Weishaar, Spokane, Wash. Weishaar teed off today against William

Eugene Nine Tips Indian Crew 7 to 6
By UNITED PRESS
Relief hurler Bill Griffin had a rough greeting when he entered the Eugene-Spokane game last night but he was still around at the finish.

Griffin came on in the fifth and gave up a one-run homer to the first man to face him, Joe Porter. However, he let the Indians down with but one more hit after that and Eugene got three in the eighth for a 7-6 victory. Cliff Dapper's two-run homer was the clincher.

Don Hopp Wins
Pitcher Don Hopp also had a good night as Tri-City took Lewiston 12-3. Hopp scattered 11 Lewiston hits, homered with the bases empty in the seventh and hit a one-run double in the second.

Wenatchee outlasted Yakima 6-4 after Yakima had taken an early 4-0 lead in the third on a two-run single by Herm Reich, a one-run single by Herm Lewis and a walk with the bases loaded.

Wenatchee tallied twice in the fourth, added one in the sixth on a solo homer by Chuck Lundgren and scored twice, including the eventual winning run, in the seventh.

The Chiefs added an insurance run in the eighth when Herb Anderson singled and later scored on a fielder's choice.

Degen, Buffalo, N.Y. Temperatures were close to 90, but the breeze was generous as 144 swingers from 39 sections ended the first of six 18-hole rounds. The weatherman predicted about the same for today.

First Round Byes
Gus Moreland, Peoria, Ill., and ex-Walker Cupper, Bud Bradley, 18, the 1954 USGA junior titlist from Los Angeles; and Roy Culbrenne, former St. Louis Browns baseball player made their first appearances today. Each drew first round byes.

Moreland faced Dick Hopwood, Phoenix, Ariz., 7-and-6 winner over George Hooley, Peoria, Ill.; Bradley met David Leon, Tucson, Ariz., who conquered Norman Nelson, Dayton, Ohio, 2-and-1, and Culbrenne Atlanta, Ga., who ousted Thomas Terza, Duquesne, Pa., 5-and-4.

Don Schrubull, Kewanee, Ill., the only par shooter in Saturday's team competition, faced Michael Deverant, Glenside, Pa. Schrubull kept alive with a 5-and-4 victory over Richard Preston, Detroit.

Changes in Bonus Rule Suggested
Milwaukee, Wis. — (U.P.) — A recommendation to change the major league baseball bonus rule was made Monday by player representatives of both leagues on eve of the annual All-Star game.

The players went on record favored a limit of two bonus players from each club who would not count in the present roster limit of 25. Teams now can sign an unrestricted number of players who are paid more than a $4,000 bonus, but they must be retained on the major league roster for two years.

Out Veterans
Player representatives of the American and National leagues felt that such bonus players were taking the place of men who should be in the big leagues, but who were sent down to make room for the bonus "kids."

Also recommended were rules to allow the players unrestricted winter league play for one year, and to provide that players may be invited, but not required, to report prior to March 1. The present rule bans spring practice before that date.

Robert Feller Chosen
National League players re-elected Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies as player representative for two years and named Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati as his alternate. American League representative for the same period will be Bob Feller, Cleveland pitcher, with Washington infielder Eddie Yost as his alternate.

Roberts and Ralph Kiner of Cleveland were named to the pension committee with Feller and Kluszewski as alternates. A representative of the retirement corporation was scheduled to suggest a new pension plan, but he reported that a study of the old pension plan was not yet complete.

Emery Neal Tips Neer for Crown
Portland — (U.P.) — Emery Neale won his eighth men's singles title at the 58th annual Oregon State tennis tournament here yesterday after a tough struggle with Jack Neer.

Neale finally whipped the University of Portland ace 2-6, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1. He also teamed up with Sam Lee to take the doubles crown from Hugh Findlay and Jim Flynn of Portland.

Women's singles honors went to Joan Johnson of Los Angeles who downed Geraldyn Shepard of Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-1.

Bruins Defenseman May Coach Victoria
Victoria, B. C. — (U.P.) — There was considerable speculation here today that Bill Quackenbush, Boston Bruins defenseman, would be named coach of Victoria Hockey League.

Bill Reay, who doubled as coach and center during his two-year stint at the helm of the Cougars, was signed recently to coach the Seattle entry in the WHL.

Bevos Rap Pads 6-1; Solons Trim Seattle

By MILES K. BENEDICT
United Press Sports Writer
Last night's Pacific Coast League games apparently prove that a good old pitcher—given proper rest and care—can beat a good young pitcher on any given night—say July 11, 1955.

The veterans Red Adams (7-4) of Portland and Earl Harrist (3-6) of Sacramento quieted the bats of the front running San Diego Padres and second-place Seattle Rainiers last night with hardly a bad scare.

Beavers Win 6-1.
Adams, 34 years young, faced his junior Lloyd Dickey, 25, and came out on top by a 61 count over San Diego. Harrist, 35, with six days rest, bested 23-year-old Johnny Oldham 5-2 in Sacramento and brought the Solons out of the loop cellar after 38 long days.

Seattle's candidates, who have played second fiddle to San Diego since June 1, missed an opportunity to cut the Padres' lead to a single game while the rest of the clubs, which were not scheduled, picked up a half game on the league leaders. San Francisco, 15½ games off the pace, backed into eighth place and trailed the Solons by a half game.

Adams not only scattered nine San Diego hits, he also collected a double and a single in the Beavers' 13-hit barrage and scored twice. Big Ed Mickelson

Portland Round Cut By USGA

New York — (U.P.) — The U. S. Golf Association announced today 31 qualifying sections, six fewer than last year, have been set up for the National Amateur championship to be played at Richmond, Va., Sept. 12-17.

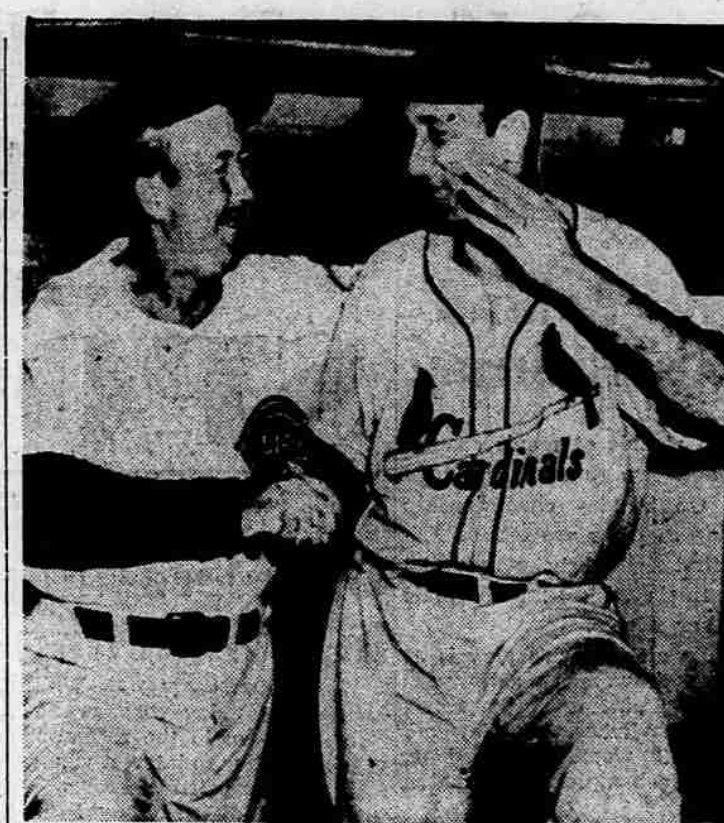

The qualifying will take place Aug. 30 except at Seattle, Wash., where the qualifying round will be played Aug. 29.

Portland Eliminated
A qualifying round has been added at Montgomery, Ala. Rounds played last year at Lincoln, Neb.; Albuquerque, N. M.; Albany, N. Y.; Portland, Ore.; Lubbock, Tex.; Milwaukee, Wis.; and Salt Lake City, Utah, have been eliminated. The number of sections has been reduced in an effort to consolidate the smaller ones.

A field of 200, composed of qualifiers and entrants exempt from sectional qualifying, will contest the championship proper at the James River course of the Country Club of Virginia. The championship will be at match play.

Four Handicap
Entries are open to male amateur golfers with handicaps not exceeding four strokes. For the first time, handicaps must be computed according to the USGA handicap system for men. Residents of the U. S. must be members of USGA member clubs. Entries must be in the USGA office at 40 East 38th Street, New York, 16, N. Y., by 5 p.m., Aug. 12.

PENN TRIUMPHS
Hamburg — (U.P.) — The University of Pennsylvania crew, winner of the Grand Challenge Cup in the Henley Regatta, continued its triumphant trip through Europe by winning the International Rowing Regatta in 6:45.5 Sunday.

LET'S SHAKE 'N' MAKE UP—In Cincinnati, St. Louis Manager Harry Walker rubs his cheek and admits it was quite a punch that Birdie Tebbetts, left, Redleg manager, threw during a donnybrook in a climactic ninth inning. Both managers drew $100 fines.

Puleo Takes Win Over Manzo; May Face Contender

New York — (U.P.) — Anthony (Sonny) Puleo, young Brooklyn lightweight who won a substitute television fight at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night, was offered another bout there today with featherweight contender Carmelo Costa.

Promoter Tex Sullivan said, "I'd like to match Puleo and Costa next month if I can."

Smart direction from his corner helped 23-year-old Sonny win a unanimous 10-round decision over rough Libby Manzo of Elmhurst, N. J., Monday night. Manzo's headlong aggressiveness won the first two rounds. Then Sonny's handlers told him to straighten up Libby with a "lifting" attack of uppercuts and hooks to the head. He followed directions admirably.

Puleo, in his 15th professional fight, weighed 136¼ pounds; Manzo, 134 for his 27th bout. Manzo, 25, was penalized the 10th round for butting, and he was warned several other times. He was groggy in the 5th and 10th rounds but there were no knockdowns.
