

Fingerprints Found in Room of Kidnaped Girl

Sioux City, Ia.—(U.P.)—Several "good" fingerprints of the rapist-slayer of 2-year-old Donna Sue Davis have been found in the bedroom from which she was abducted, police said today.

Optimistic police officials said the prints, found on a cedar chest, Donna's crib and the frame window through which the killer escaped, provide the first "big break" in the case.

Identification Expected
They said the prints probably will give positive identification of the murderer.

Meanwhile, the FBI issued a nationwide arrest order for the sex degenerate who snatched Donna from her crib while her parents watched television Sunday night and left her ravaged body at the edge of a muddy cornfield near South Sioux City, Neb., where it was found late Monday.

The blonde, curly-haired child was laid to rest today by four child pall bearers.

From Sister's Class
The pall bearers, all boys, were from the classroom of Donna's sister, Mary, 11, at St. Boniface Roman Catholic school, where funeral services were held. A large crowd attended.

Donna was buried in a white lambkin casket lined with ivory crepe. A red bathrobe, bonnet and white gloves covered the abrasions on her tiny body. The casket was closed at the request of the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis.

No mass was said for Donna, because she wasn't confirmed. Burial was held at Calvary cemetery.

Man Confesses Sex Slaying of Brother's Family

Jamestown, N.Y.—(U.P.)—A 25-year-old man with a record of sex offenses broke down under questioning Tuesday night and confessed to the sex murders of his brother's wife and 18-month-old daughter.

Joseph Reade told police he assaulted Mrs. Beverly Reade, 25, and her daughter Cheryl Lynn, in their home and then strangled them. The murders occurred while Reade's brother, Francis, was at work Monday night.

When informed of his brother's confession, Francis Reade gritted his teeth and said, "Just give me ten minutes with him."

Special Kind of Hell
The grief-stricken husband, who found the battered bodies at 7 a.m. Tuesday when he returned home from work, told police "certainly there is a special kind of hell for anyone who would do a thing like this."

Police said they would charge the short-chubby killer with first degree murder. They said he was arrested in 1946 in a Jamestown hotel along with a young girl. In 1951, he was arrested on a charge of endangering the morals of a minor.

Reade is married but separated from his wife. He has one child.

Police picked Reade up as a possible suspect when a neighbor said she had seen him and his sister-in-law playing cards in the dead woman's apartment on the murder night.

Turncoats Miserably Sick at Sea

Abroad Tae President Cleveland At Sea — (U.P.) — Three ex-

GI turncoats became miserably seasick today when their ocean liner ran into the fringe of a typhoon 100 miles south of Okinawa.

While the SS President Cleveland pitched and tossed in a choppy sea, the turncoats lay white-faced and silent in their third-class dormitory bunks.

The three — William A. Cowart, 22, Dalton, Ga., Lewis W. Griggs, 22, Jacksonville, Tex., and Otho G. Bell, 24, Olympia, Wash. — are on their way to San Francisco.

They spent 19 months in Red China after refusing repatriation at the Panmunjon prisoner of war exchange. Finally, they decided they would rather come home to an uncertain future than to live under Communism.

Since leaving Hong Kong, they have spent their time quietly aboard ship. They appear bored. Occasionally they have taken a drink in the third-class lounge, but most of the time they have just lain in their bunks.

Other passengers have often seen Griggs alone on deck, apparently praying.

The three have only the clothing they are wearing with them — open shirts, slacks, shoes and windbreakers.

Cowart said Tuesday that the Chinese people are beginning "passive resistance" to the Communist regime.

"When I first went into China, people actively participated in the mandatory Communist meetings," he said. "They are silent today and waiting. This passive resistance is everywhere."

He claimed the Chinese people are looking to America for liberation.

He said an attack by an American Army battalion on a Chinese Communist port would start the disintegration of the Red-held mainland.

Cousins Named Heirs To Portland Estate

Portland — (U.P.) — Six first cousins were declared rightful heirs to the $1,000,000 estate of Mary C. Vogt in circuit court here late yesterday.

Judge Charles W. Redding said Annie, John, Thomas, Bernard, Christopher and Andrew Donohue would share the estate which includes the Lumbermens building here.

Eleven attorneys, representing 40 of the 100 persons who were potential heirs, took part in the two-day hearing.

Mrs. Vogt died in 1935. David Fain, attorney for the trustees, said he was not sure if all the cousins were alive.

Guards Continue To Quit at Walla Walla

Walla Walla — (U.P.) — The number of guards at the Washington State penitentiary who have resigned in the wake of last week's riot was reported to have risen to 10 today.

Eugene Winne, one of the correction guards held hostage during the 26 hour rebellion, said he resigned "because there is no safety in the prison."

Winnett said prison officials "made the cons a lot of promises they can't keep" in order to settle the riot and free the nine men held hostage.

"It just won't work," he declared. "If the officials don't keep these promises I think it will happen all over again. Only it will be worse. I don't think the cons will fool around next time."
